

QUIPS AND CRANKS.

Ice is sensitive. When left at your door in the hot sun it will run away if not brought in.

The people quickly recognize merit, and this is the reason the sales of Hood's Sarsaparilla are continually increasing. Try it.

We must never undervalue any person. The workman loves not to have his work despised in his presence.

ANOTHER RECORD MADE.

For nearly forty years, Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry has been the leading and surest cure for cholera, colic, diarrhoea, dysentery, and all summer complaints. It is a record to be proud of.

She (sketching): I suppose I could get your expression better if you sat a little further off. He: On the contrary, I was just going to quote my favourite hymn. She: What is that? He: Draw me nearer.

HAVE YOU HEADACHE?

Headache, which is usually a symptom of stomach trouble, constipation or liver complaint can be entirely cured by B. B. (Burdock Blood Bitters) because this medicine acts upon, and regulates the stomach, liver, bowels, and blood.

"What I doesn' like," said Uncle Eben, "is a man dat'll worry his self sick ober weidah de Worl's Fair is open on Sunday, and nebber thinks once 'bout closin' his own conf-hole in de side walk."

A BATTLE FOR BLOOD

It is what Hood's Sarsaparilla vigorously fights, and it is always victorious in expelling all the foul taints and giving the vital fluid the quality and quantity of perfect health. It cures scrofula, salt rheum, and all other troubles caused by impure blood. Hood's Pills cure all liver ills. 25c. Sent by mail on receipt of price by C. I. Hood & Co. Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

Teacher: Are any of your compositions ready? Little Girl: Mine is. "Is it an original composition? Yes'm. Does it tell of your own experiences and observations, as I directed? Yes'm. Very well. You may read it. "I went to a wedding and a funeral an' the bride looked lovely an' the corpse looked natural."

MRS. MILLION'S RIDE.

When Mrs. Million goes to ride she travels forth in state. Her horses, full of fire and pride, go prancing from the gate; and all the beauties of the day she views with languid eyes.

Her flesh in weakness wastes away, her voice is but a sigh. For Mrs. Million is in an advanced stage of catarrh, and all the luxuries that wealth can buy fail to give her comfort. She envies her rosy waiting-woman's pure breath and blooming health. Now, if Mrs. Million of the wonderful merits of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, she would learn that her case is not past help. $500 reward is offered by the manufacturer for a case of catarrh in the head which they cannot cure.

Here is one of those stories which ought to be true: In Emporia, Kan., recently, the Probate Judge issued a marriage license and the papers to admit a man to the asylum. The papers got into the wrong envelope, and when the prospective bridegroom drew forth from his pocket the large envelope containing the license, upon the back was this startling announcement, "Adjudged to be insane."

Commonplace, though it may appear, is the doing of one's duty embodies the highest idea of life and character. There may be nothing heroic about it; but the common lot of men is not heroic.—Samuel Johnson.

In Nature there is no dirt, everything is in the right condition; the swamp and the worm, as well as the grass and the bird—all is there for itself. Only because we think that all things have a relation to us, do they appear justifiable or otherwise.—Auberbach.
