DR. CAVEN MADE PRESIDENT

Of the Lord's Day Alliance at Yesterday's Annual Session.

Preparations for the Coming Year—A Large Number of Delegates Present — Reports of Progress Made—Officers Elected—The Alliance About $1000 in Debt—Night Session.

The delegates to the annual Provincial Convention of the Lord's Day Alliance assembled in the Guild Hall yesterday morning and prepared for the coming year's work. Mr. J. K. Macdonald took the chair and in the course of his address regretted the lack of interest in the work manifested by the people generally. He believed, however, that the people only required to have the matter properly brought before them in order to arouse their interest. He also stated that the work was greatly hampered by lack of funds. The report of the executive was next dealt with. It gave a review of the work done by the various departments during the year. About 5000 copies of the address delivered by Rev. Principal Caven at the conference last year have been distributed. An organization committee of three, with Rev. J. G. Shearer as chairman, was recommended

Reports Received.

The work done on matters of legislation, constitutional issues, works of necessity, and matters pertaining to Sunday work generally were reviewed and various comments made. The ten questions recently published in The World were also submitted in the report. The Sunday cars and Sunday local traffic, Ottawa car agitation, Sunday steamboats, Toronto and Mimico Railway case, the canal question, Manitoba legislation, and the labor standpoint reports were in turn discussed and approved.

Constitution Change.

A recommendation to amend the constitution so as to allow a delegate, unable to be present, to send a substitute, was adopted.

Delegates Present.

Among the delegates present were: Messrs J K Macdonald, A E O'Meara, J C Copp, John A Paterson, Rev W Frizzell, Thomas M Edmondson, Rev R C Tibb, A T Crombie, R Little, N W Hoyles, H Hall, C W McKim, and Misses Eliza and W M Willis of Toronto, Rev J G Shearer and Messrs. T A Moore and A McWilliams of Hamilton, Rev S Houston and Mr M Macgillivray of Kingston, Mr F A Cassidy, St Catharines; Mr A F Wood, Madoc; Rev W Craig, Cardinal; Rev Wm Kettlewell, Galt; Rev Mr McBeth, Winnipeg.

Officers Elected.

The convention sanctioned the nominations of their committee and elected the following officers: President, Rev Dr Caven; vice-presidents, J K Macdonald and N W Hoyles, Toronto; J E Brown, Hamilton; G W McDonald, Kingston; Rev F A Cassidy, St Catharines.

Members of Executive.

Revs Dr Parker, Dyson Hague and William Patterson, Messrs Elias Rogers, Senator Allan, D J O'Donoghue, John A Paterson, J J Maclaren, R Kilson, W J Gage, N W Rowell, John Tweed and H O'Brien for Toronto; Revs Dr Beavis, J G Shearer and J H Moore for Hamilton; Rev Dr Armstrong for Ottawa; Rev Thomas Wilson and Mr Hobbs for London; Judge Ermatinger, St Thomas; Rev T J Thompson, Belleville; A F Wood, Madoc; Rev Dr Ryckman, Brockville; Rev John Scalon, Ottawa; J F Towke, Oshawa; Jonathan Ellis, Port Dover; Mrs W H Watson, Mrs Shortread, Mrs A O Rutherford, Mrs Mary Thornley, Revs S Houston and B W Robertson for Kingston; Mr W B Wood for St Catharines; Revs Dr Torrance, Dr Ross and R J W Glassford for Guelph. On recommendation of the Nominating Committee, the following members were also added to the executive: Revs Chancellor Wallace, W A J Martin, Guelph; W Kettlewell, Galt; S G Bland, Smith's Falls; William Craig, Cardinal, and H M Manning.

Mr. A E O'Meara was re-elected secretary.

Money is Needed.

