FIRE OUTSIDE CITY LIMITS

The Brigade Has Long Run—Barn and Hay Burned.

A barn on Francis street belonging to Mr. Robert Green was completely destroyed, together with a considerable quantity of hay.

The barn was far beyond the city limits, but someone, evidently not understanding this, rang in an alarm from box 96 at the extreme outskirts of the city, and the whole fire department had a long run, to no purpose.
To make things worse the fire caused a great glare in the sky and appeared at first sight to be quite near, and this hurried the firemen, who expected that quite a large fire was in progress.
Many of the excitement-loving citizens had a good long run, only to find that the farther they ran the farther the fire seemed to be away.

DELIGHTED WITH CANADA

Prominent Chinese Officials Here to Study Conditions.

On Thursday the local Chinese celebrities entertained several prominent Chinese officials, among whom were Dr. Hong Quong, an official of the Chinese Government, who has been sent to Canada by the Emperor to study the conditions existing here, and also to visit the various Canadian divisions of the Chinese Reform Association, and Mr. Yit Yen, of Vancouver, B. C., president of the Reform Association.

The party will continue on to the old country before Dr. Quong returns to China and makes his report to the Emperor.

The representatives of the Chinese Emperor will visit Rideau Hall, Ottawa, where they will be the guests of His Excellency Earl Grey.

Dr. Quong expressed himself as being delighted with Canada, and stated that London was one of the prettiest and cleanest cities he had ever seen.

These are delightful evenings for a drive in Hueston's carriages.

NEW SCHOOL FOR CHESLEY AVENUE

Finance Committee Favors the Proposition—Auditor's
Salary Reduced.

The question of issuing $10,000 debentures for a new school at Chesley avenue came before the finance committee of the city council at its regular meeting yesterday afternoon.

The committee was divided on the matter, but on the casting vote of the chairman, Ald. Forristal, it was decided to recommend the council to grant the issue.

Ald. Gillean and Ald. Greenlees were not at all satisfied that the new school was necessary, as they had been given the assurance that the attendance at the schools in the south end of the city could be so adjusted as to obviate the necessity of such an outlay at Chesley avenue. Not only did they have the word of some of the trustees to this effect, but the report by City Clerk Baker also bore it out.

Ald. Cooper and the mayor were in favor of recommending the issue, and the chairman took sides with them.

The Auditor's Salary.
The salary of the new city auditor, Mr. Frank Jewell, was placed at $1,000, which is $200 less than was being paid the late auditor. This, however, is what the late Mr. Jewell received for several years.

Ald. Cooper thought the new auditor should start at $900, and the remainder of the committee did not agree with him.

"Do not be niggardly," said Chairman Forristal. "Be generous. We want only a good man there, and give him a good salary."

The Sleeman Brewing Company and Steele & Forsyth appealed against taxes, but the committee had no power to take any action other than filing their communications.

Rolling Mill's Exemption.

The committee will recommend exemption on the London Rolling Mills property for this year. While there is no bylaw granting the company exemption, it is understood that when the mills were located here they were to be relieved from taxes for ten years.
The agreement still has five years to run.

James A. Page appealed against sewer assessment on property at the northwest corner of English street and Lorne avenue. It appears that Mr. Page has been assessed for the full frontage on both streets, instead of being exempted on a portion of it.

A. J. McCrae's application for a remission of business tax for this year was referred to the inspector for a report.

REAL ESTATE SALES.

The Western Real Estate Exchange, of this city, sold David Ferguson's hundred-acre farm in London Township, and George Budden's sixty-four-acre farm in the township of North Dorchester, this week. This makes six farms in the county of Middlesex and five city of London properties sold through the Exchange's agency during the last two weeks. The following letter was sent to the Exchange the other day by Mr. C. F. Prettie, whose farm in the township of Westminster the Exchange sold last week:

London, P. O., July 31, 1906.
Mr. James Burrows, Manager of The Western Real Estate Exchange, London:

Dear Sir,—I wish to thank you and your company for the quick sale you made of my farm in the township of Westminster and the satisfactory way in which you have done the business for me. This farm, as you are aware, I purchased through your agency about two years ago from Mr. William Baker, and the satisfactory way in which you did the business for me at that time induced me to place the farm in your hands to sell again, and I am glad to say you have done the business for me in the most satisfactory and profitable manner. The advertising and selling property is a good one, and of great advantage and benefit to both sellers and buyers. You are at liberty to make such use of this letter as you see fit.

Yours, etc.,
C. F. PRETTIE.

UNIONS ISSUE STATEMENT

Appeal to Working People to Stand by Street Car Strikers.

The joint committee of the London Trades and Labor Council and Division No. 97 of the Amalgamated Association issues the following for the information of the public:

"Arrangements have been made to publish the evidence taken before the railway and municipal board as to the reasons for the present street railway strike, and have it distributed throughout the city so that the citizens themselves shall judge as to the merits of the controversy.

"When the printed report of the evidence is distributed to the citizens our committee is convinced that the threatening language used by Manager King and Superintendent Whittaker, their sweat-box policy regarding employees held in the company's offices, and the shadowing by spotters of their men, will arouse the indignation of the public at large.

"The working people of London will stand by the right of the working classes for their own protection. Active preparations are under way for the greatest demonstration ever held in this city. We desire peace and harmony. We trust the company will yet see its way clear to come to an amicable settlement. But we must insist on, and, if necessary, fight for the rights of the working class to organize if they wish for their material welfare and mutual protection."

IRISH SHOOTING OUTRAGE.

Dublin, Aug. 4.—Three revolver shots and one gunshot were fired last night at Moymore, near Ennis, at the son of a farmer named Casey, as he was cycling home to Killybegs. One pellet passed through his chest and lodged in the back of his chest without penetrating his ribs.

