

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS

FINE WAR-WORK OF SALVATION ARMY

The Salvation Army began the first of a series of winter services at the Royal George Theatre yesterday, when Aid, Brook, Sykes presided, with leading Earlscourt men on the platform. Mr. Sykes, who supported the $15,000 grant recently made by the city, said he was glad to lend his support to these services for the Army, which was doing splendid work for Earlscourt on the war and the Salvation Army. He said there were many Salvationists fighting in the ranks on the western front, as ambulance cars and hundreds of chaplains with military rank were on active service. The Earlscourt Choir and the Army Band contributed selections.

FIGHTING WILL STOP ONLY ON GERMAN SOIL

The battle of Passchendaele was no "baseball game," said Captain (Chaplain) Ferguson Morris, in speaking at the Earlscourt Men's Own in Central Methodist Church, on Sunday afternoon. His subject was "Observations on the War," and he gave many illuminating items concerning the war at the front, as he has but just returned. One million casualties was the toll at Ypres Ridge, over which Captain Morris went with the boys, and the closest call he had was when a shell tore off his uniform and smothered him in mud. "My name was not on the shell," said the speaker, "but it was a near-scratch. My observation is that the boys over there will not stop fighting until they are on German soil; then a peace can be concluded that will be a lasting peace. We are going to Berlin, and every allied soldier believes it," he said. The speaker paid a big tribute to the first contingent, who paid the early sacrifice, and concluded with the statement that the leading military authorities had come to the conclusion that the victory that was coming was the result of confidence in God. For the allied soldiers had put their trust in Him. Two returned men who were present received a rousing welcome. They were Sergt. Parker of the 15th Scottish Battalion and Spr. Burley. Rev. E. C. Hunter presided.

CITY GRANT MAKES A BUILDING NEST-EGG

When the City of Toronto made a grant to the G.W.V.A. of $10,000 some time ago the amount was kept as a fund for the association to use for any kind of work that the association thought would be best in which to help the war effort. The G.W.V.A. have now decided that the balance of this money, which amounts to $800, shall be distributed among the various branches of the association. Under this arrangement $100 will come to the Earlscourt branch of the veterans and will be devoted to the building fund for the erection of a new hall in which to conduct their affairs.

This comes at an opportune time and will form a nice little nest egg towards expenses. It is the intention of the building committee not to spend a cent unnecessarily. Earlscourt is taking up the project with enthusiasm and the whole committee is now engaged on a vigorous canvass around the Earlscourt district. Realizing the splendid work done by returned men, several offers have been made by manufacturing firms and landowners to help them, and with the practical help of the men, themselves the new hall is expected to be built at a minimum cost.

SPECIAL SERVICES AT ST. CHAD'S

"American Day" was observed at St. Chad's Church, 100 Broadview, yesterday, when a special service was delivered on the closer communion between the Anglican Churches of Canada and the Episcopal Churches of America. Large congregations attended. Harvest festival was also celebrated, and many Earlscourt products were displayed in the church. The rector, Rev. A. J. Reid, was in charge of both services.

PROCEED WITH MEMORIAL HALL

A meeting of the citizens' committee of the Earlscourt memorial hall was held on Saturday evening and formal business transacted. It is understood that the organizing work of the campaign is to proceed forthwith and committees are to be appointed to call on the merchants and business men of Earlscourt for financial support. C. E. Johnson of the Bank of Commerce is treasurer, and Staff Sgt. Major T. H. Barclay is the financial secretary.

MANY FORCES HELD UNITED STATES QUIET

That the United States failed to enter the maelstrom of the great war until April 1917, because of the large number of elements, the pacifists, and because of their general unpreparedness, was a statement made on Sunday night by R. S. Gilbert of Detroit at the Thanksgiving services held on Sunday evening at St. Catharines Church, Leaside. Mr. Gilbert pointed out that there was full unanimity between the United States and the other allied nations in respect to the war.

MAY CONNECT LEASIDE BY TEAM TO BROADVIEW

A syndicate of east and business men have under consideration at the present time a bus service between Broadview and Leaside. According to one of the promoters a 20-minute service could be maintained, starting from Broadview and Danforth corner, along the Danforth road and then the road by the Sun Bank Company across the Riverdale road and then following the "Cudmore road" direct into the town of Leaside. The journey would take 20 minutes, and the short, steep grade could be overcome with a booster team at the difficult part of the route on the Don Mills road on the return trip.

