

...wrong, in a multitude of instances, the Papist occupies a strong and towering vantage ground. Yes, the doctrinal differences of this schismatical sect will be brought up in judgment at the last day, and it is permitted to contend single-handed for the paramount claims of revelation.

...the Church, and which esteems the long-cherished desire of His devout servants to maintain, as their Prayer-Book requires, the Daily Morning and Evening Services of Prayer and Praise, as an impertinent interference with the rights of men resting to the worship of Almighty.

...or said anything which could either affect his orthodoxy, or in any way injure his further usefulness! We regret our inability to give his lordship's exact words, as we only heard the document accidentally many weeks ago.

...VERSE 13.—"Exact." So the original word is employed in the best Classical writers.

...mit to erect a Church on a contiguous acre. It is hoped that this statement of the operations of the Church in the mission, will be considered sufficiently satisfactory to stimulate all to increased exertion in future.

...THE SYNOD. To the Editor of the Montreal Star.—From the numerous meetings, letters, and editorial matter which have been called forth at this time upon the subject of a new Bishop for that portion of this diocese, which is to constitute the new See of Kingston, it is very evident that the minds of Churchmen are busily occupied with its consideration.

...ST. JAMES' CHURCH PARIS. From the Paris Star. On Easter Monday the annual Vestry meeting of the congregation of this church was held. We are happy to learn that notwithstanding the difficulties with which this church has had to contend for the last few years, its finances this year present very cheering evidences of prosperity.

The Church.

Hamilton, Friday, April 11 1856.

THE VISITATION AND SYNOD. TO THE CLERGY AND LAITY OF THE DIOCESE OF TORONTO.

TORONTO, March 25, 1856.

My Dear Brethren, It having been intimated to me from various quarters, that inconvenience might arise from the state of the roads, should the Visitation and Meeting of the Diocesan Synod take place so early as the 16th and 17th of April, appointed by my circular of the 28th of February last, and being anxious to insure a full attendance, I hereby give notice, that the Visitation is postponed to Wednesday, the 30th of April, Divine Service to commence in the Cathedral, at Ten o'clock, A. M. On the following day—viz., the First of May, the Synod will begin its Session with Morning Prayer, at the same hour.

I remain My dear Brethren, Your affectionate Diocesan, JOHN TORONTO.

THE ECHO, AND THE REV. W. A. JOHNSON.

"Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division."

The Rev. W. A. Johnson is an instance of the manner in which respectable attainments, zeal, and piety are made productive, principally of confusion, strife, division, and evil, when accompanied by an unscriptural theory of church principles, and not guided by sound judgment and discretion.

He has exemplified this at Cobourg; he has shown it at Yorkville; and, it is to be apprehended, that the same effects will be produced at Weston." Thus writes the Echo concerning the Rev. Wm. A. Johnson, now the Incumbent of Weston! "The italics are ours. We can pity and forgive, while we deeply deplore, the very serious errors into which the Calvinistic portion of our Brethren within the Church have fallen; we could afford kindly to smile at the simplicity, and yet apparently self-gratulation, with which they style themselves par excellence 'Evangelical'; did we not groan in spirit as we recollect how fearfully their mistaken sentiments tend to undermine some of the dearest truths of the blessed Evangel; we can even in defiance of all logical consistency, determine to believe in the pure intentions and honorable truthfulness of our Calvinistic Brethren, although while denying some of the plainest and most prominent doctrines of the Prayer-book, they still profess to receive all its teaching! All this,—incomprehensible as it is—are the mental processes by which they can reconcile themselves to their false position as Anglican Churchmen,—all this, we say, we can pity and forgive, and love our Brethren still.

But we confess it arouses our holy indignation—we pray God there may be no latent feeling of human wrath commingled therewith—when we see those men, who are so unhappily the unconscious (as we hope) betrayers of the truth of Christ, as set forth in His Church, themselves so utterly blind to their own most questionable position, as Anglican Churchmen, and so entirely oblivious of that brotherly love which should distinguish the Communion of Saints, as to seize the first opportunity of holding up to public censure a brother clergyman; and in so doing garble the facts and suppress the truth! Acts these, which we are willing to attribute rather to the miserably deteriorating effects of the peculiar theology they profess, upon the moral perceptions of the intellectual faculties, than to corruption of heart.

