SUFFERED FOR EIGHTEEN YEARS

Tanlac Gave Me Health and Strength and Joy," Says
Mrs. Maddison, of Quebec.

"I was so run-down that I was thinking of giving up work," said Mrs. Edward Maddison who is superintendent of the girls' department of the Rock City Tobacco Co.'s factory in Quebec, when seen by the Tanlac representative at her home, 31 Smith street, Quebec. "For eighteen years I have suffered from nervous indigestion with all its distressing accompaniments of excessive gas, dizziness and bad headaches, but lately it had got very much worse. I was eating scarcely enough to keep body and soul together and got very thin. Neuralgia pains drew me almost to distraction and the rheumatism in my arms was so severe that I could hardly use them. My sleep was very disturbed and broken and I used to rise in the mornings feeling so tired and weary. I began to see that if I did not soon find a remedy for my condition I should collapse utterly. I must have tried nearly every medicine that the druggists sell but they never helped me one little bit.

"I had read in the papers about how people had derived great benefit from Tanlac, so I thought I would put it to the test. I do indeed congratulate myself on so doing because it has helped me wonderfully. I have taken four bottles of the medicine and this is what it has done for me. My appetite is now excellent and I not only enjoy my food but find that I can digest it without difficulty. I no longer have fits of dizziness when at my work and the neuralgia and rheumatism have completely disappeared. I sleep soundly and rise in the morning feeling refreshed. The color has come back into my cheeks and my complexion is much improved. I have gained much in weight and truly I feel altogether better both in body and in spirits. I give you these facts gladly, for Tanlac has given me health and strength and joy at a time when I was much discouraged by my bad state of health."

Such a statement as the above should appeal to all who suffer from nervousness, indigestion, neuralgia, rheumatism or a general run-down condition. What such people need is something to tone up the system and to assist the vital organs in performing their proper functions. That Tanlac is the most rational and effective preparation ever discovered for these troubles is evidenced by scores of testimonials which are received daily from men and women of unquestioned integrity, expressing deep gratitude for what this medicine has done for them.

Tanlac is sold at St. John by Ross Drug Co., and by the leading druggist in every town.

Stop Colds and Catarrh

Colds and catarrh are treacherous—not only are they what they lead to. Night and day they do their harm, sapping your strength, weakening your power and paving the way for influenza, pneumonia and tuberculosis.

Nurse Jan-O-Sun has seen the humiliation of catarrh—the suffering caused by coughs and colds. Her way is to destroy the germs, soothe and heal, and fortify you against other attacks. Her treatment is new and different—easy and pleasant. No sickly smelling spray, greasy ointment or atomizer—nothing to smother, rub in or inject. Colds and catarrh are Nurse Jan-O-Sun's lifetime work. The week can't be told in this small space. Write her to-day. She will tell you how to clear away catarrh, get rid of coughs and colds—how to keep rid of them too. Just write and say "I want to know about Nurse Jan-O-Sun's treatment." She will answer you by return.

SCANDAL IN POLICE INQUIRY IS PROMISED

Women Said to Have Been Hounded by Detective

Had Been Seeking to Live
Blameless Lives—Allegations
Made in Statement of Official—Denial by Sleuth.

New York, March 8.—With the indictment and arrest of Detective John Gunson, a member of the staff of Captain Henry, of the fourth inspection district, charged with bribery and extortion on the complaint of Mrs. Rebecca Melyado, it was announced by Assistant District Attorney James E. Smith, that an investigation is under way involving fourteen other persons, mainly plain clothesmen, a bondsman or two, and a lawyer. Additional indictments are expected.

The investigation, according to Mr. Smith, has already disclosed that women seeking to lead blameless lives were hounded from their positions by detectives in order that they might divide their earnings with the officers. Mr. Smith promised startling revelations into the relations existing between certain detectives and women companions.

Mrs. Melyado told the grand jury of her alleged relations with Gunson since 1917, and her story was corroborated by Rose Gonzales, known as the "Spanish Rose".

"You can find out who she is by looking up her record. I am a married man with a wife and child and have never been away from home more than twenty-four hours at a time."

Ball was fixed at $5,000 by Judge Malone after Gunson pleaded not guilty. It was furnished by a surety company.

Target of Criticism.

Gunson was arrested on a bench warrant executed by Detective Edward Raynes, of the district-attorney's office. At the west 68th street station it was said that Gunson had been on duty in the district three years, and that his record was excellent, integrity, expressing deep gratitude for what this medicine has done for them.

Tanlac is sold at St. John by Ross Drug Co., and by the leading druggist in every town.

Members of the delegation which went to Ottawa from St. John last week to interview the minister of finance regarding the business profits, returned home on Saturday afternoon.

R. E. Armstrong, W. C. Cross, T. H. Somerville, F. A. Dykeman, Lewis Connors, with others from other maritime points. They were met by Sir Henry Drayton, who he agreed to meet on Saturday afternoon.

Revenue, and if it were dropped some other form of taxation would have to follow.

PALE, SALLOW WOMEN NEED VINOL

It Makes Rich, Red Blood, Creates Natural Strength,
the Glow of Health and a Magnetic Personality.

Women who are over-worked, weak, run-down, no energy and hardly able to drag about, if you could only realize what VINOL, our cod liver and iron tonic, will do for you, there would not be enough in Canada to supply the demand.

Miss Phyllis Jones, of Toronto, Ontario, says: "I was run-down, nervous and losing flesh rapidly, and had fainting spells, so I had to stop work for weeks at a time. My doctor told me to take VINOL. I did and after two or three days I commenced to feel better. I have gained flesh rapidly and feel better in every way since taking it."

