There was very luttle doug in Haitax last week, excepting some small teas, which were most acceptable entertainments on very wet days. Of these the largest was given on Thursday by Mrs. Frank Roberts, whose rooms looked charming with a profusion of spring flowers.

Among late arrivals are Mrs. Commeline, who has been spending the winter in Encland, and Mrs. Riddell, Mrs. Humpsee and Mrs. Nicholis, from Bermuds. Mrs. Wockridge has also arrived from England to j in her husband, Captain Mockridge, and has taken a house on Spring Garden road.

England to join her husband, Captain Mockridge, and has taken a heuse on Epping Garden road.

There was a large gathering at the station Wednesday atternoon to bid farewell to the general and Mrs. Montgomery Moore, who went off tairly burdened with flowers, and carrylag with them the best wishes of their many triends.

Miss Turton presented Mrs. Montgomery Moore with an exquisite bouquet of roses from the government house greenhouse; Mrs. Auttrather-Duccan with an enormous bunch of expatiations and pink roses from the efficers of the Royal Artillery and Engineers. Other lovely flowers were given by

The Badmutson club closed a most successful season Saturday, and will be continued next autumn with many additions to its membership. Surgeot-Colonel and Mrs. MacWatters src, up to date, by far the best players, but some of the new members are now able to give them a bard battle, Major Clements and Miss Wickwire belag noticeably good. The club days will be much missed for the next week it the wet weather cont nues to put tenuls out of the question.

The most brilliant function of last week was the At Home given on Friday evening when Miss At-nie McGray was hostess to over a hundred guests includiog the ladies and gentlemen of this lady's broad acquisintance. As Miss McGray is one of our June brides that is to be, the reception was an adjunct of the weeding proper, and was anticipated by all who were honered with invitations, as they were sure of a peep of at least one handsome gown of the trouseau which would be worn on this occasion as

The married element of the invited crowd were received, and regaled with delicious viands from cient to half past nine, while the younger set were asked to come from the later hour until eleven. The ladies assisting Mrs. McGray and her two daughters, Miss McGray and Miss Winnifred, were Miss Eva Pelton and Mrs. Tupper. does not come so hard, but when, as is inequently the case, the poor woman is suffering from the pains, nervousness, debility and ill-health that are a result of weakness and disease of the distinctly feminine organism, the task is too much.

Under these circumstances, unless the right remedy is used, the poor woman will soon break down completely and fill an early grave. Over 90,000 women have testified to the marvelous merits of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Many of their names, addresses, photographs and experiences have been published by permission in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. The "Favorite Prescription" cures all weakness and disease of the delicate and important organs that bear maternity's burdens. It makes them well and strong. It builds up the nervous system. It makes weak, sickly, nervous, fretful women strong, healthy, amiable wives. All medicine dealers sell it.

"My youngest daughter, Mrs. Julia Raphe, was all run down with nervous prostration and lung trouble," writes Mrs. Julia Ann Gibson, of Nickerson, Reno Co., Kansas. "She took Dr. Pierce's Pavorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery' and was cured."

If you want to read the testimonies and see the photographs of many grateful patients who were cured by Dr. Pierce's remedies send for Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. Besides telling about these cures it tells about the home-treatment of all diseases. Over 300 illustrations. The display of silver is certainly worthy of meation, but a poor memory makes it a forbidden subject. Some very nice pictures and eichings were noticed among the lot; a particularly fine one presented by Miss Clara Caie, and a production from her own brush.

Next on the delichtral programme came the order from those assisting to proceed to the supper room. Here the decorations were pro use and yetextremely dainty. Roses and apple blossoms were in delicate

The students of Kings college, Windsor, will give their annual encoenia ball on Thursday, June 23, in the convocation hall of the college. It is always a very pleasant function, and people will be glad to find that the fire has not caused it to be a missing quartity this year.

Saturday was the cpening day of the season at the Yacht club, which has steadily gained in populiarity as a Saturday atternoon resort, and this preser will be more attractive than ever. A great many ladies take a sincere and keen interest in the racing, and their numbers are increasing, though there are of course many women who merely frequent the club house as they would any other pleasant tea party. But, however you look at it, it is asfe to say that the Yacht club would be more missed in Halifez now than would be any other rallying place of society.

The chaperons are Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Kennedy, and the committee Messirs. Tremaine, Archibald and Clairmonte. The cards are already out, sensibly long invitation enabling people residing it a distance to make their arrangements for attending. The usual conversazione will be held on the previous evening.

The generous sprinkling of men which always adds zest to an aftermoon function, made this especially enjoyable. "Beacon House" never looked more charming or presented a more hospitable appearance than on this occasion. Ar. Baker stood at the main entrance to receive the guests while at the drawing-room door stood Mrs. baker radiantly handsome in brocaded satin en traine, with tea roses.
