*EMR - HELPING YOU MEET
TODAY'S CHALLENGES IN EARTH SCIENCES AND MINING*

CANADA IS A LEADING MINERAL PRODUCER AND EXPORTER

Canadian earth sciences and mining companies have extensive experience in developing mining operations around the world.

For all aspects of mining and mineral processing, from geoscientific research to development and production, Canadian industry provides equipment, training, management, maintenance services and other support for efficient and profitable operations. Canadian companies also excel in environmental assessment, monitoring and controls to ensure clean healthy and competitive industries.

Canada also has proven regulatory and police experience that has fostered effective development.

Energy, Mines and Resources Canada (EMR) supports the Canadian mining industry. EMR's Mineral Policy Sector can be your link to Canada's mineral industry and its internationally-recognized expertise.