What VINOL did for Miss Jones it will do for every pale, yellow, weak, over-worked woman. Every such woman in Canada should ask her druggist for VINOL today and start on the road to a healthy, happy existence. Your druggist will return your money if VINOL fails to help you.

quarters were in the district, asserted Mr. Smith, and he would meet Mrs. Melyado at one or two o'clock in the morning and would receive money, the arrangement being on a "fifty-fifty" basis. It is said. The money was passed in a restaurant or in the street.

On the occasion which served as the basis of the indictment, the complaint was made that she would change a $100 bill and after Etelle Young changed it, she gave the detective $50, she asserted.

Mrs. Melyado, it was said, continued to give Gunson money, but the shock of the death of a near relative caused her to resolve that she would change her mode of life. Accordingly she obtained a position as hairdresser.

She said she paid $400 for being released.

The prosecutor charged that women who paid police officers were discharged in the women's night court. To support this assertion, he produced the court record of several cases. In one the Gonzales woman, under the name of "Rose Lopez," was discharged by Magistrate Frothingham June 11, 1918. She said she paid $400 for being released.

Robert M. Moore, of 346 Broadway, counsel for Gunson, objected before Judge Malone to $5,000 bail for his client if he was released on parole.

Both the Melyado woman and Rose Gonzales were arrested on June 19, 1918. Mrs. Melyado said she was sent to jail for twenty days because she refused to neglect his duty of hunting down vice offenders.

Gunson sums aggregating $5,000 in three years, and from time to time made him a large sum of money, in gold, silver, silk shirts, and a turquoise ring, and that when they went to a theatre, Mr. Moore would always be paid the bill.

Mrs. Melyado, a young woman of attractive appearance, said she was in Toronto and received her education in London and the University of Kansas, specializing in languages. She said she speaks seven languages and was employed as an expert translator in the office of an international lawyer in Chicago and was also employed by the Western Union Telegraph Company.

According to Mr. Smith, Gunson hounded the three women after they obtained respectable employment and it was impossible for them to appear in a restaurant in the fourth inspection district, embracing the territory from 42nd to 110th streets and from Fifth avenue to the Hudson river, without being subjected to the danger of a detective asking the proprietor to eject them.

Etelle Young, said Mr. Smith, who was employed as a clerk in a Broadway establishment, was dismissed when Gunson and another detective informed the proprietor that she was an undesirable employee. She obtained another position and subsequently while in a restaurant with her sister, it is said, she was ejected on the complaint of Gunson and another officer.

Visited Apartment.

After Gunson and another detective became acquainted with Mrs. Melyado and Miss Gonzales, the prosecutor said, the officers frequented the apartment maintained by the women in West 98th street, remaining there for long periods of time. It was there, he said, that Gunson offered to permit Mrs. Melyado to remain unmolested in the fourth inspection district and promised to remove complaints from the complaint box in the district office if any charges were made against her.

Gunson would inform the young woman if any officer from police headquarters.

GERMAN PRINCE IN FIGHT IN A BERLIN HOTEL

Rough and Tumble Over Refusal of French Visitors to Honor "Deutschland Ueber Alles."

(Associated Press.)

Berlin, March 8.—The fashionable Adlon Hotel dining room was the scene of a rough and tumble fight on Saturday night between Prince Joachim of Prussia, a cousin of the former German Emperor, and his guests, and Captain Klein and Roughievin and Madame Klein, members of the French mission. The hostilities were due to the French people refusing to stand while the orchestra was playing "Deutschland Ueber Alles."

Joachim and his friends hurled candles, crockery and other things at the French party and Captain Roughievin was beaten and had his clothes torn. Captain Klein was escorted out of the dining room by waiters who defended him.

WILL OF MRS. TOM THUMB IS FILED

Estate Mostly to Relatives—
Use of Curios for Benefit of Cemetery Association.

Plymouth, Mass., March 8.—Albert A. Thoms of Middleboro has filed a petition at the Plymouth County Registry of Probate here asking for appointment as administrator, with will annexed, of the estate of Lavinia W. Magri of Middleboro, better known as Mrs. "Tom Thumb," who had a world-wide reputation.

The citation states that in the will Mrs. Magri failed to name an executor and the heirs are Count Magri, her husband, Emily V. Hurley of Wareham, a niece, Harry E. Bump and Benjamin Bump of Middleboro, nephews. The will was dated Sept. 24, 1912, and was witnessed by George W. Stetson, Myra C. Stetson, and Julia M. McKay of Middleboro. No schedule of the amount of the estate has been filed.

The countess directs, after the paying of her debts and expenses, that any proceeds that may come from the partition of her autobiography be divided between her brothers if living. All her real estate is to be sold and the proceeds over the world are to be given to a trustee to be appointed by the probate court to be given to the National Cemetery Association of Middleboro and its successors.

The executor is directed to place her small piano, billiard table, and all small furniture in some historical or antiquarian collection rooms, together with four portraits—one of herself, one of Gen. Tom Thumb, one of Minnie Warren, her sister, and one of Commodore Nutt, who was married to Minger Warren. In this exhibit are also to be deposited Mrs. Magri's two sewing machines.

To her husband, Count Magri, she bequeaths all her holdings of stock in the American Express company and he is also given the use of the piano now at the house of W. Homer Southworth, during his lifetime, and at his death it is to go to Harry Bump.

Countess Magri, who died on Nov. 25, 1919, at her home in Middleboro, had been in failing health some time. Count and Countess Magri had been living several years in Middleboro, as they gave up their stage life.