The York Township Council and Leaside Council will be approached in the matter of grading the road, which would be a great benefit to hundreds of east and residents would be enormous.

QUICK-LUNCH COUNTER FOR MUNITION PLANT

The following notice has been posted in the Leaside munition plant: A quick service counter for the employees will be opened in a few days for the convenience of the men. It will be open from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. Owing to the time lost by men leaving the plant to go to the cafe, the cafe will be closed between noon and 2 p.m. and men will not be permitted to leave the plant during working hours.

This applies to both day and night shift. During meal hours employees may take their meals where they please, provided they are back at their work at starting time.

Hok: It would save fifteen minutes twice a day to thousands of men and women.
John: It would indeed.
Hok: Why should Roosevelt do this on the working people's side?

What last year's Victory Loan achieved

LAST year the people of Canada lent the nation $425,000,000, by buying Victory Bonds.

And because Canada now needs more money and will presently ask the people to lend it, the people have a right to know what was accomplished by last year's loan.

Every dollar of it was spent in Canada.

Not only was it spent in Canada—it was circulated—it became the working capital of the nation.

IT financed millions of dollars worth of munitions for Great Britain through which great sums of money were passed along to the workers in a hundred cities and towns and to the coal and iron miners of Nova Scotia and New Ontario.

It financed the purchase of thousands of aeroplanes for Great Britain through which again, millions of dollars were passed along to scores of lumber camps in British Columbia and to thousands of workers in the cities.

It financed the export of millions of dollars worth of copper, lead and zinc and that again gave employment to an army of miners and metal workers all over Canada.

It financed the building of 112 steel and wooden ships in the Maritime Provinces, Quebec, Ontario and British Columbia through which many more millions were passed along to the artisans, miners, steel workers and lumbermen of Canada.

It financed the purchase of hundreds of millions of dollars worth of foodstuffs as a result of which the money passed along to the farmers all over Canada.

And the farmers and the workers of Canada deposited their savings in the banks and the banks in turn loaned it to more producers who circulated it again and yet again, until every individual in Canada felt the benefit.

THE money from the Victory Loan, like any other working capital, was "turned over" several times. It kept working, over and over again, until it built up a tremendous commerce—it developed the greatest export trade Canada ever had, greater by several times, than the amount of the loan itself.

And this trade furnished the market for Canada's products of the field, the mine, the forest and the shop.

Thus was Canada's prosperity, upon which her war efficiency depends, kept at a high level.

And by reason of this prosperity, Canada has maintained and equipped an army of over 400,000 men—an army which has brought glory to Canada by its courage and prowess in the field, and by its heroic spirit of sacrifice.

Be ready when the call comes to lend your money

Issued by Canada's Victory Loan Committee in co-operation with the Minister of Finance of the Dominion of Canada

So when Canada asks us to lend our money to carry on, we have an opportunity to contribute again to the nation's prosperity and to the fighting efficiency of her noble sons on the battle line.

How Canada's Exports have Grown

What Canada's war activities and financing have actually achieved for the nation's export business may be seen at a glance by comparing certain items for the year ending March 31st, 1918, with the average volume of trade in the same items for three years previous to the war.

From the Farms:	Average for year 1914	For 1918
Dairy.....	$21,084,893	$40,175,270
Grain.....	97,081,983	403,985,858
Flour.....	18,881,944	95,806,492
Meat.....	6,146,554	78,729,060
Vegetables.....	1,205,709	19,034,528

From the Mines:	Average for year 1914	For 1918
Iron and Steel (1914 only).....	11,374,981	45,810,367
Copper, Nickel, Zinc, and Aluminum....	15,323,513	46,271,848

From the Industries:	Average for year 1914	For 1918
Munitions.....		450,000,000
Leather.....	2,162,662	10,986,281
Clothing.....	337,047	9,702,207
Vehicles.....	271,163	22,776,590

From the Forests:	Average for year 1914	For 1918
Pulp and Paper.....	12,446,523	59,599,339

Canada's fisheries will yield, in addition to the above, during the present year about $9,000,000 worth of export.

In addition to the forest items 248 million feet of aeroplane spruce timber averaging over $20 per thousand is contracted for in British Columbia as the result of Canada's financial assistance to Great Britain.

Not ranking as exports, but nevertheless directly financed by the Victory Loan 1917, is 446,000 tonnage of ships valued at $70,000,000 which will be completed by the end of this year. These ships use millions of dollars worth of lumber and steel which again circulates vast sums among the workers of Canada.
