The Bell Piano
At Toronto Exhibition

MONS. EVARD REVE.

The Bell Piano Company have this year engaged to demonstrate the merits of Bell Pianos at Toronto Exhibition the wonderful young English Concert Pianist, Mons. Evard Reve, Sen. Hon. (cert.) Piano and Harmony, Gold Medalist Trinity College, London (Leeds Centre), England, late Solo Pianist and Accompanist to the Leeds Clavier School of Music and the Morley Orchestral Society. Mons. Reve is but twenty years old and has just arrived in this country. Musicians who have heard his playing agree that he is a wonder on account of his marvellous technique, and a brilliant future is predicted for him. During the Exhibition he will play daily in the Bell Piano Sound Proof Pavilion at the south side of the Manufacturers' Building, and all visitors should hear him. After the close of the fair he will give recitals at the Bell Piano Warerooms, 146 Yonge Street, Toronto, to any of which all music lovers are cordially invited.

Mons. Reve says that he had no idea what a magnificent quality of tone the Bell Pianos possessed until he played them in England, where they are very popular with the musical fraternity since adopted by the Guild School of Music.

Bell Pianos are made, guaranteed and built to last a lifetime by the largest makers of Pianos in Canada.

PARBOILED IN SOAP BLAZE
FIRE FIGHTERS IN PERIL

Brave Men Carried From Building Unconscious From Poisonous Fumes.

New York, Aug. 11.—Twenty firemen were carried, burned and unconscious, from boiling soap, five of them, very badly scorched, from a fire in W. H. Daggett's Soap factory, on West 12th-street, to-day. Tanks containing 70,000 gallons of soap fats exploded after a fire in the three-story building had been brought under control.

For five hours the firemen fought this new danger, crawling on their stomachs on the floor into the building, unable to stand in a poisonous cloud of smoke, which poured from the fiery soap greases and continually exposed to little rivers of the scorching fluid which flowed out of the building.

Water seemed, for the first three hours, to have no other effect on the burning soap vats than to cause them to flow more freely, with great peril to the fire fighters.

Before the fire was under control, six of the firemen had been carried to the hospital, many others, who did not go, were barely able to walk. The loss was estimated at about $50,000.

The soap greases continued to burn all day, and by nightfall the fire was under control, 50 unconscious firemen had been taken from the poisonous smoke by means of blankets and many heroic rescues were made.

Fire lieutenant Martin Mahoney swam thru a vat of hot lye to save Fireman Clancy of engine 20, who had fallen unconscious into a vat of lye. Both the fireman and lieutenant were carried with the fall of a 6000-pound safe thru the door into the cellar room, where a strong lye had been formed from the water and soap materials flooding the building. Clancy was crushed and internally injured during the fall.

Twelve hours after the start of the fire a crew of thirty fresh men from the fourth and sixth divisions filled the vacancies in the firemen's ranks made either by those who were taken to hospital or those too weak from successive fainting spells to work any longer.

It provided that Mr. Fonda's body, "be subjected to such tests as science and medical knowledge have proven to be most effectual in determining life to be extinct, but not such tests as would extinguish any sparks of life that might still remain in the body, and that the body shall not be buried until it is absolutely certain that no life exists therein, and under no circumstances, nor for any pretext whatever, even tho' it be in the interest of science, shall an autopsy be performed; nor shall it be placed on ice nor embalmed, and the greatest care and precaution shall be taken to prevent it from being stolen for the purpose of dissection."

WILL CITY PAY COST OF TRACKS?

Attitude of C.P.R. on Ashbridge Marsh May Bring This About.

The city engineer's pet project to turn the unprofitable wastes of Ashbridge's Marsh into a hive of activity, has received something of a facer in the communication from General Manager McColl, to the effect that the railway does not care to go ahead for the present. The outcome of this attitude of the C. P. R. will probably be, according to Mr. Rust, the bringing up again before the works committee, of the proposition that the city undertake to lay down the tracks itself. Mr. Rust referred to the matter having been brought before council a year ago, when it was turned down on the ground of too great expense.

"It would cost probably between $0,000 and $20,000," said the city engineer. "However, the great drawback of the east end has been the want of factories, and the chance to secure a site with ample accommodation for many industries is a good one, and should prove good business for the railway, also."

Mr. Rust has written General Manager McColl of the Grand Trunk, and is expecting an answer within a day or two as to that road's willingness or otherwise to lay down a spur line.

VERY COUSINLY FEELING.

Australian Journalist Seeks Idea of Antagonistic Sentiment.

Montreal, Aug. 11.—(Special.)—The cable stating that Australia was feeling badly against Canada was shown G. C. Leslie, who is a reporter of The Corona Free Press, New South Wales, and gives the impression of being thoroughly informed re affairs in the island continent.

Here is his reply: "The allegation that an antagonistic sentiment prevails in Australia towards Canada cannot be substantiated by facts. There is on the contrary an exceedingly cousinly feeling towards the Dominion. The sons of Canada, Australia and New Zealand may not have fraternized in South Africa, but their exploits were read of by our people, and we have since then looked upon you as cousins, if not brothers. There is certainly no jealousy even if there be emulation, and they will welcome, rather than resent, trade relations with Canada."

"He thinks that protection will soon or later be accepted as the settled policy of the country, and when Hon. Mr. Chamberlain's project of preference with the empire comes to be understood by the masses that also will meet with acceptance."
