WALSH AND JENNINGS IN TILT

Detroit, May 12.—Ed Walsh and Hughie Jennings have cut each other from their calling lists. A feud between these diamond nobles started

The trouble started when Jennings while coaching on third base, at tempted to disconcert Walsh by using expressions not strictly according to Huxley. He also resorted to personal matters by yelling over the fence, "Walsh, but at the time 'Big Ed' passed it off in a laughing manner. Jennings finally carried things too far and at the end of the sixth inning, when Walsh was about ready to show that he resented what the Tiger manager had applied to him, Manager Callahan, of the White Sox, took a hand by giving Jennings as thorough a calling on a ball field as any manager ever received from a rival leader.

Callahan told Jennings in a nice way that all his cracked and unprintable expressions would do no good. It was plain to see that Jennings, up in the air over the string of defeats suffered by his team, hoped to disconcert Walsh, but the effect was decidedly the opposite for the big fellow went at the slug with a vengeance and made the Tigers look like selling platters.

The two managers kept at their "ragging" match until "Kid" Gleason, who heard what the Tiger leader had said to Walsh, arrived and quieted Jennings.

WAS TROUBLED WITH Headache AND Constipation.

After Suffering For Two Years
Was Cured By
BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS.

Headache of whatever nature is nearly always symptomatic of other diseased conditions, rather than a disease itself, but in most cases a disordered stomach, constipation, or bad circulation is the chief source of the difficulty. Burdock Blood Bitters removes the cause of the trouble through its cleansing, strengthening and tonic action on the stomach, liver, bowels and blood. Mr. Wm. Redmond, Cardigan Bridge, P.E.I., writes: "I have been troubled with headache and constipation for about two years. After trying every doctor I knew, a friend advised me to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I found myself, after using one bottle, getting much better, and after using three bottles I was completely cured."

"After then I was on a visit, and found my cousin very sick, and the doctor told her there was something wrong with her head. I told her to use Burdock Blood Bitters and she was cured in a short time. I can safely recommend it to all."

COOMBS A FAILURE AS A COLT

While it is not generally known, Connie Mack once gave up hope for Jack Coombs, now one of the best in the business. Mack had decided to make a scout of Coombs when the transformation took place.

In the first three of four attempts as a big leaguer, Coombs got along none too well. He lacked control, and when he did get the ball over, he had to ease up and was hit hard. Mack thought of trying to make a spit ball pitcher out of Coombs, but John did not take kindly to the delivery.

Mack was in the throes of reconstruction, and thought Coombs might make an outfielder. He had showed much hitting ability during the few games he pitched. He was used in field and started as a strong clip. Fortunately for both Mack and Coombs his batting average diminished surprisingly. He was given a seat on the bench.

Every day Coombs worked for hours trying to get control. He was finally given another chance, and the rubber and emerged with flying colors. He likewise delivered on his next several appearances. Then came his great twenty-four-inning battle which he won from Boston, working the entire game. Shortly afterward something went wrong with his arm. The cords in his pitching arm had shortened and the best medical attention failed to give relief.

Mack was told Coombs could never pitch another game. Connie outlined a scouting trip, when the big pitcher asked permission to let certain trainer take charge of his case. Connie consented and the almost unknown performed a miraculous cure. Never since has Coombs been troubled with the arm that was pronounced glass, and he is today the "Iron Man."

CYCLERS OLYMPIC TRIALS

Montreal, May 13.—The bicyclists have won their point and will be represented at the Olympic games in spite of the fact that the committee in charge of the Dominion representation plans overlooked their claims in the beginning.

To decide the question, a series of three trials has been slated by the Canadian Wheelmen's Association. The first of these, a 50-mile time trial, was long toward justifying the Olympic committee in ignoring the claim. In the very slow time of 24:36, another test will be held a week from Saturday and a third and final trial on the road from Berlin to Stratford, Ont., June 8. Two men will be chosen on the basis of the time trial, but the mentioned trial, but Canadians are not counting on their bicyclists to bring much glory to the Dominion at Stockholm.

The management of the Canadian amateur boxing championships has been compelled to postpone this meeting, which was originally set for May 10, to May 24 and 25, owing to the fact that the new arena in Toronto, where the affair is to be staged, is not yet completed. This is the same arena which was to have been the home of ice hockey in the Queen city last winter.

The contractors promised to have it finished by the middle of January, but this banking on this promise, the National Hockey Association went ahead in their schedule, only to be disappointed and compelled to rearrange their dates. However, it is hardly likely that the boxing championships will have to be postponed again.

PINKERTON AND NELSON ARE COMING

The management of the Marathons received yesterday from Jack Nelson and Hugh Pinkerton, the contracts binding them to play ball with the local team in the New Brunswick and Maine league, this season. Nelson and Pinkerton will be with the men who arrive on Thursday when the team starts its practice work for the opening of the league season. The practice will be on the Marathons grounds afternoon and evening, and local baseball enthusiasts who wish to see the men work out will be welcomed.

