

It was moved in further amendment by Mr. James, seconded <sup>Amendment.</sup> Mr. Pringle, that Mr. Irving be examined by the Synod's Committee on Theological Education; that he be required to prosecute those branches of study wherein that Committee find him deficient, and that he be placed under Presbyterian superintendence for another year, before being taken on trials for license.

A vote was taken between the amendment of Mr. Glassford <sup>Decision.</sup> and that of Mr. James, when that of Mr. Glassford was lost, and was dropped from the list of motions. Another vote was then taken between the amendment of Mr. James and the original motion, when the motion was carried by a large majority, and the Synod did and do decide in terms of the said motion:

That Mr. Irving's apology be sustained, and that, after satisfying the constituted authorities as to his qualifications, he be taken on trials for license by the Presbytery of Toronto, or any other Presbytery in which he may be when prepared.

Proceeded with consideration of the Report of the Theological Education Committee.

It was agreed, on motion of Dr. Jennings, seconded by Mr. <sup>Mr. Hay's case.</sup> Ormiston, that inasmuch as Mr. Hay expresses his willingness to be examined, the London Presbytery be instructed to examine <sup>Decision on.</sup> him on his last year's course, and take him on trials for license.

The Rev. Mr. Bell, of the Presbyterian Church of Canada in connection with the Church of Scotland, who had been invited, in the morning, to sit with us as a correspondent, briefly addressed the Synod. The Moderator replied <sup>Address by Rev. Mr.
Bell.</sup>

The hour of five o'clock having arrived, Mr. Porteous, by request, led in prayer, and the benediction being pronounced by the Moderator, the Synod adjourned, to meet in Synodical Missionary Meeting, at 7 o'clock.
