LIVES OF ILLUSTRIOUS IRISHMEN.—An excellent book by Thomas Clark Luby, A. B., T. C. D. The tendency of the book is too "advanced" for us, and the style is classic, and the book is beautifully turned out.

LES JESUITES-MARTYRS DE CANADA.—If the savage assaults upon the Catholic Church and its "priest-ridden" people, read such works as "Les Jesuites-Martyrs du Canada"—they must see the folly and the crime of assailing men who have been principally instrumental in recovering Canada from barbarism to Christianity.

EVENINGS IN THE LIBRARY.—By George Stewart, Jr., author of the story of the great fire in St. John's, N. B. These sketches have been taken from Belford's Magazine, and although there are many passages in them with which we do not agree, yet the sketches are vigorous as the style is peaceful.

It is a book of 400 pages, and is published by Mr. Glosin, and selling at Sackville street, Dublin.