H. C. FRICK'S BANK ROBBED BY CLERK

Confesses to Embezzling $250,- 000—Was All Lost in Speculation.

Pittsburg, Aug. 4.—Badgered and threatened for twelve hours in a room at the Monongahela House, Clifford S.
Hixton broke down at daylight this morning and confessed that he had robbed the Big Union Trust Company of a sum that may reach $250,000.

Hixton, who is 28 years old, and unmarried, was individual bookkeeper in the bank of which he is principally owned by Henry C. Frick, the steel magnate.
Hixton said that he had been stealing for three years, and that every cent he had taken had been lost in stock speculation; that he is penniless.

Hixton implicates another employee of the bank, who, he asserts, helped him to conceal the embezzlement, and who received half of the proceeds of the robberies. A warrant has been sworn out for this man, and detectives are now hunting him.

Hixton lived with his parents, at whose home he was quietly spending last evening when he was taken into custody. He was considered a model young man. He has been in banking here since boyhood, most of his career having been with the Union Trust Company, where he was promoted from minor positions to one of much responsibility. He went regularly to church, and was quite prominent in society.

LIPTON WOULD HAVE TWO BOATS

He Asks for Privilege of Trials Before Challenging for America's Cup.

New York, Aug. 4.—A special cable from London to the New York Times says: Sir Thomas Lipton, whose anxiety to challenge again for the America's Cup is well known, has made the suggestion to a number of prominent yachtmen on this side the Atlantic that in case he sees his way clear to a formal challenge, he would like to secure a concession from the New York Yacht Club allowing him to build two boats, sail one against the other and send the better boat against the defender. He firmly believes he is justified in seeking this concession. The defending side, as is well known, has the privilege of trying out its boats, but challengers must, under the deed of gift, name the boat with the challenge.

Yachtmen here who have discussed this matter informally seem to agree with Sir Thomas that his desire to obtain such a concession is perfectly fair.
While no formal statement has been made by Sir Thomas Lipton that he has any legitimate hopes of success in the direction, the inference is that he has sounded certain of the New York yacht club officials and is not without reasonable expectations that the question may be raised at the proper time with satisfaction to both sides.

LOVLER'S MISADVENTURES

Chapter of Obstacles Checked Ardent Lover's Wooing.

Vienna, Aug. 4.—A rich widow in Kolozsvar, Hungary, recently brought an action against a wealthy local landowner, alleging that his long courtship, which had resulted in no proposal, was damaging her reputation and arousing scandal.

The landowner, M. de Szabo, appeared in court and admitted that he had paid the widow marked attentions.
But, he declared, fate was against his proposing, for he had made "many strenuous efforts" to do so, but all were unsuccessful.

The first time he was just on the point" when he happened to tread on the tail of the lady's pet dog, which upset him so much that he was unable to continue.

Next time he meant to let nothing interfere with the event, and in order to impress the object of his adoration dove up in grand style with four horses. But turning a corner, the carriage upset, and the unfortunate lover plunged head foremost in a pool of dirty water.

"Undaunted, he made a third and last attempt. Attired in his most gorgeous costume, he started off on his way to the widow's house. On the way, however, he passed under a ladder, a very unlucky thing, and a painter upset a pot of green paint over him.

After telling his tragic story the Hungarian gentleman pathetically exclaimed, "So you see, gentlemen, that fate is against me." His statements were proved, and amid much laughter M. de Szabo left the court "without a stain on his character."

GERMAN FARM COLONY IN EN- GLAND.

Liverpool, Aug. 4.—In 1900 a German industrial and farm colony was established on the Sbury Hall estate, near Ware, to provide temporary work and lodging for German-speaking unemployed and destitute men, the idea being that those who wished to return home might by this means earn enough money to farm work to enable them to do so. For those who desire to remain in this country a registry office endeavors to find suitable situations.

The records of the colony show that during the five years, 1901 to 1905, 2,500 men have been admitted, of whom 900 were repatriated, 600 secured situations and 200 received monetary assistance from home.

SUICIDE CURE FOR TOOTHACHE.

Geneva, Aug. 4.—Swiss schoolboy named Frederic Wyss, of Eggwil, in the Canton of Berne, committed suicide because he had been suffering from ache for some time.

The opening of a savings account is the first

YOUNG BRIDE'S JOY ENDED BY DEATH

Pathetic Letter to Her Mother Found on Body of Alpine Victim.

Geneva, Aug. 4.—The body of Mme.
Scoring, the bride who was killed on her honeymoon by the breaking of a footbridge on a gorge of the Tete-Noire, was recovered tonight. Her arm was broken above the elbow, and the rings had slipped from her fingers. In her pocket was found a letter which she had written to her mother, saying how happy she was with her husband.

Several other fatalities in the Alps are reported. Two guides have found dead named Gahler, who had been lost for a week, on the Festkogel. He apparently lost his way and fell over a precipice.

A young Munich tourist fell and was killed on the Hahnenpitz. A Frankfurt bookkeeper slipped and went hurled down the side of one of the Stubai Alps. He was found dangerously injured in the valley below.

The frequency of these accidents to inexperienced climbers is being commented on at the Alpine resorts, and the demand for more stringent regulations to prevent novices going out without guides is growing stronger.

A good instance of the recklessness of climbers is an accident which occurred near Chamounix yesterday. A young Parisian couple left their hotel on the Mountain Vert for the Jardin, an easy climb across several glaciers.
The woman was wearing a silk gown, a picture hat, and high-heeled patent leather shoes. Her husband wore a loud check suit, light brown boots, a straw hat and carried a small cane.

They set out alone as if for a walk on the Paris boulevards. In a few hours the husband arrived, breathless, to say his wife had slipped on the glacier, fallen, and had broken her ankle.
