GRAND TRUNK STATION

Employes Will Get From Five

Ottawa, May 31—The board of con-ciliation appointed by the minister of labor on April 19, to enquire into the dispute between the Grand Trunk Rail-way system and its railroad station-men, has submitted its report to the minister. The members of the board were successful in adjusting the differences and agreed upon a new scale of wages which will remain in force for one year.

Increases ranging from 20 per cent will be given those employes receiving from $25 to $50 a month. 5 per cent for those receiving over $100 a month, were recommended. For employes paid on a daily basis, increases ranging from fifteen to thirty cents a day were recommended.

The increases, says the report, are to be on a basis of wages paid in January 1918, but are understood not to decrease any man granted an increase since that date.

HOW FOCH WILL WIN THE VICTORY

In the whole history of war, as one journal remarks, one can find no individual responsibility equal to that of Gen. Ferdinand Foch, "called to the head of six mililons of soldier; to achieve victory for human liberty and civilization." Four great nations have unreservedly entrusted their armies and their destinies to this French general. More than six millions, in fact, may be under his supreme command, for the Italian Premier says that the Allied conference "recognized a united front from the North Sea to the Adriatic as an effective reality;" and some estimates place the Allied troops in France and Belgium alone at not less than six million. What, ask our military critics of the press, is the plan of this der in whose genius the Allied nations have such faith?

It is to answer this question that the leading article in THE LITERARY DIGEST for June 1st has been prepared. The article includes the opinions of the war experts and presents all available in-

"The Digest" Prevents a One-Angled View

These are anxious days in Flanders and Northern France ish are making against heavy odds may be perhaps the least bit fearful of the outcome. But this is only a partial view after all. What we should do is to survey the Allied lines as a whole—French, American, Italian, and English—and then we realize at once that the pressure at the North is only a part of the great struggle, and that Southward hope and help are still to be had in generous measure. So, too, the reading of but one morning or evening paper gives only a mere partial view of this great world-crisis. What is needed is a reasoned analysis of the whole situation, drawn from all possible sources, and quoting the views of many periodicals. This you have every week in THE LITERARY DIGEST, the greatest of news-magazines. Buy a copy and be convinced.
