

Baseball New York 7 Toronto 0 Lacrosse Tecumsehs 9 Hamilton 3 Fight As Viewed Locally

Note and Comment

Seventeen local men, interviewed yesterday, were divided in their opinion as to the outcome of next Monday's battle at Reno between Jack Johnson and Jim Jeffries. Just as the odds are quoted from right headquarters, viz. 10 to 1, in favor of the white man. It is significant that champion boxers like Edith L. Scholtes and Robert Day favor Jeffries, the John Lee, a good judge of form, picks Johnson.

Of course, the gentlemen asked for opinions replied to the best of their abilities from knowledge gained from the despatches. It is generally conceded that Jeffries is the better fighter, but there is an underlying doubt whether or not he is in the form credited him by his handlers and the war correspondents in his camp.

An unsolicited telegram received in this office last night from Tom Flanagan gives a straight tip that might have been taken had it been a horse race before the Miller Bill. The wire reads: "But a bet on Johnson."

Johnson likewise wired to friends in Toronto yesterday, among others, the following: "I feel satisfied that I am in better condition now than I ever was in my life. There is no chance for me to go wrong at any stage of the game. I will win this fight just as sure as I won the championship from Tommy Burns. I will fight as I have always fought, and I am not in position to go just how long the battle will be, or with what sort of a punch I shall score the knock-out."

Tommy Burns has arrived in San Francisco from Australia, and will go to Reno Saturday. Burns said: "I look for Jeffries to knock Johnson out about the twentieth round. If Jeffries is only half as good as he used to be he will win. Johnson will quit after the white man lands a few stiff punches on his stomach. McIntosh and Johnson should win in the nineteenth round, as he does not think Jeffries can come back. Lang beat Johnson with terrific stomach punches. McIntosh says Johnson is favorite in Australia at 10 to 8."

Bob Fitzsimmons also has his selection. He says Jeffries is the favorite, and that Johnson is a "big fight." He says Jeffries is the favorite, and that Johnson is a "big fight." He says Jeffries is the favorite, and that Johnson is a "big fight."

There's much talk by would-be backers, says one despatch, who loudly advocate their right to the prize money should win, but when they are asked to back their opinions with coin of the realm they are generally "looking out of the window."

The next league match of the British Lacrosse Association will take place on Dominion Day at Vancouver. This two-day match will give the winners every chance to be in the best of shape for the Minto Cup games in Montreal. The holiday game will be the first league match between the two coast clubs. The remaining dates, given out in a revised schedule, are:

July 30—Vancouver at Vancouver.
Aug. 6—Westminster at Vancouver.
Aug. 13—Westminster at Vancouver.
Aug. 20—Vancouver at Westminster.

NEWARK WIN THE LAST FROM THE KELLEYITES

Lundgren Was Pounded Hard in Early Part of Game—Rochester Here To-day.

NEWARK, June 29.—(Special.)—Newark captured the final game of the series today from the Leafs by a score of 7 to 0, the locals pounding Lundgren hard in the early portion of the game, while the Kelleyites failed to hit in pinches, when a timely single or two would have put them strictly in the running.

Parline, the Newark twirler, was in rare form, only allowing five scattered hits and three of these fell to Grimshaw, while the battery divided the two. The Leafs also made a couple of costly errors, that paved the way for some of Newark's runs. Newark's grand game in the field, pulling off no less than three double plays, Manager Kelley of the Leafs announced to-day that he had asked for waivers on Outfielder Bill O'Hara, whose work here did not come up to expectation. The score:

Batteries—Lundgren and Kelley; Schaff, Schaff and Kelley. Umpire—Schaff.

ROCHESTER LOSES A GAME.
BALTIMORE, Md., June 29.—Baltimore won the last game of the series today from the Leafs by a score of 4 to 3. Russell outpitched Ragon, most of the visitors being scorers.

The column down. The locals won in the ninth innings after two hands were out on Goode's single, his stolen base, Blair's error and Strang's safe drive to center. Baltimore's score:

CIVIL SERVICE BASEBALL

Firemen Defeat Customs in League Game by 10 Runs to 9.

In the Civil Service League yesterday afternoon, the Firemen defeated the Customs by 10 to 9, after a very good game of ball. The Firemen batted Collard out of the box in the third inning, getting six runs in this session on clean hitting.

He was replaced by Tobin, who pitched a great game, striking out five and only allowing two hits. If Tobin had started the game the result would have been different, as he had the Firemen tied in knots. The winning run was scored on a hit thru the infield with a man on first base as the result of an error. Score:

How Fight is Viewed By Toronto People

Ten to Seven, Just Like the Odds at Reno, Favor Jeffries—Twenty Rounds Named.

Toronto will likely furnish more supporters of Jack Johnson and less spectators for next Monday's fight is Reno than any city of a similar size on the continent.

It is a peculiar coincidence that the managers of both principals are Toronto men, viz. Sam Berger, manager of Jeffries, and Tom Flanagan, manager of Johnson. Berger spent his boyhood attending school in St. Matthew's Ward, while of course, Flanagan is at present a citizen of Toronto with a reputation of athletic prowess. Johnson's recent frequent visits to Toronto make him popular here. The Reno fight, which odds prevail here, the good judge like Centaur says it's an even money proposition, probably because he also lives in Toronto, and has often heard Jeffries' "punch."

Those who should know, like many well-known citizens, are divided in their opinions as to the result of the fight. The following are a few interviews:
