THE Christmas Cosmopolitan contains Stories by Rudyard Kipling, Wm. Dean Howells, Mrs. Spencer Trask, Mrs. Burton Harrison, and Albion W. Tourgee, interspersed with poetry by Sir Edwin Arnold, Edmund Clarence Stedman, and James Whitcomb Riley, while through the number are scattered illustrations by such famous artists as Remington, Toche, Reinhardt, Turner, Von Shaik, Gibson and Stevens. A series of portraits of beautiful women of society illustrate an article on the Relations of Photography to Art; a travel article by Napoleon Ney, grandson of the famous Field Marshall; one of the series of Great Passions of History, to which Froude and Gosse have already contributed, and half a dozen others equally interesting, go to make up the attractions of the number. The Cosmopolitan people say: "We might charge you more for this number, but, in all frankness, could we give you better material, better illustrated, if we charged you a dollar a copy."

THE Division Courts have been well called the poor man's court, for they afford a ready means of collecting small accounts which are in dispute, at a minimum of cost. The amending act of last session still further cheapens these courts, so far as accounts under ten dollars are concerned. More use would doubtless be made of them if their procedure was better understood. To this end Mr. W. H. Higgins, of the Division Court Inspector's office, has prepared a manual, which has just been published by Hart and Riddell, within whose covers is to be found everything necessary to a full and intelligent understanding of the rules of procedure, fees, and all else pertaining to them. It is a most useful work, and fills a long felt want. Every business man who has occasion to resort to the use of the courts should have it, while to the profession it must prove a convenient work of reference. Mr. Higgins' experience in the Inspector's office qualifies him to compile such a book, and it is needless to say that the publishing firm who did the printing have done their part of the work well. It is up to date in every respect.

ONE of the most artistic little books for Christmas which we have seen for a long time has been placed on the market by Hart and Riddell. It is by Prof. Goldwin Smith and is entitled "Keeping Christmas." The frontispiece is by our well known artist, E. Wylly Greer. The cover is a beautiful piece of work, and the whole reflects great credit on the publishers.

- A FOUNTAIN PEN - FOR
$1.00

A Fountain Pen is a good thing, provided you get the right kind at a moderate price. Fountain pens have hitherto been too high in price to come into general use. But the problem has been solved, and a good pen is now offered FOR ONE DOLLAR, free by post. This is not a cheap imitation, but a genuine gutta percha holder, with non-corrodible iridium pointed nib, from a first-class English firm. The nibs are furnished in fine, medium and broad, and as there is a twin feed the flow of ink is steady and reliable. Gold nibs, and holders with gold bands at higher prices, but the DOLLAR PEN is just as well adapted for everyday use.

The Neptune (for that is its name) is a favorite in England for short hand writers and others, but this is the first time, we believe, it has been offered for sale in Canada. The holder contains ink enough for two days steady writing.

Can be had by addressing J. J. Bell, GRIP Office, 81 Adelaide St., West, Toronto.
