

It is a Good Business Proposition to treat your earning power properly. You are earning, say, $1,500 per year. With money worth 5 per cent. it would take $30,000 to earn the same amount. Your earning power, then, is equal to a capital of $30,000. But it may cease and be utterly lost—unless you insure it. In the above case you should carry life insurance up to as near $30,000 as you can possibly afford, and you should place it with the best available company. As you probably know, to get the best results you will have to
