STUDENTS AND LABORERS ENGAGED IN FREE FIGHT AT SUFFRAGETTE MEETING

Uproar in Glasgow Hall When Mrs. Pankhurst Started to Speak—Suffragette Leader Is Not Ill—Complete Collection of Hammers, False Number Plates and Stones Found in London Studio.

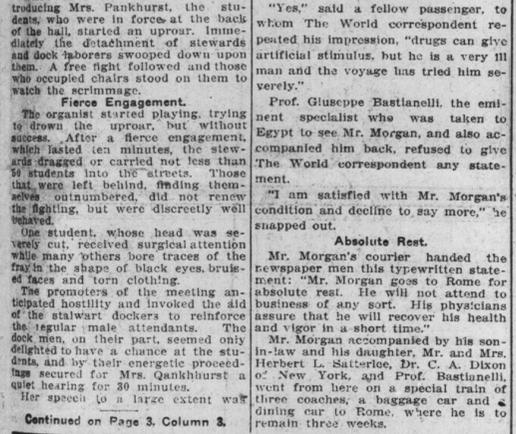

LONDON, March 13.—(Copyright.)—Mrs. Pankhurst, leader of the suffragettes, was engaged in preparing her defence against a charge of inciting to incendiarism. The police discovered at the Kensington studio of Olive Hocken, an artist and lady of considerable private means, a large collection of hammers, nail files, wire cutters and stones selected for breaking windows; also tools of different kinds and false number plates for motor cars. In fact a full stock in trade of militant suffragism. In the recent outages on golf links, the burning of railway stations, attempts to fire cabinet ministers' private houses, the false number plates were put on the cars. Miss Hocken, who is the wife of the Rev. Canon Hocken, of the parish of St. Andrew's, was arrested on the morning of the suffragette meeting in St. Andrew's Hall. She was released after a search of her studio and the removal of the tools. Mrs. Pankhurst, who is recovering from an illness, was not present at the meeting. A large body of students from the university came to St. Andrew's Hall for the purpose of breaking up the meeting. They got more than they bargained for. When Miss Janie Allan was introduced Mrs. Pankhurst, the students, who were in force at the back of the hall, started an uproar. Immediately the detachment of stewards and dock laborers swooped down upon them. A free fight followed and those who occupied chairs stood on them to watch the scrimmage.

MORGAN FEEBLE AND LEANS ON CANE

Financier Landed at Naples and Went to Rome for Three Weeks' Rest—He is a Very Sick Man and Walked Very Slowly and Feebly Off the Boat.

Special Cable to The World. NAPLES, Italy, March 13.—(Copyright.)—"A very sick man" precisely describes the effect of J. Pierpont Morgan's appearance on The World correspondent, who met him on his arrival here this morning from Egypt. Slowly and feebly the financier walked along the deck with the aid of a cane. He is an entirely changed man from last March, when The World correspondent saw him in Rome. He walked with effort, his face is thin and drawn, the look of decision has vanished, his piercing eye has lost its fire. Yet that a man of his age (his seventy-sixth birthday comes April 17) should have recovered even so far from the attack of apoplexy he had on the Nile, shows marvelous vitality.

OFFICER BORDEN: That'll do for youse. Move on now or I'll fan youse.

MORE THAN FIVE MILLIONS ASKED IN THE SUPPLEMENTARY ESTIMATES

OTTAWA, March 13.—Hon. W. T. White, minister of finance, tabled the supplementary estimates for the fiscal year ending on 31st inst. in the house today. They total $5,392,000. The Intercolonial Railway's request for $2,250,000 to cover increased cost of operation, due to the greatly increased traffic on that road for the last year, is by far the largest item in the estimates. The sum of $300,000 is asked by the postoffice department to cover the increased salaries and expenses in connection with the inspection and sales and Canada Grain acts call for $100,000; salaries and expenses in the customs department, $275,000; $213,000 for the agriculture department; $225,000 for immigration; $214,718 for the militia and defence department, of which $200,000 is required for the permanent force, $101,423 for a rifle range at Victoria, B.C., and $20,000 more for the Cadet Corps. The above amounts practically are all due now, and form the first item of supply the government asks.

ELEVEN MEN WERE DROWNED WHILE TWO CAPTAINS ARGUED AS TO LOWERING LIFEBOATS

NEW YORK, March 14.—The municipal ferry boat Queens was nearing Governor's Island last night when she was hailed by an outgoing steamship. This vessel, which had two masts, signaled that she had just run down another steamship, and it had gone to the bottom. The outgoing vessel explained by signals that it was unable to lower its own boats. The ferry boat came close and was told thru a megaphone that there was no question that the boat which it had been in collision with had sunk.

