

- WILLIAMS—Sir C. Hanbury, verses on Lord Cowper by, L. C., v. 282; satirical verses by, vi. 498.
- WILLIAMS—Sir John, Justice of the King's Bench, admirable scholarship of, C. J., iv. 348.
- WILLIAMS—Sir E. V., Justice of the Common Pleas, valuable notes by, to the Reports by Saunders of cases decided temp. Charles II., C. J., ii. 325; L. C., i. 155; the present state of the common law best learned from, ib.
- WILLIAMS—Sir John, Judge of Queen's Bench, eminence as counsel and essayist, L. C., ix. 182; counsel for Queen Caroline, motion for inquiries into arrears of Chancery, 182, 209, 228; defeated by Sir R. Peel, 183; opinion as to courteous demeanor of Lord Eldon, 406.
- WILLIAMS—Sir W., Speaker, heavy fine imposed on, L. C., iv. 367; made Solicitor-General, ib.
- WILLIS—Chief Baron, decision of, respecting the King's Certificate, L. C., iii. 201.
- WILLIS—Dr., attends George III. during his insanity, L. C., vii. 500; letters on the mental condition of George III., viii. 448.
- WILLIS—Rev. Dr., mental condition of George III. described by, viii. 450, 453.
- WILLIS—Sir R., treachery of, L. C., iv. 5.
- WILLS—Statute of, passed in the reign of Henry VIII., first gave the power of devising real property, L. C., ii. 137; validity of, how determined, iii. 162.
- WILLS—Amendment Act passed, L. C., ix. 374; provisions, 377; important provision in, v. 377.
- WILMINGTON—Earl of, Prime Minister, L. C., vi. 150; incompetency of, 153; death, 155.
- WILMOT—Sir J. Eardley, birth and education, C. J., iii. 170; his eminent schoolfellows, 171; his anxiety for seclusion, 172, 179; retires from London, 175; is made a Judge, ib.; qualifications for Chancellor, L. C., vi. 458; a Commissioner of the Great Seal, refuses to be Chancellor, C. J., iii. 177; becomes Chief Justice of Common Pleas, by duress, 179; again refuses the Great Seal, 182; resigns his office, 183.
- WILSON—"Life and Reign of James I." by, C. J., i. 276, 314, 328.