The discussion of the financial situation took up the greater part of the afternoon sitting. Mr J C Copp, who has acted as treasurer for several years, stated that in the past year the Alliance had fallen behind $114 and that now their liabilities were $913.75. Mr. Copp felt that the time had arrived when he could no longer hold office, unless he received some pledge from the Alliance that matters would be remedied. A compromise was effected by passing a resolution that the Alliance pledge themselves to extend their organization and better their financial standing. Mr. Copp agreed upon these conditions to remain in office until the end of the year, when, if matters were not improved, he would resign. The report of the Executive Committee was adopted as a whole and other minor matters disposed of. In order to minimize expense, and lessen the work, a resolution was passed, instructing the executive to appoint a small sub-committee to conduct the business, after which the meeting adjourned.

The evening meeting was attended by about fifty people, many of whom were ladies. Among the prominent gentlemen present were: Rev. Principal Caven, Supt. Carman, Dr. Langtry McBeth, John Neil, R. C. Tibb, Wallace, Professor Maclaren. Messrs. J. A. Paterson, J. J. Woodhouse, J. C. Copp, E. A. O'Meara, N. W. Hoyles, Woods and J K. Macdonald.

Mr. J. K. Macdonald, who opened the evening meeting, expressed regret that the inclemency of the weather had kept a great many from attending, and expressed great hopes for the welfare of the Alliance which had chosen Rev. Principal Caven as his successor

New President Speaks.

Dr. Caven acknowledged the kindness of Mr. Macdonald's remarks, and said that his only reason for accepting the position was that he might help on the good work. He said that he was following a man who had discharged his duties in the ablest and most painstaking way. He then reminded his hearers that the work of the Alliance was not ended, and that constant vigilance was necessary for the success of their efforts. He acknowledged that the forces against them were strong, but emphasized the good work done by the Alliance. They had not started the Alliance on a theological basis, but simply that those who wished to, might have the Sabbath as a day of rest and worship. He also expressed the hope that the friends of the Alliance would not allow the cause to languish for lack of funds.

Another Resolution.

The convention then passed a resolution commending the good work done by Mr. J. K. Macdonald, and regretting the circumstances which compelled him to retire from the presidency. The resolution was presented by Rev. Dr. Caven and Mr. Macdonald gratefully acknowledged the tribute thus paid to his efforts.

Rev. Mr. McBeth of Winnipeg was then introduced by Dr. Caven. After expressing his pleasure at meeting the members of the Alliance, he spoke of the bill regarding the observance of the Lord's Day, (similar to the one in force in Ontario) which had been passed by the legislature of Manitoba. He also said that the work was being vigorously prosecuted in that province.

In introducing Mr. Wood, ex-M.L.A. of Madoc, Dr. Caven referred to the friendliness with which the Local Legislature had treated their movement.

Keep the Sabbath.

Mr. Wood urged the keeping of the Sabbath in all its purity and entirety and the necessity of guarding against innovations likely to desecrate the day. He referred to cities in the United States which had allowed these changes to creep in as examples of the evil. He also adverted to the Sunday car question and said that if the members of the Legislature had fully realized what they were doing they would not have so readily given the citizens of Toronto the privilege of the vote.

Is It a Lost Cause?

Mr. N. W. Hoyles thought that the sparseness of the audience was an evidence that many of the people were of the opinion that they were working for a lost cause. He, however, said that he did not believe it was a lost cause. He feared that very many of the reverend gentlemen were not awake and very largely blamed the pulpit for the lack of interest now manifested. He also thought that home influence was lacking. He felt that the Sunday was slipping away from them and unless the movement was arrested immediately it would soon be lost entirely and forever.

Mr. Benson spoke on behalf of the workingman and said that the workingmen wanted the Sabbath and should refuse to work on that day.

Rev. Mr. Houston of Kingston, on behalf of the majority of clergymen, pleaded "not guilty" to the charge of being asleep. He concurred in all that had been said about fighting it out, although it seemed like a lost cause.

The doxology and benediction ended the proceedings.
