HAMILTON, Ont., Oct. 12.—Mrs. W. HAMILTON, Ont., Oct. 12.—Mrs. W. G. Reid, 895 King street east, wife of W. G. Reid, the former well-known cigarmaker, died a few minutes after being admitted to the General Hospital yesterday afternoon following injuries sustained when the jitney in which she was riding was strucks by a street car on King street east near Steven street. The jitney, which was driven by J. E. Sweet, 172 King street east, was traveling east on King street, and when near Steven street the automobile was swerved to the north, causing it to collide with street car No. 453, which was coming west. The jitney was turned over and Mrs. Reid was pinned beneath the car. She sustained a fracture of the skull and internal injuries, and despite the efforts of physicians died as she was being taken into the hospital.

Sweet, the river of the jitney, ascaped with a few minor injuries, but the jitney was smashed. Coroner Griffin empaneled a jury, which viewed the remains at the morgue last evening and adjourned until Wednesday night.

Hugh Reid, a son of Mrs. Reid, is now fighting at the front.

New School Opened.

The formal opening of the new $50,000 Barton Township public school, situated on Barton street, below Kenilworth avenue, and known as Fairview school, was held yesterday afternoon. Many township officials, school trustees and parents and friends of the pupils were present. It was arranged to have Hon. Dr. R. A. Pyne, minister of education, open the school, but he was unable to be present, and in his absence, Reeve John F. Peart officiated. He was presented with a gold key by R. H. Hornby, chairman of the trustee board, and following a brief address, in which he complimented the trustee board for having been successful in erecting such a fine building, announced the school formally opened.

Addresses were delivered by Trustees B. R. Brooks and Percy Burgess, Councolliers John Lewis and W. Smith, T. H. Wills, and Messus. Leckte and Stevenson, representing the Anglican and Baptist Churches.

Fellowing the opening exercises a splendid musical program was furnished by the pupils of the school.

The new building contains two storeys and basement, and has six teaching rooms, in addition to basement playrooms, class and teachers' rooms, modern lavatories, pupils' lockers and large hailways. Its equipment is thoroly modern, special attention having been given to heating and ventilation. Four rooms kaye aiready been opened, and are new being used. The remaining two rooms were opened yesterday.

Three Soys linjured.

Three small boys were seriously injured when a gas pipe exploded on North Hughson street, between Wood and MacCauley streets, shortly before 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Nathan Holt, 38 MacCauley east, was badly burned about the face and arms, and was removed to the General Hospital in the police ambulance after being attended to by Dr.

Cauley streets, shortly before 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Nathan Holt, 38 MacCauley east, was badly burned about the face and arms, and was removed to the General Hospital in the police ambulance after being attended to by Dr. Wardell. His condition is said to be serious. Holt's brother and another lad, whe were playing with him at the time of the explosion, were cut by flying stones, but wore not so seriously hurt, and were taken to their homes. The accident happened when a leaky gas pipe was being repaired. The men ensaged at the work escaped uninjured.

Had Back Injured.

Nick Yosik, 60 Strachan street west, who is employed at the Queen Street Rolling Mills, fell from a pile of pig iron, some of which fell on top of him, and sustained serious injuries to his back. He was removed to the General Hospital in the police ambulance. He will recover.

Dundas Defeated.

Tiger juniors defeated Dundas by a score of 9 to 8 in a Junior Rugby City League match played at the driving park in Dundas yesterday afternoon. Good kicking put Dundas out in front in the first quarter, which ended 3 to 1 in their favor, but the Tigers came back strong in the second half and secured a touchdown and two more points on kicks to the dead line, which put them in front. Half-time score: Tigers 9, Dundas 3. Barly in the third quarter Dundas secured a touchdown by good bucking, which placed them only one point behind Tigers, but they could not tie it up, altho they had the better of the play in the last period, and the game ended: Tigers 9, Dundas 8.

Explosions were responsible for the destruction of two gasoline launches yester-day/afternoon and gave the fire department two runs. The first explosion occurred in a boat owned by J. Laird, which was moored at Askew's boat house, at the foot of Bay street. It is estimated that the damage will amount to shout that the damage will amount to about $400.
