

1867

FATHERS OF CONFEDERATION.

1917

*May God preserve thee, Canada!
 Tho' child among the nations,
 'Mid proudest lands
 Strong hearts and hands Shall claim for thee a station.
 Land of the forest and the lake,
 Land of the rushing river,
 Our prayers shall rise for thy dear sake Forever and forever.*

-R. S. AMBROSE.

T. EATON CO. LIMITED

ng
 OFFICES
 HOTEL
 WS
 80 miles from
 away. Rank
 in Special
 Modern furni-
 Write for par-
 M. Manager
 port complete
 battlements,
 clock in the Heavy storm
 and menacing
 on and, only
 heavy guns
 burst with
 of cannon
 prevailed
 almost to the
 fantry attack
 city of Leun-
 started, the
 fish airplanes
 man machine
 the German
 re several of
 but a smoke
 gloom of the German ob-
 plane played
 and the roar
 the pilot were entertained
 infantry with
 of nose divetting. Then
 fish gun em-
 waving his
 uragement to
 AL
 SAGE
 of Do-
 e
 vs; but still
 thought that
 y which now
 has come to
 her heritage
 which it en-
 conscious-ness
 of firmer confi-
 nation rests
 the character
 ified in their acuity for assuring the
 ed by this un-
 ds unshamed
 1866, the year
 Austria the
 an states and
 ong the world
 the relentless
 upon humanity
 challenge
 freedom is the seas by
 of the world,
 has worthily
 dly borne her
 have wished
 foundation of
 with resolute
 purpose and
 ant and great-
 's striving and
 rded of Can-first she never
 she never fal-