That Mr Johnson has erred we may not doubt, since his Bishop has so decided; but we are not thereby forbidden to declare our calm conviction—that, as regards his opponents, his great sin has been a closer adherence to the principles of the Book of Common Prayer, and a more fervent zeal, than suits this latitudinarian age; an age that practically disputes even the right of Christ to confine elect salvation to His own Apostles.

The Church.

Hamilton, Friday, April 11 1856.

THE VISITATION AND SYNOD. TO THE CLERGY AND LAITY OF THE DIOCESE OF TORONTO.

TORONTO, March 25, 1856.

My Dear Brethren, It having been intimated to me from various quarters, that inconvenience might arise from the state of the roads, should the Visitation and Meeting of the Diocesan Synod take place so early as the 16th and 17th of April, appointed by my circular of the 28th of February last, and being anxious to insure a full attendance, I hereby give notice, that the Visitation is postponed to Wednesday, the 30th of April, Divine Service to commence in the Cathedral, at Ten o'clock, A. M. On the following day—viz., the First of May, the Synod will begin its Session with Morning Prayer, at the same hour.

I remain My dear Brethren, Your affectionate Diocesan, JOHN TORONTO.

THE ECHO, AND THE REV. W. A. JOHNSON.

"Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division."

The Rev. W. A. Johnson is an instance of the manner in which respectable attainments, zeal, and piety are made productive, principally of confusion, strife, division, and evil, when accompanied by an unscriptural theory of church principles, and not guided by sound judgment and discretion.

He has exemplified this at Cobourg; he has shown it at Yorkville; and, it is to be apprehended, that the same effects will be produced at Weston." Thus writes the Echo concerning the Rev. Wm. A. Johnson, now the Incumbent of Weston! "The italics are ours. We can pity and forgive, while we deeply deplore, the very serious errors into which the Calvinistic portion of our Brethren within the Church have fallen; we could afford kindly to smile at the simplicity, and yet apparently self-gratulation, with which they style themselves par excellence 'Evangelical'; did we not groan in spirit as we recollect how fearfully their mistaken sentiments tend to undermine some of the dearest truths of the blessed Evangel; we can even in defiance of all logical consistency, determine to believe in the pure intentions and honorable truthfulness of our Calvinistic Brethren, although while denying some of the plainest and most prominent doctrines of the Prayer-book, they still profess to receive all its teaching! All this,—incomprehensible as it is—are the mental processes by which they can reconcile themselves to their false position as Anglican Churchmen,—all this, we say, we can pity and forgive, and love our Brethren still.

But we confess it arouses our holy indignation—we pray God there may be no latent feeling of human wrath commingled therewith—when we see those men, who are so unhappily the unconscious (as we hope) betrayers of the truth of Christ, as set forth in His Church, themselves so utterly blind to their own most questionable position, as Anglican Churchmen, and so entirely oblivious of that brotherly love which should distinguish the Communion of Saints, as to seize the first opportunity of holding up to public censure a brother clergyman; and in so doing garble the facts and suppress the truth! Acts these, which we are willing to attribute rather to the miserably deteriorating effects of the peculiar theology they profess, upon the moral perceptions of the intellectual faculties, than to corruption of heart.

That Mr Johnson has erred we may not doubt, since his Bishop has so decided; but we are not thereby forbidden to declare our calm conviction—that, as regards his opponents, his great sin has been a closer adherence to the principles of the Book of Common Prayer, and a more fervent zeal, than suits this latitudinarian age; an age that practically disputes even the right of Christ to confine elect salvation to His own Apostles.

The Church.

Hamilton, Friday, April 11 1856.

THE VISITATION AND SYNOD. TO THE CLERGY AND LAITY OF THE DIOCESE OF TORONTO.

TORONTO, March 25, 1856.

My Dear Brethren, It having been intimated to me from various quarters, that inconvenience might arise from the state of the roads, should the Visitation and Meeting of the Diocesan Synod take place so early as the 16th and 17th of April, appointed by my circular of the 28th of February last, and being anxious to insure a full attendance, I hereby give notice, that the Visitation is postponed to Wednesday, the 30th of April, Divine Service to commence in the Cathedral, at Ten o'clock, A. M. On the following day—viz., the First of May, the Synod will begin its Session with Morning Prayer, at the same hour.

