In the ordinary of lamp—the lamp that sits on the table, but is hung above and because of having no under-shade throws its beautiful, brilliant light everywhere. It cannot explode, can be filled while lighted and is always out of the way. It burns 'old-fashioned', kerosene giving an intense, clear, soft light. Its soothing rays invigorate the skin and rest the eyes. It is always ready, easy to operate, no smoking, no odor, no glassware to remove in lighting or extinguishing. A better light at one-tenth the cost of other illuminants. Instead of the trying light and dangers of Gasoline and Acetylene use the safe, cool light of The Angle Lamp to work or play by. 20 styles. SIXTY TWO KILLED IN SIEDLCE RIOTS

Property Loss is Greater Than at First Estimated. Girl Who Killed General Min Went Bravely to Her Death—Warsaw Quiet for a Change.

WARSAW, Sept. 12.—This city is quiet. The authorities are suppressing every slightest attempt to start anti-Jewish attacks. On account of the larger German interests in the bank of commerce, Warsaw, German intervention is feared in case of serious disorder. ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 12.—"Long live the social revolution for land and liberty." These were the last words of Zenside Konopliankova, the girl who assassinated General Min last month and who was sentenced to death by a court martial. They were uttered as she was placed around her neck. She refused to see a priest prior to the execution. She mounted the scaffold with firm steps and would not be aided. On a photograph sent to her sister, she wrote the words: "My life was all had to give."

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 12.—The resumption of telegraphic communications with Siedlce has enabled the press of St. Petersburg for the first time to present a picture of the conditions in the ravaged town. As in the case of the massacre of Bialystok, later accounts greatly reduce the number of dead from the given early reports. The property losses, however, from the fury and cupidity of the mob and the destruction wrought by bombardment and subsequent fire, are placed higher, running to several hundred thousand dollars. Although it is reported officially that 44 persons were killed, correspondents enumerated 62 corpses, mostly of Jews, which have been gathered on the streets, in the houses and in various hospitals for burial. The number of corpses buried privately or concealed in burning buildings may add another score to this number. A pitiful feature of the excesses of many wounded persons who were abandoned by their friends in houses from which the people were forced to flee for their lives. Eminent are searching deserted houses for the bodies. The reasonable belief that this attack on the Jews is traceable to the murder of an official on August 21, and that the people supplied the necessary spark to inflame the passions of the soldiers. This view is supported by an article in the official Russian newspapers published in Warsaw which attributes the rage shown by the soldiers to the cause. The excess was aggravated according to the correspondent of the Novos Vreniya by the weakness of the local authorities. The Russian general, who was unable promptly to take the disorder which had been a long time in preparation.

SAYS TWO MEN TRIED TO TAKE HIS WATCH

Henry Crump, Charged With Drunkenness, Claims an Attempt Was Made to Rob Him.

Henry Crump was before the magistrate this morning on the charge of being drunk on Brussels street, between ten and eleven o'clock last night, and from his statement of the affair, there is a chance for the police to believe that highway robbery was attempted. In answer to the charge of drunkenness Crump admitted that he was under the influence of liquor. Policeman McCollum, who made the arrest, said that immediately before he arrested Crump the latter and two other men were rolling about. He tried to get to the three but Crump put up such a kick that it took all the policeman's time in looking after him and in the meantime the other two men went away. Crump said that as he was going along the street he was accosted by two men, who are believed to be local men, and was asked the time. When he pulled out his watch the two tried to take it away from him and that was the cause of the trouble. Crump was fined four dollars or ten days for being drunk.

DRUG TRADE FACES A GASCARA FAMINE

The Crop in the Western States Has Been a Failure and Supplies Will Fall Off.

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 12.—In the states of Oregon and Washington, which supply the world with cascara sagrada, practically no bark was gathered this year. The season for the harvest has just come to a close and the returns received show that not to exceed two carloads was peeled in Oregon and only about four carloads in Washington during the summer months. A few years ago when the excitement in the cascara bark market was at its height the daily receipt at Portland often exceeded that amount. The quantity harvested was far in excess of the demand and prices from that time dropped sharply. With the decline in value, the production has fallen off until now the drug trade of the world is face to face with a cascara famine.

ST. JOHN TRAVELLER DIED IN CHATHAM

CHATHAM, N. B., Sept. 13.—Alphonse Comeau, at one time traveller for McLintyre & Comeau, St. John, and more lately for a Moncton firm, died last night at Mr. Jimmo's home here. Mr. Comeau had been a former resident of Chatham, and had married a young lady of this town. His wife and family of two children, who are in Saint John, survive him.

