LATE LOCALS

After a regular rehearsal last night, the members of St. Luke's church choir were entertained at Seannell's restaurant by J. K. Seannell. Mr. Seannell first took the choir for a car ride, then to the "Nickel," after which a bountiful repast was served at Seannell's restaurant. After the repast the choir made a mistake in singing and music was indulged in.

Rev. Father Byrne held his annual picnic at Norton yesterday and a very large crowd was in attendance. The outing was on the grounds near Norton station and the Norton band furnished excellent music during the day. Among those present were Rev. E. J. Conway, of Hampton, Rev. Joseph McErmott, of Sussex and Rev. Fr. Belliveau, of Grand Digby. An efficient committee made the picnic a grand success.

John Cole, his wife, two sons and daughter arrived at Indian town this morning on a canoe. Mr. Cole and his family left Presque Isle a week ago last Monday and in that time covered a distance of over 200 miles. The trip was made in a small canoe and the family probably sold the craft. The latter has a sail in it and on the side big rolls of birch bark covered with caribou hide it is impossible for the canoe to upset.

A large and representative audience gathered in Centenary school room last evening when a very excellent concert was given by the Misses Lugin, assisted by J. A. Kelly and D. B. Pidgeon. The audience was most appreciative, every number being heartily enjoyed. Mrs. Seville's piano solos were revelations and vocal solos by the Misses Lugin were greatly appreciated. Messrs. Kelly and Pidgeon were as usual given a very hearty reception, and in fact all the numbers were very acceptably rendered.

EXPERTS IN POOL GAME

Those who expected to be in the Royal Hotel billiard room on Monday night were treated to as fine an exhibition of pool playing as has been seen here for many months. Some time ago, it will be remembered, there was a game played in a Mill street parlour between a young man from Boston and a well known official. The Bostonian won with ease, and since that time has been recognized as the best pool player in the city. On Monday another American gentleman made his appearance in the billiard parlour and by the excellence of his play soon attracted the attention of the bystanders. When he was seen to run off 31 balls in a game of continuous pool it was at once forced upon those who saw his performance that he was an expert with the cue. He was later introduced to the Boston gentleman and a friendly game of 30 balls was played in which the Bostonian won. There was no stake attached to the match, as it was merely a friendly contest, but as an exhibition of scientific pool playing it was greatly enjoyed by those who were fortunate enough to witness it.

MR. MAXWELL IS MUCH SURPRISED

Caretaker of Cedar Hill Cemetery Feels That He Has Been Unfairly Criticised.

George Maxwell, caretaker of Cedar Hill cemetery is very much surprised at the statements made about him in recently published letters. These statements he emphatically denies and declares that never, in the twenty years that he has had charge of Cedar Hill, has he had a single word of discussion with any one of the lot holders.

Talking with the Times, Mr. Maxwell said that since the letters referred to appeared in print, quite a number of those holding lots came to him and wanted to have a petition drawn up in order to keep him there and show their approval of him. He added that a local business man called him up over the phone and asked if he could be of any assistance to him, and many were surprised that he should have been criticised.

He pointed out that on the first of January last the price of lots was advanced from $14 to $20 but the rules and regulations were exactly the same as they were twenty years ago. When people wanted to come in and fix up their own lots he allowed them to do so and tried to be polite and obliging and get along peaceably and quietly with everybody.

Mr. Maxwell gives the scale of prices for work of various kinds in Cedar Hill, which is as follows:—
Opening large grave .. . $3.50
Opening small grave .. . 2.50
Sodding large grave and cleaning up lot .. . 1.25
Sodding small grave and cleaning up lot .. . 1.00
Grading 10 x 15 lot, from ten to twelve inches high, and sodding the edges only .. . 10.00
Sodding 10 x 15 lot all over and grading same as above .. . 15.00
All lots are 10 x 15 and are called eight grave lots.

Mr. Maxwell says that this price scale has not changed in the past twenty years. Mr. Maxwell drew the attention of the Times representative to a new drain he is opening in Cedar Hill in order to drain the land. When finished it will be some 2000 feet long and from 6-14 to 8 feet deep.

The cemetery is looking well at present. The lots are well kept and everything possible is being done to bring it up-to-date in every respect.

Mr. Maxwell, in conclusion, stated that he had resigned in October last and had been re-elected. This, he said, did not look as though his services were not wanted.

DR. COWPERTHWAIT IS APPRECIATED

He Was Formerly Pastor of Queen Square Church in This City.

(St. John's Nfld. Telegram, July 10th.)
Rev. H. P. Cowperthwaite, D. D., preaches his farewell sermon on Sunday evening next at Goddard street church. The learned doctor, having completed his term at the above church, has been invited by the Methodists of Harbor Grace to become their pastor. His loss will be felt in St. John's, for he has proved himself to be one of the foremost in every work advanced and up-to-date in his reading and thought, while his intellect is as active as ever it was. His ministrations in the pulpit have always proved acceptable, and have been marked by a freshness and vigor that show no signs of abatement. Dr. Cowperthwaite is a man of large sympathies, and both young and old under his pastorate have been greatly benefited. He is particularly strong in his loyalty to his country, and his sermons and addresses on patriotic topics will be long remembered by the people of this city. The reverend gentleman has been well-nigh half a century in the ministry of the Methodist Church, and can look back with pleasure upon a record that has earned for a great deal in the advance of Methodism on this side of the Atlantic. We trust that his future labors may still be blessed with great success, and we know that the good wishes of his many friends in this city will follow him to his new sphere of labor.

WRECK HOUSE TO BURY BIGGEST JERSEY WOMAN

Tear Out Brickwork for Egress of Mrs. McMahon's Casket.

NEW YORK, June 16.—That the casket containing the remains of the late Mrs. Margaret McMahon, who was the biggest woman in New Jersey, may be removed from the home of her daughter at No. 7512 Passaic street, Newark, where she died, it has been necessary to remove one of the window frames and to cut away sixteen inches of the brickwork alongside of it.

FUNERALS

The funeral of the late Richard Cline was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from his late residence, 10 St. James street and was very largely attended. Before the funeral left the house, the service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Hand. There were no pall-bearers and interment was made in Cedar Hill cemetery.
The funeral of the late Timothy Murphy took place this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from the residence of William Wells, 97 Guilford street, west end, to Cedar Hill cemetery, where interment was made. Rev. M. D. Fletcher read the funeral service.

WALL STREET

NEW YORK, July 17.—Some hesitation was perceptible in the tone of the opening dealings in stocks due to the refusal of the London market to follow the late advance of yesterday here. First prices showed small gains and losses mixed. Dealings were large in Union Pacific, the Hill stocks and U. S. Steel. Northern Pacific rose a point and U. S. Steel declined 3-8. The market opened irregular.