I remain My dear Brethren, Your affectionate Diocesan, JOHN TORONTO.

THE ECHO, AND THE REV. W. A. JOHNSON.

"Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division."

The Rev. W. A. Johnson is an instance of the manner in which respectable attainments, zeal, and piety are made productive, principally of confusion, strife, division, and evil, when accompanied by an unscriptural theory of church principles, and not guided by sound judgment and discretion.

He has exemplified this at Cobourg; he has shown it at Yorkville; and, it is to be apprehended, that the same effects will be produced at Weston." Thus writes the Echo concerning the Rev. Wm. A. Johnson, now the Incumbent of Weston! "The italics are ours. We can pity and forgive, while we deeply deplore, the very serious errors into which the Calvinistic portion of our Brethren within the Church have fallen; we could afford kindly to smile at the simplicity, and yet apparently self-gratulation, with which they style themselves par excellence 'Evangelical'; did we not groan in spirit as we recollect how fearfully their mistaken sentiments tend to undermine some of the dearest truths of the blessed Evangel; we can even in defiance of all logical consistency, determine to believe in the pure intentions and honorable truthfulness of our Calvinistic Brethren, although while denying some of the plainest and most prominent doctrines of the Prayer-book, they still profess to receive all its teaching! All this,—incomprehensible as it is—are the mental processes by which they can reconcile themselves to their false position as Anglican Churchmen,—all this, we say, we can pity and forgive, and love our Brethren still.

But we confess it arouses our holy indignation—we pray God there may be no latent feeling of human wrath commingled therewith—when we see those men, who are so unhappily the unconscious (as we hope) betrayers of the truth of Christ, as set forth in His Church, themselves so utterly blind to their own most questionable position, as Anglican Churchmen, and so entirely oblivious of that brotherly love which should distinguish the Communion of Saints, as to seize the first opportunity of holding up to public censure a brother clergyman; and in so doing garble the facts and suppress the truth! Acts these, which we are willing to attribute rather to the miserably deteriorating effects of the peculiar theology they profess, upon the moral perceptions of the intellectual faculties, than to corruption of heart.

That Mr Johnson has erred we may not doubt, since his Bishop has so decided; but we are not thereby forbidden to declare our calm conviction—that, as regards his opponents, his great sin has been a closer adherence to the principles of the Book of Common Prayer, and a more fervent zeal, than suits this latitudinarian age; an age that practically disputes even the right of Christ to confine elect salvation to His own Apostles.

The Church.

Hamilton, Friday, April 11 1856.

THE VISITATION AND SYNOD. TO THE CLERGY AND LAITY OF THE DIOCESE OF TORONTO.

TORONTO, March 25, 1856.

My Dear Brethren, It having been intimated to me from various quarters, that inconvenience might arise from the state of the roads, should the Visitation and Meeting of the Diocesan Synod take place so early as the 16th and 17th of April, appointed by my circular of the 28th of February last, and being anxious to insure a full attendance, I hereby give notice, that the Visitation is postponed to Wednesday, the 30th of April, Divine Service to commence in the Cathedral, at Ten o'clock, A. M. On the following day—viz., the First of May, the Synod will begin its Session with Morning Prayer, at the same hour.

I remain My dear Brethren, Your affectionate Diocesan, JOHN TORONTO.

THE ECHO, AND THE REV. W. A. JOHNSON.

"Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division."

The Rev. W. A. Johnson is an instance of the manner in which respectable attainments, zeal, and piety are made productive, principally of confusion, strife, division, and evil, when accompanied by an unscriptural theory of church principles, and not guided by sound judgment and discretion.

He has exemplified this at Cobourg; he has shown it at Yorkville; and, it is to be apprehended, that the same effects will be produced at Weston." Thus writes the Echo concerning the Rev. Wm. A. Johnson, now the Incumbent of Weston! "The italics are ours. We can pity and forgive, while we deeply deplore, the very serious errors into which the Calvinistic portion of our Brethren within the Church have fallen; we could afford kindly to smile at the simplicity, and yet apparently self-gratulation, with which they style themselves par excellence 'Evangelical'; did we not groan in spirit as we recollect how fearfully their mistaken sentiments tend to undermine some of the dearest truths of the blessed Evangel; we can even in defiance of all logical consistency, determine to believe in the pure intentions and honorable truthfulness of our Calvinistic Brethren, although while denying some of the plainest and most prominent doctrines of the Prayer-book, they still profess to receive all its teaching! All this,—incomprehensible as it is—are the mental processes by which they can reconcile themselves to their false position as Anglican Churchmen,—all this, we say, we can pity and forgive, and love our Brethren still.

