

CONTENTS.

vii

CHAPTER X.

THE GOVERNMENT.

	PAGE
Absence of Foreign Relations—Power of the President—The President's Ministers—English and American Ministers—Position of the President's Ministers—Committees of the Two Houses—Executive Powers of the Senate—Great Men needed for the Government	302

CHAPTER XI.

THE LAW COURTS AND LAWYERS OF THE UNITED STATES.

Ohio—
Wood—
German	150
As to purity of the Bench—Legal Proceedings in the United States—Position of Lawyers in the States—Distinct Position of Federal and State Tribunals—Jurisdiction of the National Courts—The Supreme Court at Washington—Appointment of the States Judges—Low Condition of the Bench	324

CHAPTER XII.

THE FINANCIAL POSITION.

Passes—
h of the essence of oldiers—
Report—	173
Objects for which the Money has been Spent—Will the United States Pay?—The Excise Duties—Direct Taxation—Amount of the Debt—Immediate Pressure—Can the Burden be borne?	340

CHAPTER XIII.

THE POST-OFFICE.

Political Maryland
—North-
eturn to	179
Deficiencies in the Post-Office System—Amount of Correspondence—Post-Office difficulties—Post-Office Revenue—The Franking Privilege—Rotation of Office—Use of Patronage—Post-Office Mileage—Post-Office Extravagance	367

CHAPTER XIV.

AMERICAN HOTELS.

Senate—Ministers
e of the —Miscelstitution
sident—	247
Hotels	390

CHAPTER XV.

LITERATURE.

Literature	410
----------------------	-----