THE KRUPP SISTERS ARE ECONOMICAL. Spend Only $250 Each on Their Wedding Gowns.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 12.—A cable despatch from Berlin printed here says: Frau Krupp, widow of the great gun maker of Essen, and her daughters Bertha and Barbara, have just been here, the object of their visit being to buy the daughters' trousseau. Notwithstanding their immense wealth, not more than $250 was spent for each outfit. This modest outlay is quite in accordance with the simplicity with which the girls were brought up. Frau Krupp is in Germany, she being the principal heir under her father's will. She is engaged to marry Gustav Von Zolner and Halbach, Under Secretary of the Prussian Legislature to the Vatican. Barbara Krupp, although not nearly so rich as her sister, is worth $1,200,000 her fiancé is Baron Telo Von Willowski, son of the Governor of Prussian Saxony. Neither bridegroom elect is wealthy.

DR. AND MRS. PUGSLEY HURT IN THE WRECK

HE FOUND $20,000 IN A CIGAR BOX

New York Railway Clerk Received a Reward of $5 from the Woman Who Had Lost It.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—According to the Sun today, Wm. Fenlon, an employe of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad at Port Chester, one day last week, found a cigar box lying on the station platform. He took it into the baggage room and opened it. The box was packed with $20,000. Fenlon put his hand under the counter, and taking hold of the box full of money, handed it to the woman. Too nervous to give her name or even thank him, the woman rushed out of the room and boarded a train for New York. Fenlon received an anonymous letter yesterday containing a $5 bill and thanking him for his honesty.

NEW ZEALAND BOUND TO CUT UP LARGE ESTATES

New Land Act is One Which Will Arouse Strong Opposition on the Part of the Wealthy Men.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—The Times Wellington correspondent says that the government land proposals, the most drastic in the history of the colonial legislation, are creating intense interest in New Zealand, especially the clauses compelling owners to sell within a decade the excess of land held beyond $200,000 unimproved value, and the provisions preventing the present owners of 1,000 acres of first class land or those of 5,000 acres of second class land adding their estates either by freeholds or lease holds. The correspondent adds that the proposals will be stoutly combated.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Miss Amelia Duval. The death occurred at 4 o'clock this morning of Miss Amelia Duval, at the residence of her brother-in-law, F. W. Burditt, Crouville. Miss Duval was a daughter of the late E. H. Duval, one time school inspector for this province. She was born in Bristol, England, and came to this country when quite young. Miss Duval was an active church worker, and also taught Sunday school classes at the Alma House. Her demise will be sincerely regretted by the directors of that institution, as well as by the inmates. Two sisters and one brother survive. They are Mrs. Allen of Paris, Mrs. W. F. Burditt of Crouville and E. H. Duval of Quebec. The funeral will be held on Saturday.

LABOR DELEGATES SEEM TO THINK THERE IS A LOT—COMPLAIN OF THE STAR'S REPORT.

At yesterday session of the National Trades and Labor Congress a complaint was made by one of the delegates about the action of a so-called "spotter" on the L. C. L. In the report printed in the Star the proper title of this officer, namely "train auditor" was used. At this morning session of the congress a delegate, named Bowman, objected to this wording and succeeded in having a resolution passed to the effect that unless the Star corrects yesterday's report by the use of the term "spotter" representatives of this paper will be excluded from all future sessions. Should the readers of the Star fail to remember that the reports of the concluding meetings of the congress they will understand why such are not published.

FELL TO HIS DEATH CLIMBING THE ALPS

Terrible Experience of a Party of Four Men.

They Were Swept Down by an Avalanche of Stones—Two Were Saved by the Life Line.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—A cable despatch to a morning paper from St. Michael De Maurienne, France, says: Four Alpine climbers, while returning from the ascent of the Aiguilles Daves on Sunday, were swept by an avalanche of stones upon a glacier fifty feet below. All were stunned. The first to recover his senses was a man named Malge who found two of his companions lying seriously on the edge of a crevasse of unknown depth in which the fourth climber, a man of the name of Quasto, was dangling by the rope with which the party had been linked together. The accidental wedging of this rope in a cleft, alone saved all the men from falling into the abyss of the crevasse. The accident which was suffering agony shouted: "My arms and legs are broken, I am suffering horribly. Cut the rope and let me die." Malge vainly tried to haul him up, and finding the others helpless, he further secured the rope and started to obtain aid. It was nine hours before he returned with help.

FIVE MEN KILLED IN A THUNDERSTORM

CHICAGO, Sept. 12.—Five men were injured, two fatally, six horses were killed, and the entire plant of the Illinois Brick Company practically destroyed last night when a thunderbolt fell into two of the largest buildings of the South Evanston plant. Sixty men were about the premises and not one escaped injury. The storm was one of the most severe experienced in Chicago for years.
