Townsend, came up, and was disposed of as follows:-The pastor to take a long vacation when he so desirer, and to obtain for the summer, if he remains away so long; student supply. Mr. Townsend will probably leave early in February. This congregation is one of the very few without debt, all accounts being paid up to December 31st, 1888.

AT a meeting of Young People's Asso-clation of St. Paul's, Montreal, Mr. Jas. Croil, editor of the Record, delivered a most interesting lecture on "The Mediterranean." In the course of the lecture Mr. Croil gave a brief account of his visit to the most notable places of interest in the countries about it, and recounted a number of very amusing and interesting incidents which had occurred to him in his travels, besides much useful and entertaining information regarding the historic sights of the old world.

MR. JOHN HUTTON, once a student of Knox College, now a farmer near Wingham, was recently waited on by a surprise party and presented with a beautiful fur overcoat, as an expression of gratitude anti appreciation of evangelistic services rendered by him in the neighbourhood where he resides. Notwithstanding bad roads and inclement weather, a large number of Mr. Hutton's friends assembled at his residence laden with choice viands. After the rendering of a programme, consisting of Gospel songs and speeches, a rich repast was prepared and received with thanksgiving and Christian fellowship. The party separated well-pleased with the entertainment.

REV. DR ROBERTSON superintendent of Missions in Manitoba and the North-West has recently been addressing meetings at Strathroy and other places in Western Ontatio, in the interests of Home Missions. The Age in giving a report of the meeting in Strathroy says —"Dr. Robert-Henderson presided at the organ; sevson spoke for an hour and a half, and eral recitations were given by the rivetted the attention of all during the whole time. THERE was no Christmas tree for the children at Russeltown, this season, but, instead, the pastor, Rev. N. Waddell, B.D. entertained them and the members of his Bible Class at the mante, Thursday evening, lanuary 17th, when they took the oppotturity of giving him a pleasant sur-prise by presenting him with an address and a purse of money, as tokens of their appreciation of his able and efficient services. Mr Waddell thanked them very heartily for their kindness and referred to the way he had been encouraged during the past by their sympathy and co-operation During the past year the church at Russeltown was painted, the old pulpit taken down, a new platform erected and one corner of the church re-seated for the choir. At Covey Hill, a new organ was bought and paid for, and now steps are being taken to cushion the pews of the church. At an annual meeting, held in Russeltown, on the 4th of Jan., the treasurer's report showed the financial state of the church to be in a good condition, there being a balance on the right side of the sheet.

Says the Almonte Gazelle .- "The evangeliatic meetings that have been conducted in this town for the past few weeks, by Rev. Mr. Meikle, were brought to a close Tuesday night, but we believe the good effect of them will never come to an end There are many people in Almonte who will remember till their dying day the services held during these weeks past. If anything were wanting to show the hold that the simple presentation of the Gospel has on the hearts of the people, it will be found in the sacrifices made by many to attend these meetings. No mai ter what the state of the roads or the weather, the church was generally packed to the doors. At the close, Rev. Mr. Edmondson moved, and Rev. Mr. Card seconded, a resolution, wishing Mr. Mei-kie God-speed wherever he may continue his labours. The resolution was passed by a standing vote. Mr. Meikle as a te-ply sang "God be With You Till We Meet Again." It was a never-to-be-forgotten scene, to see strong men and women weeping as the last words of the hymn

Dr. McTavish, of Toronto; Haddow, of Milton, and Drumm, of George.own, all of whom spoke well. The address of Dr. McTavish, however, was particularly good, being replete with sound, practical advice, and delivered in a most pleasing manner. The music for the evening was furnished by the choir of the congregation, who rendered several anthems in a very excellent manner. Mr. and Mrs. Bunan, who sang several duets, added greatly to the pleasure of the evening. The Rev. J. Argo, pastor, occupied the chair. A vote of thanks to speakers and choir was pro-posed by Rev. J. Alexander, the former pastor, who expressed his great satisfaction at the success of the anniversary. On Wednesday night of the preceding week, the annual S. t, R. ALLI MR J R AULT, of Aultsville, departed this life Saturday merning, Jan. 5 b. 1259, in his osth year. Mr. Ault rad k en in failing health ter the past year or more; but it was only within the last three months it became evident his days on earth were numbered, and that his disease was of an incurable nature, and one if it would cause intense suffering. When a sured that he man aid or chill was unavailing, he took the news in a quiet brisis nepuls, and colonly arranged all his worldly affairs, and faithfly awaited the Master's tunimons. Mr stult was presiding elder of St. Matthew's church, Woodlands, for many years, and always took a deep interest in the welfare of the congregation, looking after the financial Lusiress of the church, being always prompt in furthering every work connected therewith. He will be greatly missed by many warm-hearted friends, and his place will be hard to fill. He was a leadog merchant in the county for nearly a titetime, and for many years took an active part in municipal effairs, township and county, at the carnest solicitation of ittends and neighbouts. He was a warmheatted, genial friend, and ever ready to assist those in need.

It was decided to deal with remits from Assembly at next meeting of Presbytery.—J. R. Munro, Clerk.

