

GERMANY'S POLICY IN FRANCE AND RUSSIA OF STARTLING WAR

RUSSIA WILL RISE AS ONE MAN TO REPULSE INSOLENT ATTACK DECLARES CZAR IN MANIFESTO

Were Using Every Effort to Obtain Peaceful Solution When Germany Suddenly Declared War.

Canadian Press Despatch. ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 3.—Empress Nicholas today issued a manifesto in which his majesty outlines the events leading up to the declaration of war by Germany and then says that "Russians will rise like one man and will repulse the insolent attack of the enemy."

"By the grace of God, we, Nicholas II, emperor and autocrat of all the Russias, King of Poland and Grand Duke of Finland, etc., to all our faithful subjects make known that Russia, related by faith and blood to the Slav peoples and faithful to her historical traditions, has never regarded their rates with indifference.

"But the fraternal sentiments of the Russian people for the Slav have been awakened with perfect unanimity and extraordinary force in these last few days when Austria-Hungary knowingly addressed to Serbia claims unacceptable for an independent state.

"Having paid no attention to the pacific and conciliatory reply of the Russian government and having rejected the benevolent intervention of Russia, Austria-Hungary made haste to proceed to an armed attack and began to bombard Belgrade, an open place.

"Forced by the situation thus created to take necessary measures of precaution, we ordered the army and the navy put on a war footing, at the same time using every endeavor to obtain a peaceful solution.

"Contrary to our hopes in our good neighborly relations of long date, and regarding our assurances that the mobilization measures taken were in pursuance of no object hostile to her, Germany demanded their immediate cessation.

"Unjustly attacked, and in the protection of a country related to us and unjustly attacked that must be accorded, but we must safeguard the honor and the integrity of Russia, and her position among the great powers of the world.

"We believe unshakably that all our faithful subjects will rise with unanimity and devotion for the defense of Russian soil, that internal discord will be forgotten in this threatening hour, that the unity of the empire with his people will become the defense of the Russian soil, that internal discord will be forgotten in this threatening hour, that the unity of the empire with his people will become the defense of the Russian soil.

BELGIUM'S APPEAL TO BRITAIN

LONDON, Aug. 3.—The text of the Belgian king's telegram to King George was as follows: "Remembering the numerous proofs of Your Majesty's friendship and that of your predecessor, of the friendly attitude of England in 1870, and the proof of the friendship which she has just given us again, I make a supreme appeal to the diplomatic intervention of Your Majesty's government to safeguard the integrity of Belgium."

BRITAIN TO PLUNGE INTO WAR

(Continued From Page 1.) acknowledgment of the enthusiastic demonstration of loyalty. This did not satisfy the crowds which chanted "We want King George" to the tune of Westminster chimes, and some "Rule Britannia." This finally brought the King and Queen out again. They were accompanied by the Prince of Wales, and they received another noisy welcome. The demonstration lasted some minutes, and for a long time after the royalties retired the people continued to sing patriotic songs.

Cheered King George. King George and Queen Mary were also heartily cheered when they drove in the parks in the afternoon, and great crowds remained for hours around the palace, the houses of parliament and Downing street.

The people generally were undemonstrative, apparently being more curious than excited. Occasionally there was cheering as some cabinet minister was seen leaving his office for the house of commons.

When the house reassembled the foreign secretary read his statement with respect to Belgium. These members then protested that the secretary had not made out a case for war.

Philip Morrell, Liberal member for Burnley, said the best that could be said for the Entente after eight years was that it was going to land Germany in a war which would cost a few German soldiers wanted to cross Belgium.

The laborites joined in the protest, declaring that what was made by the diplomats, not by the people. J. Keir Hardie asked what action was going to be taken to alleviate the suffering of those who would be pressed by the war. He said he would do all he could to arouse the workingmen against the purposes of the government.

Protection of Credit. The chancellor of the exchequer, David Lloyd George, answered that the government had made arrangements for war risks for ships, cargoes, and that full details would be given later. Regarding the complaint of J. Keir Hardie that the bill passed that day was for the protection of a small section of the community, the chancellor said it was essentially a measure to protect the whole credit system.

The cabinet held a session during the recess and were escorted to and from by cheering crowds.

The entire communication made by the British foreign secretary to the house of commons, on his second appearance there today, was as follows: "A message has been received from the Belgian legation here, stating that the Belgian king, at 7 o'clock last evening, a note proposing to Belgium friendly neutrality, coupled with the free passage thru Belgian territory of German troops, and the maintenance of Belgian independence at the conclusion of peace, and threatening, in case of refusal, that Belgium would accept the German proposal to be sacrificed her honor, and being conscious of her duty, Belgium was truly resolved to repel aggression by all possible means."

The Belgian reply was received with loud cheers by the members, and Sir Edward concluded with the declaration that the British Government had taken the situation into grave consideration and that he would make no further comment.

PREMIER BORDEN HAS HAD NO NEWS

Nothing Received From Imperial Government Up to Midnight. PREPARE FOR CRISIS. Precautionary Measures Taken to Protect Shipping and Canadian Finance.

By a Staff Reporter. OTTAWA, Aug. 3.—When the cabinet rose at 10:40 o'clock tonight the prime minister stated that he had no further news from the imperial government.

There has been a day of suspense such as the capital had never seen before. The report of Sir Edward Grey's speech in the British Commons was read with profound interest and it was felt that now it was only a matter of very short time, perhaps only a matter of hours, before Britain would be involved in the great European struggle and Canada's part would be to take her place by Britain's side.

A number of important steps were taken today in preparation for the impending crisis. These included precautionary measures to protect the financial system of the country, the establishment of a system of censorship, including a censorship of cable and wireless messages, the placing of the shipping passing up and down the St. Lawrence under military supervision, and the calling for volunteers from ex-navy men to man the cruiser Niobe.