But we confess it arouses our holy indignation—we pray God there may be no latent feeling of human wrath commingled therewith—when we see those men, who are so unhappily the unconscious (as we hope) betrayers of the truth of Christ, as set forth in His Church, themselves so utterly blind to their own most questionable position, as Anglican Churchmen, and so entirely oblivious of that brotherly love which should distinguish the Communion of Saints, as to seize the first opportunity of holding up to public censure a brother clergyman; and in so doing garble the facts and suppress the truth! Acts these, which we are willing to attribute rather to the miserably deteriorating effects of the peculiar theology they profess, upon the moral perceptions of the intellectual faculties, than to corruption of heart.

That Mr Johnson has erred we may not doubt, since his Bishop has so decided; but we are not thereby forbidden to declare our calm conviction—that, as regards his opponents, his great sin has been a closer adherence to the principles of the Book of Common Prayer, and a more fervent zeal, than suits this latitudinarian age; an age that practically disputes even the right of Christ to confine elect salvation to His own Apostles.

The Church.

Hamilton, Friday, April 11 1856.

THE VISITATION AND SYNOD. TO THE CLERGY AND LAITY OF THE DIOCESE OF TORONTO.

TORONTO, March 25, 1856.

My Dear Brethren, It having been intimated to me from various quarters, that inconvenience might arise from the state of the roads, should the Visitation and Meeting of the Diocesan Synod take place so early as the 16th and 17th of April, appointed by my circular of the 28th of February last, and being anxious to insure a full attendance, I hereby give notice, that the Visitation is postponed to Wednesday, the 30th of April, Divine Service to commence in the Cathedral, at Ten o'clock, A. M. On the following day—viz., the First of May, the Synod will begin its Session with Morning Prayer, at the same hour.

I remain My dear Brethren, Your affectionate Diocesan, JOHN TORONTO.

THE ECHO, AND THE REV. W. A. JOHNSON.

"Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division."

The Rev. W. A. Johnson is an instance of the manner in which respectable attainments, zeal, and piety are made productive, principally of confusion, strife, division, and evil, when accompanied by an unscriptural theory of church principles, and not guided by sound judgment and discretion.

He has exemplified this at Cobourg; he has shown it at Yorkville; and, it is to be apprehended, that the same effects will be produced at Weston." Thus writes the Echo concerning the Rev. Wm. A. Johnson, now the Incumbent of Weston! "The italics are ours. We can pity and forgive, while we deeply deplore, the very serious errors into which the Calvinistic portion of our Brethren within the Church have fallen; we could afford kindly to smile at the simplicity, and yet apparently self-gratulation, with which they style themselves par excellence 'Evangelical'; did we not groan in spirit as we recollect how fearfully their mistaken sentiments tend to undermine some of the dearest truths of the blessed Evangel; we can even in defiance of all logical consistency, determine to believe in the pure intentions and honorable truthfulness of our Calvinistic Brethren, although while denying some of the plainest and most prominent doctrines of the Prayer-book, they still profess to receive all its teaching! All this,—incomprehensible as it is—are the mental processes by which they can reconcile themselves to their false position as Anglican Churchmen,—all this, we say, we can pity and forgive, and love our Brethren still.

But we confess it arouses our holy indignation—we pray God there may be no latent feeling of human wrath commingled therewith—when we see those men, who are so unhappily the unconscious (as we hope) betrayers of the truth of Christ, as set forth in His Church, themselves so utterly blind to their own most questionable position, as Anglican Churchmen, and so entirely oblivious of that brotherly love which should distinguish the Communion of Saints, as to seize the first opportunity of holding up to public censure a brother clergyman; and in so doing garble the facts and suppress the truth! Acts these, which we are willing to attribute rather to the miserably deteriorating effects of the peculiar theology they profess, upon the moral perceptions of the intellectual faculties, than to corruption of heart.