ORANGEVILLE. MET in Orangeville Jan 8th. Rev. D. McLeod, of Priceville was appointed land occupied the chair. The Cierk reported that as the people of Black's Corner's, Laurel and Waldemar had decided to have, if possible, a settled pastor, he did not advertise for an ordained missionary. Delegates from these three stations being present asked the Presbytery to rescind their former resolution anent an ordained missionary, to appoint one of its members to moderate in a call and to apply for $150 per annum from the Augmentation Fund. The Presbytery appointed the Clerk to that the arrears of South Delaware were moderate as soon as they are ready. In the absence of Mr. McLeod the gratification. Mr. Boyle, St. Thomas, Clerk read the report of the Committee, was appointed to address the annual meetappointed to examine the new Book of Forme, which report was adopted and ordered to be forwarded to the Convener of the Assembly's Committee. The Clerk read an extract minute of the Presbytery of Lindsay to the effect that Rev. E. Cockburn of Uxbridge had refused the call from Orangevitie. The Presby-tery took into consideration the best con-nection for Primrose. The Clerk was instructed to correspond with the Clerk the families within the bounds.- GEORGE SUTHERLAND, Clyk. of the Barrie Presbytery, with a view to forming a union between Banda and Air-lie in said Presbytery and Honeywood the charge to be in connection with Orangeville Presbytery. This would enable the Preabytery to unite Horning's Mills and Primose. The Clerk was in-structed to cite all parties interested to appear at next meeting of Presbytery. Rev. J. A Ross, B. A. tendered his resignation of the charge of Dundalkand Ventry. Messra Cooper and Abbot appeared from Ventry and Mesers Kirkton and Jewall from Dundalk. All these expressed the high esteem in which Mr. Ross well by the people, and their regret at the spect of losing him. The following lution passed by the Ventry congregation was read? That the members and ad herents of this Station are in perfect harmony with the Rev. J. A. Rose, and highly appreciate his labours amongst them as pastor, and it is with regret and sorrow that we think of his depar tore, knowing that he has done much to ward forward ng the cause of Christ, and building up o r congregation since coming here as our pistor." Mr Roes stated that he was in perfect harmony with the stople, the terrough additions largely of young people lanery had doubled and Dundaik tod nebled it membership, but, owing to rem vals of families, Dundalk was much weater tinancially. Met in London on the 11th of Dec , Rev. W. M. Roger, Moderater The tollowing are some of the items of bitsiness transacted A call from Ductor, in layour of Rev. Thomas Wilson, Tottenham signed by sixty members and 106 adherents, pr sing $900 supend and manse. was duly sustained, and ordered to be transmitted to the Cerk of Barris Pres bytery. Mr. D. D McLeod, or Barrie, was appointed to attend to the interests of London Presbyiers in the prosecution committee on ic-arrangement of fields, presented a petition from the congregations of Appin, and Tau's Corners, requesting more Sabbath services, and in order to obtain thir, asking that they separate pastoral charge under the designation of Appin and lait's Corners The petition was signed by fitty-three mem bers and 150 adherents. There also accompanied the petition, a subscription list, amounting to $633, for paying sup-ply of ordinances. After heating commissioners from all the congregations interested, the Presbytery unanimously agreed to grant the prayer of the memorialists, the same to take effect on the first Sabbath of January, and that Mr. Dugald Currie, inform the congregations concerned of this action of the Presbytery, on the two following Sabbaths. It was agreed that Mr D Currie, act as Moderator of the new charge, and that the elders at Appin form the members of Session. The report of the committee anent the re-arrangement of Melbourne anent the re-arrangement of Melbourne and associated stations, which was also laid on the table, was remitted to the committee, with instructions to visit the field again, and report to the adjourned meeting of Presbytery in Dutton. The militaters present reported the action of their against accounts. their respective congregations in contributing to the schemes of the Church Mr. on Byangelistic Services, submitted a scheme for holding such services, and moved that the same be received and considered serialim. This motion was duly seconded. It was moved in amendment by Mr. John Currie, seconded by Mr. J. Munro, that the scheme be again remitted to the committee, to have it so modified as to respect more clearly the constitutional rights of Sessions, and report at a future Sederunt. The amendment was carried. The draft of a scheme for Presbyterial visitation was submitted and discussed very fully. It was agreed, on motion of Mr. Murray, to remit the scheme again to the committee, with instructions to prepare a series of questions in the line of those suggested in the draft of the new Book of Forms, to be used by the deputations in their interviews with the office-bearers of the congregations. The committee were instructed to report at the March meeting. Mr. F. Ballantyne was auded to the committee. Communications from Dr. Cochrane and Mr. Macdonell, anent Home Mission and Augmentation Schemes, were read and discussed. It was agreed to appoint Mr. F. Ballantyne, to draft estimates of the amount expected from each congregation, and send circulars to that effect to each Session. The Presbytery considered next the remit of Assembly, on the expenses of delegates to the General Assembly. It was agreed to submit the remit to Sessions, who are required to report at the March meeting. The draft of the book of Forms of Procedure was remitted to a committee, to report at the March meeting. The congregation of East Williams, was recognized as a regular charge, without a settled pastor. Mr. Sawers reported that the arrears of South Delaware were ing of the Ladies' Foreign Mission Presbyterial Association on the 22nd of Jan, Mr. Urquhart gave in the statistical and financial report for the past year. It was agreed to receive and adopt the report, thank the committee, and especially the Convener, for their diligence, and request Mr. Urquhart to print the report in sufficient numbers to be distributed over all
