COMPLIMENTARY DINNER TO G. W. CAMPBELL, A.M., M.D., ON HIS RETURN TO CANADA.

It is our pleasing duty to record a complimentary dinner to G. W. Campbell, A.M., M.D., Dean of the Medical Faculty McGill University, given by the Medical profession of our city, and held at the St. Lawrence Hall, on the evening of Tuesday, 10th October instant, on the occasion of his return to Canada after a temporary absence in Europe.

This dinner was confined to members of the Medical profession, and was a slight recognition of the esteem in which Dr. Campbell is held by his confreres. The large majority of those present on the occasion, were old pupils of McGill University, and had received their early professional education in part from their guest. The committee of arrangements received solicitations from many non-professional gentlemen for leave to join in this exhibition of kindly feeling, but it was decided to restrict the meeting to medical men only. At an early hour some forty gentlemen assembled in the parlour of the St. Lawrence Hall, and shortly after seven o'clock dinner was announced.

The chair was taken by William Sutherland, Esq., M.D., having on his right the guest of the evening, and on his left His Worship Mayor Coursol. Dr. Scott, President of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, and Dr. Peltier, President of the Medico Chirurgical Society of Montreal, acted as croupiers. After the usual loyal
