MYSTERY ENSHROUDS THIS HAT AND COAT

A deep mystery is puzzling the mind of Mounted Policeman Crawford and others of the force. Yesterday morning while the officer was riding through Mount Pleasant Avenue he found a woman's hat and coat hanging on a tree. The garments had apparently been hanging there all Sunday night as they were saturated with rain, but who the owner may be and how the clothes came to be left hanging on the tree is still a mystery. Easter Sunday was the occasion for many new Easter hats to be worn by women, but this hat is neither new nor designed for Easter. It is a black, well trimmed hat, with a black ribbon band on it, while on one side is a bunch of black feathers. The coat is a long serge with a velvet collar and the pockets are trimmed with velvet.

The policeman left the hat and coat at central station yesterday morning and will call for them when she will ease the minds of the anxious cops.

Purity Convention.

In connection with the Eastern North American tour of the World's Purity Federation a deputation will sail for St. John on April 10th and hold an all day convention. The object of this visit is to assist the local workers in the suppression of the use of alcohol. During the day of the convention special meetings of young women and men will be addressed by the different workers. Coming as it does when determined efforts are being made in this city toward the suppression of vice, the visit will doubtless have a wholesome effect.

GOLD CAUSED SERIOUS TROUBLE

But Dodd's Kidney Pills Brought the Cure.
Mr. Hugh Martin, suffering from Kidney Disease for Two Years, Tells How He Got Back His Health.

St. Hippolyte de Kilkenny, Lake L'Ange, Terrebonne Co., Que., Apr. 8.—(Special.)—Again the people of this neighborhood are talking of a complete cure of kidney disease. Mr. Hugh Martin, Jr., a well-known young farmer, is the person cured, and he gives all the credit to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"My trouble was caused by a cold," Mr. Martin says, in a narrative, "and I suffered for two years. My head ached and I had pains in the back as well. I felt heavy and sleepy all the time. I was often dizzy, my memory was failing and I found it difficult to collect my thoughts. I was also nervous, with heart fluttering added to my anxiety."

"I was a sick man indeed when I started to use Dodd's Kidney Pills, but by the time I had taken two boxes I was a changed man. Are you surprised that I think Dodd's Kidney Pills a wonderful remedy?"

"If you have any or more of Mr. Martin's symptoms your kidneys are diseased. Dodd's Kidney Pills are the sure cure."
