VALIDITY OF U.S. DIVORCES.

Minnie Woods' Case Will Be Heard

Before Judge Macdonald.

On Sept. 10 a case will be heard before Judge Macdonald and a jury, which will indicate how far there is reason for the latter in certain Toronto divorces, caused by the decision in the Russell case by the House of Lords, reviving and re-emphasizing the principle that even in the case of a year of the realm a marriage solemnized in British soil can only be annulled by a British court.

The Crown authorities in setting the law in motion take the view that when a Canadian who is married in the Dominion goes to a United States court to obtain a divorce or he or she, on remarrying in Canada during the lifetime of the former husband or wife, must face a trial in case information is laid.

In the Minnie Woods case the defendant is charged with having been married on Canadian soil for the second time, while her first husband was alive, a divorce having been obtained in Detroit in the belief that the first marriage was thereby annulled.

Crown Attorney J. W. Curry will prosecute, and T. C. Robinson will defend. Mr. Robinson guarantees to produce his client on the day of the trial.

(WILL HEAR RATE GRIEVANCES.)

Winipeg, July 31.—(Special.)—The Winipeg Board of Trade has been notified by S. J. McLean, Commissioner of Railway Rate Grievances, that he will hold sittings in Winipeg on Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 2 and 3, so that rate grievance complaints of may be presented to him.
