MACMILLAN'S DOLLAR NOVELS.
NEW VOLUMES.
BETHESDA.
By Barbara Elton. 12mo., $1.

Will rank with the half dozen works of fiction that have rendered the last twelvemonth a somewhat noteworthy period in the development of American literature. The passages quoted will indicate sufficiently well the wholesome moral tone of the book, a tone which takes its note from the loftiest aspirations and rises above the gross and material into an atmosphere of hope, and faith, and peace. "Bethesda" is unquestionably a novel of depth, originality and power. It marks a tendency in fiction which is destined to bring forth noble results.—Literary World.
Its style is not unlike that of Mr. F. Marion Crawford, though its moral tone is far superior to anything Mr. Crawford has as yet written. The book is strangely fascinating. The reader falls at once deeply in love with the beautiful heroine, and his admiration and love increase for her as the book approaches the end. The moral lesson which "Bethesda" teaches is a high and noble one. Next to "Mr. Isaacs" the book is the best novel that has appeared in several years.—American Queen.
This is one of the great successes of the book—the power to make us forget that we are dealing with fiction, and that instead we are actually taking part in the tribulations and trials and purposes of real living persons. The book is destined to be widely read, and almost as widely apart will be the views concerning it.—Christian at Work.

RECENTLY PUBLISHED,
A GREAT TREASON.
By Mary A. M. Hoppus. 12mo., $1.
It is a sensible relief to light upon a book which has for its foundation the events of some remarkable period of the world's history. "A Great Treason" will certainly recommend itself to those readers who ask more from a novel than the amusement of an idle hour.—Morning Post.
Miss Hoppus tells a story of the American War of Independence in a characteristic and attractive style, which accommodates itself both to the time and to the scene, without affectation or extravagance. History and fiction are adroitly blended, and it is difficult to say which part of the tale is the most interesting.—Athenaeum.
Investing with a romantic glow the entire history of the Revolutionary War. The book has a peculiar charm.—New York Observer.

HESTER.
By Mrs. Oliphant. 12mo., $1.
At her best, she is, I think, with one or two exceptions, the best of living novelists. She is at her best in "Hester."—Academy.
