ANOTHER WAR FREAK.
 A Briton has invented a fabric to be worn as a mantle or cloak for covering soldiers and rendering them invisible to the enemy. The new fabric will, it is claimed, make the business of the crawling sniper comparatively safe. The garment is one of living grass. A piece of silk thickly sowed with seeds is well watered. The seeds sprout as grass and grow rapidly. A garment of this kind can be grown from flaxseed, oats or other seeds, and if the foundation is good it will hold together fairly well with careful handling.—Indianapolis News.

Absolute Cleanliness

 In the manufacture of Red Ball Ale and Porter absolute cleanliness is observed. A force of men are employed whose only duty is to scrub and scour the rooms and vessels in which the process of brewing is carried on. We pride ourselves on the condition in which our premises are kept, and insist on perfect cleanliness as the first requisite of our business.

no headway towards recovery. He was forever talking about his "bonnie Scotland," and the idea occurred to the doctor that a Scotch piper might arouse his spirits. After some hunting around a piper was found, and it was arranged that he should present himself outside the hospital that night and pour forth all the gems of Scottish music the pipes were capable of interpreting. This he did. When the astute doctor turned up the next morning he eagerly asked the matron:
 "Did the piper turn up?"
 "He did," replied the matron.