Two policemen in Montreal have been compelled to work an extra hour's duty a day for two weeks because they declined to give up their seats to women who were standing in an electric car.

GETTING RID OF THAT PESKY DOUBLE STEAL THING

The Chicago White Sox are mixing them up offensively and defensively this spring, which is one of the reasons they are making the race in the American league.

The old problem—what to do when runners are on first and third—has been solved by Manager Callahan with a repertoire from which to choose. The result is that when opponents expect one thing the Sox are apt to pull something else, and get by with it.

The Naps had runners on first and third—the only Lajoie being the gent at the last stopping station and the double steal was essayed. The man on first went through with his part and the Sox catcher, having called for a Kid Farmer vs Johnny Kling, Granite City, Ill.

Howard Baker vs Charlie Pierson, Denver.

New York will have a number of bouts, one of them being between Billy Coten and Frankie Burns, the champion and Frankie Burns, the New Jersey bantam.

The fact that Kilbane defeated Attell for the title does not make the sports figure he is any better than he was when he boxed at the Armory. A. A. year ago, he was a year ago.

Howard Baker vs Charlie Pierson, Denver.

While meeting a boxer in the class below him does not preclude a good bout, still the New York promoter must figure Kilbane a good drawing card when he gives him $5,500 for his end and has put the money up.

A boxer who is champion is a card no matter who he boxes, for the followers of the game like to watch him in action. They meet tomorrow night, and they will get the worst end of it as far as credit goes.

Mike Gibbons has a hard match on for tonight when he meets Paddy Lavin in Buffalo. The latter is a clever boxer, and it has been noted about Gibbons that he does not shine as well against a clever boxer as he does against a slugger. Then again, Buffalo is Lavin's home town, and that counts for a lot when it comes to giving credit.

Bill Papke, who is making strenuous efforts to be classed as a come-back, has two bouts on for the week. Thursday night, in New York, he meets Bill Hurley, a rough boxer from Glens Falls and the following night in Philadelphia he takes on Harry Ramsay.

A Sign of Poor Credit.

"What makes you think his credit is good?"

"He called in a doctor to treat him for a stomach ache and the doctor didn't tell him he had appendicitis."

KILBANE IS READY FOR BURNS

New York, May 12.—Johnny Kilbane the new featherweight champion is in town. With the glistering of a ten-karat headlight lighting the way the champion has into sight.

"I never felt better in my life; can beat any man my weight in the world. Am going to start training right away; the misadventure and baby are in grand."

John's visit is due to the fact that he is going to mingle with Frankie Burns next week in a ten-round melee. It will be his first appearance as a slam artist in this part of the country and should be quite a gala affair.

He realizes that Burns is a boy that has to be handled roughly to beat, so the champ is not going to take any chances.

CHANCE TO IMITATE CONNIE MACK

Frank Chance is thinking seriously of donning street clothes and playing the game like Connie Mack does.

The Cub chief was compelled to quit playing by injuries to his head caused by being "beamed" with pitching.

Now he finds that even getting out on the coaching lines, in the sunshine, has a disagreeable effect on his head.

Frank to pass up the playing days after having worn them for so many years. He will have the satisfaction of knowing that the first has long job is being well cared for.

Members of the Cub outfit are tickled at the way Wray's manager has fitted into the infield hole. Artie Hoffman, who played first for a while himself last season, declares Wray is the makings of a big league first baseman and that by next year he will be one of the most valuable assets of the club.

"Look at the way the big fellow hits the ball," enthuses Artie. All he needs is a bit of coaching on ground balls on Evers' side of him and on blocking low throws. Chance can give him this, and when Helme and the others were in their first sacker in either league who will be in his class.

"Zimmerman has the build. He is a tall, rangy youngster, and is fast enough to cover a lot of territory."

WINNIPEG WILL NOT BE REPRESENTED

Winnipeg, May 13.—The Winnipeg Rowing Club will not be represented at Henley or the Olympic regatta this year.

The members of the eight oared crew have been in training for some time for the trip, but as some of the crew were unable to get away from business, the committee had to call off the trip.

DODGERS COST $75,000.

The Brooklyn club's salary list is said to exceed $50,000 and the expenses will amount to $25,000 more, all of which will be covered before midseason if the team can stay in the race.

Baseball sharpshooters know something about the business end of the same say that every major league club will make money this year, and that a profit will be shown by a large majority of the minors, too.

DICK ARNST IN ENGLAND TO RACE BARRY

The arrival in England of Richard Arnst, the world's champion sculler, has revived interest in his race with Ernest Barry, champion of England.

Arnst is accompanied by his very attractive wife, and was in high spirits when he reached London.

