PROGRAMME

THE Festivities will be commenced by the Pianist, a gentleman who used to board in the same street with Mr. Gotschalk. The man who kept the boarding-house remembers it distinctly. The overture will consist of a medley of airs, including the touching new ballads, "Dear Sister, is there Any Pie in the House?"—"My Gentle Father, have you Any Fine-Cut about you?"—"Mother, is the Battle o'er, and is it Safe for me to Come Home from Canada?" and [by request of many families who haven't heard it] "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp, the Boys are Marching!" While the enraptured ear drinks in this sweet music [we pay our pianist nine dollars a week, and "find him,"] the eye will be enchained by the magnificent green baize covering of the Panorama. This green baize cost 40 cents a yard. We shall keep up with the times, if we spend the last dollar our friends have got.