BALKAN STATES' REPLY EXPECTED

LONDON, March 14.—(Copyright.)—The Times says the Balkan States are expected to reply today (Friday) to the offer of mediation made by the powers. The reply is expected to be an acceptance, but with conditions that will make it impossible for the powers to act upon it. The question that will have to be decided is how the allies can be induced to withdraw the conditions. It is now regarded as extremely likely that peace cannot be made without pressure upon the belligerents.

CYCLONE WIPES OUT TOWN IN LOUISIANA

ALEXANDRIA, La., March 13.—(Can. Press.)—The town of Provençal, La., 52 miles west of here, was practically wiped out by a cyclone which struck there this morning. A negro boy was killed and 15 persons were injured. Two churches, a number of mercantile houses and 25 buildings were demolished. The storm swept everything before it in a path three to five hundred yards wide. None of those injured are believed to be fatally hurt. A report reached here late today that the town of Many, La., has also suffered from the storm, but owing to interrupted wire communication no details were obtainable.

MENTAL BREAKDOWN LED TO SUICIDE

Special Cable to The World. LONDON, March 13.—(Copyright.)—A coroner's inquest opened today on the bodies of Mrs. Louisa Wyman Jeffries and Miss Natalie Wyman Jeffries of New York, found drowned Tuesday morning in Busbridge Park Pond at Godalming. Henry Wyman Jeffries, husband of the former, said he was formerly an army surgeon in the United States and now lived at Kensington. His wife was 59 years old. Owing to illness they had lived separately. She had a mental breakdown in 1909 and he had not lived with her since, except when he had taken her abroad. They were on pecuniary difficulties. His wife visited him in London nine months ago. The jury in the case of Mrs. Jeffries returned a verdict of "found drowned," and in Miss Jeffries' case "suicide whilst of unsound mind."

DISSOLUTION IS AGAIN TOPIC AT OTTAWA

Obstructionists Make Boast That Parliament Will Die at End of Week, But Government Members Scout Suggestion—Coderre's Illness Causes Postponement.

OTTAWA, March 13.—(Special.)—The dissolution talk which had apparently ebbed away, is again at high tide, and many Liberal members are declaring tonight that the present parliament will die at the close of the week. On the other hand cabinet ministers and Conservative members who should be in touch with the situation, deny these reports with considerable vigor. It is significant, however, that no attempt is now being made to hold down the Liberal members to the subject in hand; and they are allowed, in their speeches, to ramble at will and discuss whatever they please. For the present week at least it seems evident that not the slightest restriction will be placed upon the endless stream of talk which flows from the opposition benches and will continue to flow without interruption until Saturday midnight.

CANADIANS SHOULD BE UNITED ON FORM OF AID TO EMPIRE CONSISTENT WITH AUTONOMY

W. F. Maclean Suggests to House That Parties Agree to Contribute Two Dreadnoughts and That Canada, Australia and New Zealand Join in Providing Pacific Fleet Unit.

OTTAWA, March 13.—(Special.)—Like the morning star after a long night of darkness and confusion came the suggestion of Mr. W. F. Maclean (S. York) in the house of commons this afternoon that the two political parties should find a common ground upon which to base an agreement respecting the policy of Canada in the matter of naval defence. The Dominion and the Empire.

MESSAGES FROM WM. T. STEAD TRANSMITTED THRU DAUGHTER

Harrowing Scenes Witnessed by Famous Editor Who Went Down With the Titanic Told Thru Spiritualistic Medium.

Special Cable to The World. LONDON, March 14.—(Copyright.)—Estelle W. Stead, daughter of the noted editor, William T. Stead, lost on the Titanic, told the London Spiritualists on Thursday night of messages received from her father. Her father, she said, found it difficult to communicate thru her, because her mind was apt to jump to conclusions, which it did not think possible.

FRIEDMANN IN TORONTO TODAY

OTTAWA, March 12.—(Can. Press.)—Dr. F. P. Friedmann, the German physician, left tonight for Toronto. With him went Dr. C. A. Hodgetts, who, as a member of the committee of medical men appointed to secure cases for Dr. Friedmann and to keep watch on their condition, desired to observe the German physician's work in the Queen City.
