LIGHT VOTE EXPECTED IN TODAY'S ELECTION

The political campaign in East York on behalf of Hon. G. S. Henry, ninister of agriculture, was closed by successful rally in the town hall in Markham, Saturday evening. The gathering which was presided over by James Ley, was addressed by Hon. Mr. Henry, Miss Constance Boulton, Norman Mrs. James Loughead and Norman Sommerville. The meeting, while not largely attended, was unanimous in support of the minister of agriculture, and he got a good reception. The outlook thru the country districts is for an exceedingly light vote, owing to the busy season and general lack of interest.

NEWMARKET DOCTOR DIES VERY SUDDENLY

Dr. W. G. Hutt, for 20 years a wellknown practitioner in Newmarket, died there suddenly yesterday, shortly after the noon hour. Dr. Hutt, who had earlier in the day visited a patient, complained of a severe pair in his chest, and requested his wife, who had just entered the room, to procure some medicine. On her re-turn a few minutes later, he was found in a dying condition, and Dr. Scott was hastily summoned, but too

The late Dr. Hutt was about 46 years of age, and is survived by a widow, a brother, Oliver, and a sister, William Brodie of Toronto, an William B. Hutt of Newmarket, and Walter Brodie, a nephew, of the same place. In political life he was

THREE-DAY BAZAAR ENDED. St. Clement's Italian Congregation Had Successful Fete.

The three-day bazaar and social held under the auspices of St. Clement's Italian Church, Dufferin street, on the church grounds, was brought to a successful termination Saturday evening. Large crowds of parishioners and friends from all parts of the city patronized the proceedings each day and the bazaar was acknowledged by the visitors to be the best ever held in the district. The entertainments, music and prizes awarded reflected the highest praise on the committee and the pastor, Rev. Aloysius Scafuro. The proceeds will be used for the benefit of St. Clement's Young People's Club.

HOUSING

To this end, CO-OPERATION OF THE CITIZENS is needed, and printed forms have been prepared with lists of questions to be answered, both by those wishing to rent or buy homes and those having houses for rent or sale. All those affected are requested to apply at once for these forms, in order that they may be completed and returned to the Commission not later than September 1st, 1918.

All communications should be in the interests of Citizens at present residing in Toronto, and refer to City of Toronto properties only.

NOTE—The citizen who complies with this will, of course, understand that the Commission not propose to secure him a house (or ten the case may be), but is simply collecting in tion for its guidance in dealing with the question of housing. The names of those is considered.

A member of the Earlscourt British Imperial Association and late of the 75th C.E.F., who does not wish his name to be made public, has made application to the Canadian Soldiers' Settlement Board for a grant of land to get back to farming. His complaint was that the work on the land in the northern territory, where most of the returned men are sent when they decide to go farming, is too strenuous and the weather conditions also too severe, so he asked the board to permit him to work on a farm in old On-tario. He has now received word from the board this application will be granted, and the ex-soldier, who was in the Somme battles, is about to sell REPORTED DANGEROUS off to the new home farm. ST. JOSEPH'S CLUB GETS SERVICE FLAG

At St. Joseph's Ciub, Curzon street, Saturday afternoon, Rev. John E. Burke, of the Returned Soldiers' League, presented the service flag donated by John M. Lawlor, to the club. Sergt. P. Whitcombe, veteran and winner of the Military Medal, received the flag, which is emblazoned with 51 maple leaves, of which six were purple, representing members who have paid the supreme sacrifice.

Rev. John E. Burke, in making the presentation, pointed out the large number of leaves on the emblem, each representing a hero who gave up home and kindred for the honor of the empire.

He paid a solemn tribute to the memory of the six soldiers, members of St. Joseph's Club, who had paid the supreme sacrifice, and hoped that the others would be spared to return to their home and country.

Rev. Dr. O'Leary, pastor of St. Joseph's Church, John Dillon, vice-president St. Joseph's Club, and John M.