He brought his new racing shell, built by George Towns, the ex-champion. The boat is 25 feet 6 inches long, 12 1/2 inches beam and weighs 28 lbs., with all the fittings. He also brought the sculls he will use in all his races.

He will use a pair of English made sculls for practice.

Speaking of the long journey to England, he said: "If I were single I should never have taken the trip, but being a married man, I came just to let my wife see a bit of the world. I also realize that in coming I am conceding a lot to Barry in giving him a chance to try again for the title, and as the $2500 I demanded for expenses was not too much."

"I am not disappointed because the articles have not been signed, and rather expected that they would not be locked up tight before my arrival. I asked the sum of $3750 for my expenses, and as I reduced the demand to $2500, I shall therefore look for half of the steamboat money, which is a considerable sum. I am informed, Sam Holden, of Sydney, is my principal backer, and he is now on his way to England."

"I regard my race on the Zambesi River, South Africa, with Barry, as the hardest contest of my career, although Pearce was harder at the beginning of the race, but once I caught him I had only to stay there and he went back rapidly."

"As to my future plans, I may secure a good place as coach and I may go to Toronto and row Eddie Duran, with whom I have had considerable correspondence. At all events I shall return by way of America."

Arnst will train A. J. McCulloch, of the Leander Club for the Diamond Sculls at Henley. While on the river one day the champion saw Barry sculling on the Thames and shouted greetings to his rival. Barry is coaching W. D. Kinneir, who may represent England at the Stockholm regatta. McCulloch, who is Australian born, won the sculls in 1908 when he was trained by Bossey Phelps, who is now fitting E. D. P. Pinks.

HI LADD QUILTS GAME.

Hartford, May 13.—It is with much regret that Nutmeg League baseball players take the announcement of the retirement of Hi Ladd. "The East Greenwich, R. I., veteran feels himself slipping and hints that old age is the cause of it all. Sporting writers around the circuit speak of Hi as being around the half-century mark. This is not so. Ladd was born in the borough of Williamantic on February 8, 1870.

Some of Wray's friends suspect that Duran is negotiating for a race with Dick Arnst and aims to be ready to default Wray's match by paying forfeit, as the Arnst-Duran race would bring a much larger gate. Duran and Wray's match by the name of himself would be too soon after his race with Haines, although in his first letter he stated his willingness to race Wray within a week of the Haines match, on July 10.

It would appear to be wise for George Lee, Wray's backer, to instruct the Globe to direct the challenge to Richard Arnst and let the Duran match fall.

MORAN TO MEET WHITE

Syracuse, May 13.—Owen Moran, the English heavyweight, and Charlie White, the sensational Chicago feather who has made so many friends in Syracuse by his wonderful showing in his recent fight with Johnny Dundee, are at last matched and will meet before the Syracuse club on Monday May 20. "White and his manager held out for 125 ring-side, but the local club was able to show them that they had verbally agreed to 125 at six when in Syracuse and the match was made at this weight with much reluctance by the Chicago fighter, who knows full well the class of his opponent."

TRUBLE IN THE DURAN WRAY RACE

Eddie Duran has wired that he would rather not race James Wray, the Harvard coach, on July 24, which date Wray named, and the 18th was substituted. Wray merely remarked: "Make it for the 18th," and a telegram was sent to Duran to that effect. Now Duran writes that he wants to row the race on the original date set by Wray instead of the 18th, which has the advantage of being an open date, while the 24th has the counter attraction of a ball game between Providence and Toronto. The steamers carrying the people across to the ball game will not give the carmen a guarantee on that day, as the Haines-Duran race. This in itself is believed to be ample justification for Wray to withdraw his deposit money.

Some of Wray's friends suspect that Duran is negotiating for a race with Dick Arnst and aims to be ready to default Wray's match by paying forfeit, as the Arnst-Duran race would bring a much larger gate. Duran and Wray's match by the name of himself would be too soon after his race with Haines, although in his first letter he stated his willingness to race Wray within a week of the Haines match, on July 10.

Its Wonderful Power in Curing Cattle and Colicky Horses Make "Nerviline" Worth Its Weight in Gold.

The stockman or farmer that doesn't know of the thousand and one uses of "Nerviline" around the stable, has a great deal to learn. "Why, I wouldn't think of locking my stable door at night without knowing I had a supply of 'Nerviline' on hand. I always get a dozen bottles at a time from my druggist."

To cure colic, in a horse or cow there is a remedy on earth in the same class as "Nerviline." Last summer I had a $250 horse that got digestion and bad stomach and I had to give him Nerviline. I poured a full bottle of Nerviline in a pint of water down his throat and saved his life. I know of neighbors who have saved many heads of valuable stock, stricken with colic, just by using Nerviline. It is equally good as a rub-on liniment, and I know from my experience that for man or beast, internally or externally, "Nerviline" is worth a dollar a drop."
