LOCAL NEWS

POTATOES WILL BE HIGH
Word comes from Annapolis county in Maine that potato buyers are willing to pay in advance for this year's crop at $2.50 per barrel, lying in the field. Add cost of peeling, freight and dealers' profits, and figure out what the consumer would have to pay.

No. 2 TEAM WON.
The second game of a series being played between two teams from Emerson & Fisher, Ltd., was played Saturday afternoon at Fennell's Park, Fairville, and resulted in a win for No. 2 team by a score of 11 to 9. The battery for the winning nine were: Wade and Rathburn, and for the losers, Davis and Stinson. H. Rathburn and J. McCormick officiated as umpires.

TRANSFERRED TO SACKVILLE.
A. LeRoy C. Hastings, who was manager of the North End branch of the Provincial Bank, has been transferred to Sackville to manage the Provincial Bank there and left for his new field this morning. He had been in charge of the North End branch since it was opened about a year ago, and during that time made many friends, who will be pleased to hear of his promotion. He was formerly in charge of the branch in Norton, N. B.

PREPARING FOR DOG DAY.
It was announced at central police station this morning that the list of dogs in the city that are not taxed is now being prepared. There has been 544 tags issued and are still about 800 to be licensed. This announcement is to be taken as a warning and those who have not yet received licenses for their "canines" had better "Beware!" For "dog day" is coming and it is no holiday either.

SUBURBAN SERVICE.
Some curious folk, from along the Reach who had to drive or walk to Lingley Station this morning to catch the C. P. R. suburban were impressed by the swarm of people who alighted from that train in St. John station. That traffic was built up by a proper suburban service. Given a similar service the Long Reach in a year or two would bring a similar swarm in on a Valley Railway suburban train. The Valley Railway service does not serve. Its passenger service is of no value to the people along the line. They can neither get in or out of town when they desire.

MRS. WM. QUINN HONORED.
A number of relatives and friends gathered at the home of William Quinn, Park Avenue, East St. John, and tendered to Mrs. R. Bradbury a surprise party in honor of her seventy-fourth birthday. The table was prettily decorated, and a large birthday cake and basket of roses adorned the centre of the table. The decoration of the table was the work of Mr. Mansie of East St. John. Although advanced in years Mrs. Bradbury is still very active. Best wishes were expressed and the party broke up about midnight.

FUNERALS.
The funeral of Jas. Clement McMurray was held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 from his late residence in Main street, Fairville, to St. Rose's church, where service was conducted by Rev. Father Collins. Three brothers and three cousins of Mr. McMurray acted as pall-bearers, and the funeral was one of the largest ever held in Fairville for some time. Numerous spiritual and floral offerings were received. Interment was in Holy Cross cemetery.

WALLACE, MAGEE.
A quiet but very pretty wedding took place in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church at 9:30 this morning when Miss Annie Kathleen, daughter of Robert M. Magee, became the bride of Robert Wallace. Rev. F. S. Dowling performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The bride, wearing a traveling suit of navy blue tricot with hat to match, and carrying a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies-of-the-valley, was attended by Mrs. R. D. Magee, wearing a navy blue suit and carrying a beautiful basket of pink roses. The groom was supported by R. D. Magee, Lieut. Colonel Frank Magee acted as usher. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom left for a motor trip of about two weeks duration, after which they will take up their residence in Regina. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful gifts of linen, cut glass and silver. The out-of-town guests were principally relatives.

JENKINS AND COLGAN WINNERS

High Season Scores on Y. M. C. I. Alleys — Closed for Season.

The Y. M. C. I. alleys were closed Saturday night after a most successful season, under the management of William A. Stack. The prize for the member making the highest total for three successive strings was won by Noel Jenkins, who ran up a score of 353. It was donated by H. J. Sheehan and had been up for competition since the beginning of the season. The highest individual string was made by Richard Colgan, who knocked over 145 pins. While the bowling alleys and cañten have been closed and the gymnasium work over for the season, members may take advantage of the shower baths and swimming pool during the summer months.

HON. DR. ROBERTS IS ELECTED BY ACCLAMATION

Nomination Proceedings Are Carried Out Quietly — Many Ladies' Names on Papers.

Nominations for candidates in the by-election made necessary by the death of Hon. Dr. W. P. Roberts, minister of public health, to accept the salary to which he is entitled as a minister of the Crown, closed today at 12 o'clock old time. As a result of decision of the local opposition not to oppose him, Dr. Roberts will be automatically returned by acclamation. Among the names on his nomination paper appear the following: John E. Moore, H. H. Skinner, A. McMillan, George McAvity, F. A. Campbell, W. J. Mahoney, E. Clifton Brown, J. B. Dwyer, F. J. G. Knowlton, L. A. Conlon, Wm. Ryan, W. P. Broderick, and Edward J. Henneberry. An interesting feature of the paper is the appearance on it of many ladies' names. The nomination proceedings were very quiet.

