The storm had a disastrous effect upon the rallways and their schedules. The latest of all the trains to arrive in the Union depot was the I. C. While there have been many worse storms, and many which delayed trains even longer, the recent storm for its size caused the most trouble of any yet experienced. The snow was sandy and gritty. It packed very compactly and was harder to remove than many falls twice its depth. The flanger, while working in the yard, was forced off the track in a depth of six inches, and took two hours' hard work to replace it. The Boston at night was an hour and a half late. The Street Railway Company had hard time, and all day yesterday traffic was suspended. One hundred extra men were engaged and practically every foot of the line had to be shovelled The snow was like fine sand, packed very hard, and the sweepers could make no impression. Walkaway ploughs were employed and work was continued during all day and all night Early yes terday forenoon the Prince William street lines were cleared and cars ran to the three lamps. Towards evening the main line was cleared, and about eight o'clock the first red car was abl to make the circuit. Work was continued along Princess street and it was expected that by morning the green Paradise row line were at it all night and got the rails cleared by morning. WOODSTOCK, Jan. 5 .- The factory ommission were here in session today. This morning they met in the council chamber and heard evidence from representatives of various factories and foundries in town. The personnel of the commission is Mayor John Palmer of Fredericton Kilgour Shives of Campbellton, Mrs. Emma W. Fiske and M. J. Kelly of St. John, and Jas. G. Stevens of St. Stephen.

The witnesses this morning were D A. Grant of the Woodstock Carriage Company; Alex. Dunbar, sr., of the firm of A. Dunbar & Sons, iron founders; Hubert Seeley of the Woodstock Woodworking Co.; Frank Hillman foreman of the A. Henderson Furn re Mfg. Co.; W. A. Sherwood, repre senting the Imperial Packing Co. FEW MARRIAGES

To Any Alarming Extent.

According to the official marriage re turns, there was a decrease from the previous year in the number of marriages in St. John during the year 1904. This speaks badly of leap year, and tends to disprove the leap year theory. During 1904 the number of marriages registered was 403. The figures for the four preceding years are: 406 for 1903; 394 for 1902, 402 for 1901 and 384 for 1904. There was also a large falling off in the number of births. The number registered for 1904 is 960. In 1903 there were 1,175, births; 1140 in 1902; 1,105 in 1901, and 1,129 in 1900. About 30 of these were illegitimate. Inspector Jones says that there of New Brunswick will during the doubtless were many births that were coming term be strengthened by the addition of two new instructors. Horace L.
