

Value-Added tax which is assessed at a flat rate of 10%. The taxable value of imported goods is comprised of the CIF value, any import tariffs, duties, and other increases in the base which are documented..

-Municipal Property tax. Ecuadorian municipalities assess a tariff on all buildings and properties located within their city limits which is based on the commercial land value as determined by city appraisal.