

USED ANKLES TO VAMP NEIGHBOR IS THE CHARGE

Plaintiff Says Heart Balm Defendant Wore Skirts to Knees.

SILK STOCKINGS WERE ATTRACTIVE

Wife's Right to Sue for Alienation While Living With Husband Questioned.

Pottsville, Pa., March 23.—The alienation and proprietary of modern dresses of women largely furnished the basis of the suit of Mrs. Joseph Kurts, of Mahanoy City, against her neighbor, Mrs. Margaret Stankiewicz, in Judge Berger's court today.

Dresses To Knees.

Witnesses testified that Mrs. Stankiewicz wore dresses up to her knees or slightly above her knees, that she walked in the presence of Kurts dressed only in a kimono, and that her silk stockings, worn with the short dresses, were of a most attractive kind.

How Not To Dance.

The propriety of men holding women tightly while dancing also came up for discussion. Attorney Knitits said he enjoyed that manner of dancing, and believed all men did.

New York Likely To Control Jazz

Bill Will Give City Entire Charge of All Public Dance Halls.

New York, March 31.—Dancing in all of Broadway's jazz palaces, as well as in the dingiest hall in the old Bowery district, is to be brought under municipal control, if Gov. Miller signs a bill which passed the Assembly today and now lies on his desk.

The Commissioner of Licenses in New York is to be dictator of dancing. He can decide whether the shimmy is unimposed; just what kind of fox trot or turtle slide young girls may dance in public without interfering their morals and how late the youth and graybeard of the metropolis may dance at night without risking their health.

The new law provides that no public dance or ball may be held unless a permit is obtained from the Commissioner. A fee of $2 shall be paid for such permits and a permit may be revoked by the Commissioner any time it appears that the dance or ball is not being conducted in accordance with the rules and regulations of the law.

Attorney M. J. Ryan, counsel for the plaintiff, declared the question of women's short dresses was one of the point of view. He charged Mrs. Stankiewicz with appearing in Kurts's vision with a dress above her knees, while Kurts was lying on his back, regarding an automobile. Mrs. Stankiewicz was also alleged to have hugged Kurts and putting her hands up his back, tickled him.

MORE ARRESTS IN SMALL CASE

Sensational Developments Are Expected in Mysterious Disappearance Soon.

Toronto, March 31.—Since the termination of the Doughty trial the crown has been delving further into the case from every point of view with the idea of leaving no stone unturned to set at rest once and for all the Small mystery. It was learned yesterday that within a very short time some additional arrests are likely to be made—arrests which may cause a certain amount of sensation. If the authorities proceed with their contemplated plan and put behind the bars certain people who may have some knowledge of Mr. Small's fate, there is likely to be a very sensational development to the whole story.

VESSEL IN MUD

Chatham, Mass., March 31.—Efforts of the coast guard cutter Acowabnet to float the British freighter Gaelic Prince, which ran aground on Great Round shoal at the mouth of Vineyard sound today were without avail tonight. The vessel it was said, had run her nose deeper in the mud than was apparent at first, but it was expected that she could be pulled clean tomorrow. She was bound from Boston to New York.

FEW LOBSTERS CAUGHT

Bath, April 1.—Because of the slump in the lobster market, the fishermen off the Sagadahoc county coast are paying very little attention to them, but are devoting their entire time to catching fish. The price paid the lobster catchers by the smacks has dropped to 15 cents a pound, and lobstermen say that there is not enough money at this price to make it an object for them to catch these popular crustaceans. The lobstermen say that with the cost of traps, the cost of gasoline to run their boats and the dangers entailed they must have more than 18 cents a pound for them or they will quit. The break in the market has been caused largely by the great influx of Nova Scotia lobsters in the metropolitan markets during the Lenten period.
