THE RECORD.—SPECIAL NOTICE.—According to the former plan of publication, the present number would be the last of the volume. But, in accordance with recommendations from various quarters, other two numbers will be issued, and then the new volume will commence with January. Many reasons might be assigned for this change. In the meantime, we earnestly ask ministers, agents in congregations, and others, to make up and forward new lists in time for the commencement of the new volume. We request, too, most urgently, that prompt payment be made, especially by those in arrears. Subscribers, who have been in the habit of paying at this season, will please send 70c, which will pay (including postage) up to the close of 1871. For the year, the rate will remain as formerly, viz: 60c. per annum, postage included; 55c. each, when three or more go in one cover; packets of twelve to one address, $5.60; fifty to one address, $22.00.