That Mr Johnson has erred we may not doubt, since his Bishop has so decided; but we are not thereby forbidden to declare our calm conviction—that, as regards his opponents, his great sin has been a closer adherence to the principles of the Book of Common Prayer, and a more fervent zeal, than suits this latitudinarian age; an age that practically disputes even the right of Christ to confine elect salvation to His own Apostles.

The Church.

Hamilton, Friday, April 11 1856.

THE VISITATION AND SYNOD. TO THE CLERGY AND LAITY OF THE DIOCESE OF TORONTO.

TORONTO, March 25, 1856.

My Dear Brethren, It having been intimated to me from various quarters, that inconvenience might arise from the state of the roads, should the Visitation and Meeting of the Diocesan Synod take place so early as the 16th and 17th of April, appointed by my circular of the 28th of February last, and being anxious to insure a full attendance, I hereby give notice, that the Visitation is postponed to Wednesday, the 30th of April, Divine Service to commence in the Cathedral, at Ten o'clock, A. M. On the following day—viz., the First of May, the Synod will begin its Session with Morning Prayer, at the same hour.

I remain My dear Brethren, Your affectionate Diocesan, JOHN TORONTO.

THE ECHO, AND THE REV. W. A. JOHNSON.

"Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division."

The Rev. W. A. Johnson is an instance of the manner in which respectable attainments, zeal, and piety are made productive, principally of confusion, strife, division, and evil, when accompanied by an unscriptural theory of church principles, and not guided by sound judgment and discretion.

He has exemplified this at Cobourg; he has shown it at Yorkville; and, it is to be apprehended, that the same effects will be produced at Weston." Thus writes the Echo concerning the Rev. Wm. A. Johnson, now the Incumbent of Weston! "The italics are ours. We can pity and forgive, while we deeply deplore, the very serious errors into which the Calvinistic portion of our Brethren within the Church have fallen; we could afford kindly to smile at the simplicity, and yet apparently self-gratulation, with which they style themselves par excellence 'Evangelical'; did we not groan in spirit as we recollect how fearfully their mistaken sentiments tend to undermine some of the dearest truths of the blessed Evangel; we can even in defiance of all logical consistency, determine to believe in the pure intentions and honorable truthfulness of our Calvinistic Brethren, although while denying some of the plainest and most prominent doctrines of the Prayer-book, they still profess to receive all its teaching! All this,—incomprehensible as it is—are the mental processes by which they can reconcile themselves to their false position as Anglican Churchmen,—all this, we say, we can pity and forgive, and love our Brethren still.

But we confess it arouses our holy indignation—we pray God there may be no latent feeling of human wrath commingled therewith—when we see those men, who are so unhappily the unconscious (as we hope) betrayers of the truth of Christ, as set forth in His Church, themselves so utterly blind to their own most questionable position, as Anglican Churchmen, and so entirely oblivious of that brotherly love which should distinguish the Communion of Saints, as to seize the first opportunity of holding up to public censure a brother clergyman; and in so doing garble the facts and suppress the truth! Acts these, which we are willing to attribute rather to the miserably deteriorating effects of the peculiar theology they profess, upon the moral perceptions of the intellectual faculties, than to corruption of heart.

That Mr Johnson has erred we may not doubt, since his Bishop has so decided; but we are not thereby forbidden to declare our calm conviction—that, as regards his opponents, his great sin has been a closer adherence to the principles of the Book of Common Prayer, and a more fervent zeal, than suits this latitudinarian age; an age that practically disputes even the right of Christ to confine elect salvation to His own Apostles.

The Church.

Hamilton, Friday, April 11 1856.

THE VISITATION AND SYNOD. TO THE CLERGY AND LAITY OF THE DIOCESE OF TORONTO.

TORONTO, March 25, 1856.

My Dear Brethren, It having been intimated to me from various quarters, that inconvenience might arise from the state of the roads, should the Visitation and Meeting of the Diocesan Synod take place so early as the 16th and 17th of April, appointed by my circular of the 28th of February last, and being anxious to insure a full attendance, I hereby give notice, that the Visitation is postponed to Wednesday, the 30th of April, Divine Service to commence in the Cathedral, at Ten o'clock, A. M. On the following day—viz., the First of May, the Synod will begin its Session with Morning Prayer, at the same hour.