THE CROPS GREATLY HELPERD BY THE RAIN

Lilac and Apple Blossom Time — The Ways of a Humming Bird — Quiet Along the River Yesterday.

The benediction of the rain. At Public Landing it began to fall on Saturday evening toward ten o'clock, so gently, without a breath of wind that an upturned face scarcely felt its first caress. By slow degrees the volume increased; and through the night the tiny drops rained down upon the thirsty ground, where vegetation for weeks had suffered because they had not come. In the morning the rain hung in shining crystals from the grass blades, or lay in tiny leaf cups, or dripped from the branches of the trees, while all the ploughed lands took on a dark, rich, moist appearance and peas and beans held up their heads and showed a livelier green. It was not as if a great downpour had come to run quickly off. This mild, persistent, quiet rainfall was absorbed, and brought infinite refreshing to the earth. During most of Sunday it continued, with short intervals, and a wind came out of the south-east, but there were no deluging showers. Steadily the nourishment sank into the soil, to vivify the newly planted seed, to mature the dry roots of grasses, to bring new growth to the pastures, and to enrich the countryside. Mists hung all day along the tops of the hills, but no farmer or gardener, or anyone interested in production wanted to see the sun. The feeling was expressed by the farmer who said:

"This rain is worth hundreds of thousands of dollars to the country."

Only one or two motor boats were seen in the Reach yesterday, and but few motor cars crossed the Landing, all with curtains closed, for the day was very cool. A good many people went up river on Saturday, but there is still no early morning train or boat to the city, and the development of the Long Reach is thus retarded.

The air at the Landing was sweet on Saturday with the scent of lilacs and apple blossoms. Curiously enough, while some apple trees are literally covered with bloom a few others show not a single blossom. The blossoms of wild fruits are very plentiful.

Weeks ago it appears to flourish without rain. The weeds were in the garden to furnish several hours' steady work, and then the job was not finished. The flies were there also as evening approached, and a farmer living back of the Landing, where there are more woods, said he had never seen the little pests so thick as they have been in the last few weeks.

A humming bird in action is an interesting sight. A crab apple tree loaded with bloom attracted one between the showers yesterday. It darted from blossom to blossom, with a control of its movements that would be the despair of an aviator. The moment it came within reach of the heart of the blossom it became stationary, except for a constant motion of its wings. The halt was but momentary, just to take one sip, and then it sped was regained in a twinkling, and so on from blossom to blossom. Quite different was the hawk, poised near the wharf and peering down into the troubled waters of the river in search of living food. Quite different also the plump little gray bird in the dooryard, pecking at the earth and raising its head momentarily to dart quick glances on every side. Perhaps the still more impressive plumpness of the family cat explains the caution of the bird. And then there is the farmer's artful hen who stole away and made a nest of sixteen eggs and sat upon them. She really did very well, for now she is proudly mothering a brood of eleven chickens. Another hen, perhaps with an eye on the coming exhibition in St. John, has produced two eggs that were almost as large as goose eggs. Let no body imagine that human beings are the only objects of interest when one gets to the country.

This morning the mists still clung to the hills, and some rain had fallen in the night. Twenty-four hours had already wrought a remarkable change in the gardens. The crops are again off to a good start.

TEACHERS' CAMP.
The dates of the Teachers' Camp, Rural Science School, Sussex, have been changed, commencing June 14 ending August 11, instead of from July 9 to August 5. This change is no doubt a result of the cancellation of the military camp Sussex as the camp grounds are to be used for the teachers. Grants of $80 for a bonus of $20 for all those who have taught at and school gardening previous to entering summer school.

MEN SCARCER, WAGES HIGHER.
It is said that as high as $4.50 per day is asked by laborers asked to engage in road work in St. John and Kings counties. A provincial government official who was at a place in Queens county last week with some work to do could not get a man, but was told he could get one this week at $4.50 per day.

How Cool That Reed Set Looks in Our Display Window

You'll want to see it, of course—so make it a point to swing up our way tonight or this afternoon because it won't be there for long.

Reed as a furniture making material is fastly coming to the fore and especially is the demand increasing in these warm months.

While not exclusively a warm month proposition yet it has the lightness and coolness which seem to be peculiarly summer season properties. Note the bright and subdued colors in the cretonne upholstery, and mentally picture how that chair or rocker would look in your present living room!

We are showing a happy line of Reed Furniture at this time and know you would value an inspection of it.
