

- a) traffic requirements to and from the territory of the Contracting Party which has designated the airline;
 - b) traffic requirements of the area through which the airline passes after taking account of other transport services established by airlines of the States comprising the area; and
 - c) the requirements of through airline operation.”
- (e) Article VI—delete paragraphs 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6 and substitute the following:

“2. The tariffs referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be agreed upon between the designated airlines of the Contracting Parties; such agreement shall be reached, whenever possible, through the rate-fixing procedures of the International Air Transport Association.

3. The tariffs so agreed shall be submitted to the aeronautical authorities of the Contracting Parties at least forty-five (45) days before the proposed date of their introduction; in special cases, a shorter period may be accepted by the aeronautical authorities. If within thirty (30) days from the date of submission the aeronautical authorities of one Contracting Party have not notified the aeronautical authorities of the other Contracting Party that they are dissatisfied with the tariff submitted to them, such tariff shall be considered to be acceptable and shall come into effect on the expiration of the forty-five (45) day period mentioned above. In the event that a shorter period for the submission of a tariff is accepted by the aeronautical authorities, they may also agree that the period for giving notice of dissatisfaction be less than thirty (30) days.

4. If a tariff cannot be established in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 2 above, or, if during the period applicable in accordance with paragraph 3 above a notice of dissatisfaction has been given, the aeronautical authorities of the Contracting Parties shall endeavour to determine the tariff by agreement between themselves.

5. If the aeronautical authorities cannot agree on any tariff submitted to them under paragraph 3 of this Article or on the determination of any tariff under paragraph 4, the dispute shall be settled in accordance with the provisions of Article IX of the present Agreement.

6. (a) No tariff shall come into force if the aeronautical authorities of either Contracting Party are dissatisfied with it except under the provisions of paragraph 3 of Article IX of the present Agreement.

(b) When tariffs have been established in accordance with the provisions of this Article, those tariffs shall remain in force until new tariffs have been established in accordance with the provisions of this Article.”

- (f) After Article VIII, add a new Article X to read:

“Each Contracting Party grants to the airlines of the other Contracting Party the right of free transfer, in conformity with the OECD's Code of Liberalization of Current Invisible Operations, signed by both Contracting Parties, of funds obtained by each in the normal course of its operations. Such transfers shall be effected on the basis of the foreign exchange market rates for current payments prevailing at the time of the transfer and shall not be subject to any charges except those normally collected by banks for such transactions.”