I remain My dear Brethren, Your affectionate Diocesan, JOHN TORONTO.

THE ECHO, AND THE REV. W. A. JOHNSON.

"Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division."

The Rev. W. A. Johnson is an instance of the manner in which respectable attainments, zeal, and piety are made productive, principally of confusion, strife, division, and evil, when accompanied by an unscriptural theory of church principles, and not guided by sound judgment and discretion.

He has exemplified this at Cobourg; he has shown it at Yorkville; and, it is to be apprehended, that the same effects will be produced at Weston." Thus writes the Echo concerning the Rev. Wm. A. Johnson, now the Incumbent of Weston! "The italics are ours. We can pity and forgive, while we deeply deplore, the very serious errors into which the Calvinistic portion of our Brethren within the Church have fallen; we could afford kindly to smile at the simplicity, and yet apparently self-gratulation, with which they style themselves par excellence 'Evangelical'; did we not groan in spirit as we recollect how fearfully their mistaken sentiments tend to undermine some of the dearest truths of the blessed Evangel; we can even in defiance of all logical consistency, determine to believe in the pure intentions and honorable truthfulness of our Calvinistic Brethren, although while denying some of the plainest and most prominent doctrines of the Prayer-book, they still profess to receive all its teaching! All this,—incomprehensible as it is—are the mental processes by which they can reconcile themselves to their false position as Anglican Churchmen,—all this, we say, we can pity and forgive, and love our Brethren still.

But we confess it arouses our holy indignation—we pray God there may be no latent feeling of human wrath commingled therewith—when we see those men, who are so unhappily the unconscious (as we hope) betrayers of the truth of Christ, as set forth in His Church, themselves so utterly blind to their own most questionable position, as Anglican Churchmen, and so entirely oblivious of that brotherly love which should distinguish the Communion of Saints, as to seize the first opportunity of holding up to public censure a brother clergyman; and in so doing garble the facts and suppress the truth! Acts these, which we are willing to attribute rather to the miserably deteriorating effects of the peculiar theology they profess, upon the moral perceptions of the intellectual faculties, than to corruption of heart.

That Mr Johnson has erred we may not doubt, since his Bishop has so decided; but we are not thereby forbidden to declare our calm conviction—that, as regards his opponents, his great sin has been a closer adherence to the principles of the Book of Common Prayer, and a more fervent zeal, than suits this latitudinarian age; an age that practically disputes even the right of Christ to confine elect salvation to His own Apostles.

HAMILTON MARKETS.

Table with 4 columns: Commodity, Price, and other details. Includes Flour, Wheat, Butter, etc.

BIRTS.

In this city, on the 2nd inst, Mrs Edward Brown, Barton, sister of a son.

AT THE ANGLICAN CHURCH, ON THE 31st ult, Mr John Coombs to Miss Mary Ann Hastings, both of this city.

'The Church,' WILL BE PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING, AT HAMILTON, BY H. B. BULL, Editor & Proprietor.

TERMS: Ten Shillings a year, if paid within one month; or Twelve shillings and six pence, if paid within six months; and if not paid within six months, fifteen shillings will be charged per annum.

RATES OF ADVERTISING: Six lines and under, first insertion, &c.

Trinity College, Toronto.

THE ANNUAL EXAMINATION for Matriculation and for Scholarships will commence on TUESDAY, September 30, 1856.

SIX DIVINITY SCHOLARSHIPS, tenable for four years, viz. One of £200 currency per annum. Two of £200 do. Three of £200 do.

ONE CAMERON SCHOLARSHIP, tenable for three years, of the annual value of $75 currency, appropriated to the sons of Clergymen of the United Church of England and Ireland, resident and doing duty in British North America, with a reference to the regulations annexed, and intended to receive Holy Orders in the Church of England. The holder of this Scholarship is required to graduate in Arts.

ONE WELLINGTON SCHOLARSHIP, of the annual value of £50 currency, tenable for three years, will be awarded to Students commencing their College course in October, according to the result of the yearly examinations in the following June.

For further particulars application may be made to the Provost of Trinity College, Toronto, March 6, 1856.

PRESENTATION TO THE REV. J. C. USHER OF BRANTFORD.

