EARLS COURT SHOW BEATS ALL RECORDS

Over Eleven Hundred Birds Exhibited—Unexpected Prize-Winners.

The second day's show of the Earls Court Poultry and Pet Stock Association, held at Kenwood Hall, South Dufferin street, was even more interesting than the first, and beat all records in poultry show exhibitions in the northwest district. From Brantford, Brockville, Owen Sound, Whitby, Oshawa, Smith's Falls, as well as many sections of Toronto, the poultry breeders were represented, aggregating over eleven hundred birds in the section, several hundred pigeons and rabbits. Many unexpected prizes fell to exhibitors at this first annual show of the association, Judge Fox showing careful discrimination in all classes of birds. In the bantam class there were no less than two hundred of these favorite birds, one of the largest, if not the largest, number ever exhibited under the big exhibition show. Charles Lacey, president of the Fairbank G.W.V.A., was the winner of two firsts in White Orpingtons, and Tom Abram pulled off many prizes in the pigeons, he being the largest individual exhibitor. Alex. MacGregor, hon. president of the association, was first in one class, with his White Orpingtons, to the surprise of the old breeders. Mr. MacGregor being an amateur. The show closes today. Robert Harris is president, Tom Abram show superintendent, and Arthur Bain secretary.

Amos Darrach of Robina avenue, Oakwood employed by the Pine Hill Dairy Company, was knocked down, stunned and robbed by two men on Vimy Ridge road last night about 11:30, as he was proceeding to his work. Darrach managed to crawl home after he was injured, where he was attended to by a local doctor. He is married and has three children. This road, which is badly lighted, has been the scene of other outrages of late.

The Salvation Army drive for $5000 to raise funds for the new Earls Court citadel on Dufferin street, ended yesterday, and with the reports of the day it is hoped that the objective will have been reached. Ensign and Mrs. Parsons, in charge of the corps, have a large number of local workers collecting, and in no case have they been refused, although much of the money brought in or promised has been in small sums. The cost of the new hall is around $40,000.

WILL FORM CENTRAL RATEPAYERS' BODY

Members Also Discuss Urgent Need for a District Post-office.

Woodbine Heights Ratepayers discussed many questions of live interest to their section at a well attended meeting held in Savoy Mission Hall last night. P. Raven, president, occupied the chair.

The question of continued affiliation with the amalgamated association of York township ratepayers organizations was debated at some length. It was pointed out that the western associations do not give the central body the support necessary for successful operation.

It was decided to withdraw support and delegates from the amalgamated association and form a central body of ratepayers' associations in the eastern section of York township.

The urgent need of a district postoffice was also discussed. The chairman stated that an application has already been sent to the postmaster-general at Ottawa by a storekeeper in the section, but nothing has been done up to the present. It was decided to write W. F. Maclean, M.P., requesting his support and influence.

A general discussion took place regarding the lack of police protection and the epidemic of the local, which has been a general bad conduct of young people in consequence. The secretary was instructed to write High Constable Phillips regarding the matter.

A deputation was appointed to approach the York Township Council to request that a playing field be purchased for the section.

The school trustees reported that indoor games had been purchased for the children and also that a football club had been organized, and claimed that Plains Road School would compare favorably with other schools in the matter of sports.

The gas question and laying of mains in the section was discussed at some length, and the meeting felt that the district had caused for the residents that the residents were yet without the illuminant, considering the trouble other people had with the gas and quality. It was stated that the gas will require considerable improvement before application is made for it in the Woodbine Heights district.

In connection with the water scheme for the eastern section of York township, a site has been secured on J. B. Harri's property, north of Sammon avenue, for a water tank, according to Rev. F. H. Miller. The cost of the tank, including site, will be approximately $80,000.

MEMORIAL TABLET WILL BE UNVEILED

To Honor Memory of Soldiers and Nursing Sister Who Served in War.

The memorial tablet to perpetuate the memory of soldiers and a nursing sister from St. Clement's Church, corner of East Gerrard street and Jones avenue, who enlisted for overseas during the war, 38 of whom paid the supreme sacrifice, will be unveiled at the morning service tomorrow, Rev. Wm. Baynes-Reed, D.S.O., will perform the ceremony.

A new parish has been formed for the Catholic residents living east of Greenwood and Danforth avenues, and a site for a church has been secured on Roseheath avenue, about two blocks west of Woodbine and south of Danforth avenues. A suitable piece of land has also been secured for a two-roomed school on Woodbine avenue.

The parish will be known as St. Bridget's, and a temporary frame church will be erected immediately. Rev. James Brady, formerly of Pechin, has been appointed parish priest.

Solemn requiem high mass was celebrated in St. Paul's Church, corner of East Queen and Power streets, at 8 o'clock yesterday morning, for the repose of the soul of the late Township MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, in the presence of a crowded congregation.

Very Rev. Deane, dean of the cathedral, assisted by Rev. Fathers Miller and O'Reilly, deacon and sub-deacon respectively. The library was sung before the draped catafalque.

This was the first mass to be celebrated publicly in Toronto for the late lord mayor.

The bridge will be a concrete bridge, and will be the top of the hill will be undertaken in the early spring, according to E. A. James, engineer.

MODERATE TARIFF IDEAL OF MEIGHEN

Meighen said he thought the best plan would be to pursue a course of moderation; find a common middle ground between the two extremes of high protection and free trade. The leader of the opposition had not stated how he would frame a tariff policy, he asserted.

The cry frequently raised that the administration favored the big interests, Mr. Meighen said, was unfounded. He said: "Had the nationalization of 20,000 miles of railway been in the interests of big business? Mr. Mackenzie King knows, he said, that we are in action in defiance of the wishes of big business interests."

Speech of J. A. Calder.

Hon. J. A. Calder said that Canada had a bigger job after the war, and were the government to have gone to pieces, as some persons had suggested, it would have been a criminal act. There were grave problems to be solved. While mistakes were made, no belligerent country in the world had done the work Canada has done.

Party platform, he said, was practically a thing of the past in Canada.

Personal Banking Service

The Sterling Bank organization is more than an efficient Banking institution. It is fundamentally a help-mate for its clients—for in so far as we aid in the expansion of our clients' business, we promote the growth of our own institution.

Thus to the desire—which our "Personal Service" policy has imbued in every officer of the Bank—to serve our clients in as helpful and efficient a manner as possible, is added the incentive bred by the thought that in so doing he fosters our own expansion as well.

The result is a co-operation between our clients and ourselves and an efficient handling of all Banking transactions that has shown tangible results.

If you are interested in hearing what the application of "Personal Banking Service" would mean to your business, a word from you will bring us together—in your office or ours.

COAL STRIKE COSTS BRITAIN DEARLY

Newspapers in England Congratulate Both Sides on Settlement.

London, Oct. 29.—The miners and the coal mine owners are about equally congratulated in the newspapers this morning on the provisional settlement of the strike arrived at. There is a general disposition to deprecate the use of the word "victory" by either side. It is pointed out that while the men have got their cherished 4s. 6d. a week, the mine owners have secured the principle of increased production to coincide with the raise in wages it fought for.

Meanwhile, it is also regretfully pointed out, Europe has lost twelve million tons of English coal, which it badly needed, the miners have lost millions in wages, and the government has lost a large slice of the surplus coal profits. One expert is bold enough to assert that the arrangement ensures ten years peace in the coal trade. The miners have still to vote on the proposals, which, however, are considered as eminently likely to receive acceptance.
