

- (d) the place of residence and the point of departure of the Canadian personnel in the Philippines upon completion of their assignment;
- (6) any official assistance which may be required for the purpose of facilitating the travel of Canadian personnel in the performance of their duties in the Philippines;
- (7) any official assistance which may be required for the purpose of expediting the clearance through customs of equipment, products, materials, supplies and other goods required for the execution of projects and the personal and household effects of Canadian personnel and their dependants;
- (8) the storage of articles mentioned in paragraph (7) above during the period when they are held at customs and any measures required to protect these articles against natural elements, loss, fire and any other danger;
- (9) all permits, licences and other documents including costs related thereto, if any, for equipment, materials, supplies or goods required for the execution of projects and to enable Canadian firms and Canadian personnel to carry out their functions in the Philippines;
- (10) subject to any laws of the Republic of the Philippines, all necessary visas and all import or export permits, as the case may be, for the Canadian personnel and their dependants and for the personal effects of such Canadian personnel and their dependants;
- (11) the prompt inland transportation of all equipment, products, materials, supplies and other imported goods required for the execution of projects, from the port of entry into the Philippines to project sites, including where necessary, the obtaining of priority by the Philippines forwarding and transportation agents;
- (12) transportation for journeys performed on official duties in accordance with the existing regulations of the Government of the Republic of the Philippines governing transport and travelling claims. No claim is permitted for travelling between house and office. The Canadian personnel who does not own or use a personal car for official duties will be reimbursed for the cost of actual transportation used in conformity with existing rules of the Government of the Republic of the Philippines. The Canadian personnel on duty away from his place of posting will also be eligible for subsistence/day allowance as well as payment of hotel expenses/lodging allowance in accordance with the applicable regulations of the Government of the Republic of the Philippines.
- (13) permission from the relevant Department or Departments in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations to use all means of communication such as high frequency radio transmitters and receivers approved for use in the Philippines and telephone and telegraph networks, depending on the needs of a specific project; and
- (14) reports, records, maps, statistics and other information related to projects and likely to assist Canadian personnel in carrying out their duties; provided that they are not classified and have no relation to national security.