We gave a short notice of this most handsome mark of respect in our last issue, we now give the accompanying letter and the Rev. Mr. Usher's reply in full:

DEAR SIR,—At a Vestry Meeting held during the week of your absence in the States, it was determined to raise a subscription for the purpose of rendering you some assistance in the present untoward position of your financial affairs. As the Treasurer named on that occasion, I have now the pleasure to present you the sum contributed, amounting to £201 14s. 4d., requesting the favor of your acceptance of it as a present from your people.

With much respect, I remain, Reverend Sir, Your Obedient Servant, THOMAS B. WINTER.

ACOLA TORONTO, March 22, 1856.

My DEAR FRIENDS AND PARISHIONERS,—I embrace the present auspicious and joyful season of the year, to offer you my most heartfelt thanks for your kind and liberal contributions to me and my family.

I feel not a little embarrassed in expressing my appreciation of the manner, as well as the generous spirit in which you have performed a Christian act, as creditable to yourselves as it is serviceable to me and mine.

Persons do not in all cases speak the merits of either the giver or the receiver in this instance however, the merit is yours and not mine, for you have promptly contributed to the relief of my necessities when you discovered it to be urgent, and with a generosity worthy of the Gospel you pressed, you spent little time in scanning the difficulty, but anxiously addressed yourselves to aid in its removal. For this your opportune bounty, I repeat, you have my grateful thanks; and I would venture to say with the Apostle, in circumstances not dissimilar, "that ye have well done, that ye did command me to do my affliction."

I feel not a little embarrassed, however occasioned, were I not to say, and even more so by my family to be an affliction, which threatened for a time to ripen into one still heavier; but God who knoweth our fears, in His good Providence put it into your hearts, my dear friends, to afford me that timely assistance, by your Christian offering, which has contributed materially to rectify my uncomfortable position.

Appreciating, as I believe I do, the motive and the liberality of all those who have united in this work of love, I shall accept the whole as a pledge that you, my beloved people, among whom I have gone in and out with my dear family, for many years, not without comfort and joy, will never be found wanting to honor the Lord with your substance, when either the Church or its Ministers can for a reasonable claim for your temporal assistance.

Permit me, my dear friends and brethren in the Gospel of Christ, to hope and pray that these manifest tokens of your affection to the Gospel of Christ, may abound in you more and more; "for such things," saith our beloved brother Paul; "are as a crown which shall not fade away, and which shall be laid up for you in glory by Christ Jesus."

With sentiments of Christian friendship and regard, I am, dear friends, Your beloved brother, and Minister for Christ's sake, JAMES CAMPBELL USHER.

P. S.—The amount of your kind donation to me, for which you have my acknowledgments, is £201 14s. 4d.

NEW ORDERS.—We have had the pleasure of an inspection of the splendid new Organ just completed by Messrs. White & Hagar, for a Church in London. We understand it is the largest in the Province west of Toronto. In tone and power it justly deserves every praise.

ST. JAMES' CHURCH, PARIS.—On Monday, the Annual vestry meeting of the Congregation was held at this Church. The report was favorable, more having been collected than in previous years and a good portion of debt liquidated.

MESSRS. J. A. PENTON, H. J. GREENSTREET and ARNOLD BURROWS were appointed as the lay Delegates at the approaching Synod in Toronto.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE FITZROY AND PAKENHAM BRANCH OF THE CHURCH SOCIETY OF THE DIOCESE OF TORONTO.

The Second Annual Meeting of the Fitzroy and Pakenham Branch of the Church Society of the Diocese of Toronto, was held in St. Mark's Church, Pakenham, on Wednesday, the 12th March, 1856. The weather being exceedingly cold and boisterous, rendered travelling extremely difficult and disagreeable. The attendance was, in consequence, although very good under the circumstances, not so numerous as it otherwise would have been. It was pleasing to observe the presence of some members of the Church who live at a considerable distance, while many residing near were absent.

The meeting being opened by the Incumbent after the usual manner, W. P. Taylor, Esq., a member of the Committee appointed to prepare the Annual Report being called on, read the following REPORT.

When it is considered that this Branch of the Church Society was established in January, 1854, we must feel that we have reason to be thankful to the Divine Disposer of events, for the great measure