A VENERABLE and dignified bishop was recently having his portrait painted by an eminent artist. After sitting steadily for about an hour in silence, his lordship thought he would like to break the monotony with a remark. Accordingly he said to the artist, "How are you getting on?"

To the astonishment of his sitter, the knight of the palette, absorbed in his work, thus replied: "Move your head a little that way, and shut your mouth!"

Not being accustomed to be spoken to in this fashion, the bishop said, "May I ask you why you address me in this manner?"

ARTIST (still absorbed)—"I want to take off a little of your cheek."

SUMMER TOURS.

THOSE contemplating a summer holiday, involving the maximum of pleasure with the minimum of cost, cannot do better than take a glance through the elegantly illustrated little volume just issued by Mr. Edgar, head of the G.T.R. Passenger Department. In this brochure the trips outlined are truly an embarrassment of riches. Amongst the famous resorts described are Niagara Falls, Parry Sound, Georgian Bay, Muskoka Lakes, Mackinac Island, Midland District Lakes, Thousand Islands, St. Lawrence Rapids, White Mountains, Saugeenay River, Rangeley Lakes and the Sea Shore. Out of such a list paterfamilias ought to be able, whatever the condition of his purse, to make a satisfactory choice. The book (which is really a work of art) contains full particulars as to steamboat connection, rates of fare, etc. Copies may be obtained from Grand Trunk agencies, or by addressing Mr. Wm. Edgar, at the head office, Montreal.

DOLLY—"Have you ever seen a mistletoe bow?"

CUMSO—"No; but I've seen a peanut stand."
