The Coast League has Victoria team. The Coast League has objected to the presence of Smith on the Ontario line-up as a violation of the peace agreement between the leagues, and President Patrick was surprised, in view of his telegraphed protest, to find Smith in the Ontario line-up, as he had been led to believe that the Ontarios would not use Smith. A rupture between the leagues is possible, in view of the Ontarios' action of last night, altho the matter may be ironed out satisfactorily to all hands.

The afternoon program in the gymnasium was enjoyed by hundreds of people. The entertainment was started by a wand drill by the junior school boys, followed by gym. games An excellent exhibition on the high bar and mats by the gym. team, assisted by Harry Smth and Victor and Sammy Guy, was much appreciated. The senior leaders, on the spring board and side parallel bars, basketball on roller skates, the Hilland Schottische, and a hairraising charlot race on roller skates provided excellent amusement.

While the gym. program was in progress over four hundred people packed the gallery of the swimming pool and saw one of the best exhibitions yet pulled off in Central's big tank. The feature of the Natatorium program was a canoe exhibition by Reg. Bloomfield, in which he submerged the cance, shook the water out in a second or two and nimbly vaulted back into the cance. He also illustrated the famous Bloomfield dip, turning the cance over in the water three times and jumping back into the cance each time, in ten seconds. He was given great applause for his excellent exhibition. Fargy diving by Art Allen, Arnold Reid and Frank Wood was high-class in every respect. A candle relay race, diving for Spies, and an obstacle race worked but by the swimming instructor brought a most successful exhibition to a close. While the gymnasium and Natatorium programs were in progress hundreds of people were being entertained in the auditorium by the following aritists: Miss Hagerman, contraito: Miss Robertson, elocutionist; Mr. Nightingale, tenor: Mr. Wm. Lytle, baritone.

The billiard rooms and bowling alleys were never so busy. The excellent exhibition of billiard rooms at one time.
