

Riddell also attended as an observer the Conferences for Concerted Economic Action held under the auspices of the League at which Canada was not officially represented. Reports on the various questions before the League have been forwarded to the Secretary of State for External Affairs, and an increasing measure of information as to League activities furnished Canadian correspondents and the growing number of Canadians who visit Geneva each year.

TREATIES AND CONVENTIONS

An Agreement between Canada and Germany for the return of unliquidated sequestrated German property was signed for Canada at the Hague on January 14, 1930, by the Hon. P. C. Larkin. Ratifications were exchanged at London on August 27, 1930.

An Agreement for the complete and final settlement of the financial liabilities of Germany relating to the Great War was signed at the Hague on January 20, 1930, for Canada by the Hon. P. C. Larkin, and ratified by Canada on July 12, 1930. A supplementary arrangement between creditor powers for the settlement of various outstanding questions regarding inter-allied reparation accounts was signed for Canada on the same day by the Hon. P. C. Larkin, and ratified on July 12, 1930.

An Agreement discharging Austria from financial obligations and providing for the cessation of the liquidation of Austrian property was signed for Canada at the Hague on January 20, 1930, by the Hon. P. C. Larkin, and ratified on July 12, 1930.

An Agreement providing for the final settlement of the outstanding reparation debt of Bulgaria was signed for Canada at the Hague on January 20, 1930, by the Hon. P. C. Larkin.

An Agreement for the full and final settlement of the reparations debt of Czechoslovakia was signed for Canada at the Hague on January 20, 1930, by the Hon. P. C. Larkin, and ratified on July 11, 1930.

An Agreement for the reciprocal exemption of shipping profits from double taxation was arranged between Canada and Germany by an exchange of notes on April 17, 1930.

A Treaty for the Limitation and Reduction of Naval Armament was signed for Canada in London on April 22, 1930, by the Hon. Philippe Roy and ratified on October 22, 1930.

A Declaration in regard to ratification of international agreements relating to the financial obligations of Hungary resulting from the Treaty of Trianon was signed for Canada in Paris on April 28, 1930, by Hon. Philippe Roy.

An Agreement for the reciprocal exemption of shipping profits from double taxation between His Majesty's Governments in Canada and the United Kingdom was signed for Canada at Ottawa on May 8, 1930, by the Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King and the Hon. W. D. Euler.