

The Degree of Bachelor of Science and English Literature is conferred upon those who, in like manner, complete the Second Course of study and pass the required examinations.

The Degree of Master of Arts may be taken in course by any Bachelor of Arts of three years' standing, who shall satisfy the Faculty that his course, subsequent to his graduation, has been such as to entitle him to this distinction. Those who wish to receive it should intimate their wish to the President at least a fortnight before the Anniversary of the College, and at the same time advance the usual fee, which will be returned, if the Degree should be withheld.

Requirements for Admission.

Candidates for admission are required to be of a good moral character, and of, at least, fourteen years of age.

Those who wish to pursue the full course of study should be well acquainted with English Grammar; Geography; English History; Arithmetic; Algebra, to Quadratic Equations; three books of Geometry; Latin Grammar, including Prosody, (Andrews & Stoddard's, Bryce's or Harkness' preferred); Cæsar's Commentaries, two books; Cicero's Orations against Cataline; Virgil's Æneid, two books; Greek Grammar, (Bryce's or Hadley's preferred); Xenophon's Anabasis, two books; and two books of Homer's Iliad.

Those who wish to pursue the Literary and Scientific Course of Study should be well acquainted with all the above-named subjects, except the Latin and Greek, and also with the elements of the French language.

Those who wish to pursue only a partial course of study, must be prepared to pass examination in such subjects as are deemed preparatory to the work in the classes which they may wish to join.

Candidates for admission to advanced standing in the College must be prepared to pass examination in all the subjects required for matriculation, as well as in those in the College Course which may have been previously studied by the classes which they propose to join.
