

From DIGBY the Rev. W. Bullock has forwarded the sum of £24; a large increase upon the remittance of last year.

From GUYSBOROUGH has been forwarded by the Rev. C. J. Shreve through the hands of J. J. Marshall, Esq. M. P. P., the sum of £12 16s. 3d.

From GRANVILLE the Rev. J. M. Campbell has remitted the sum of £15, an amount whose increase over former years is a gratifying evidence that Churchmen are gradually awakening to a sense of their responsibility to do more than they have hitherto done.

From LIVERPOOL, the Rev. J. T. T. Moody has forwarded the handsome sum of £30: a good evidence of increased interest on the part of his people in the welfare of the Society.

From LUNENBURG, the Rev. J. C. Cochran has paid in the increased amount of £26 10s.;—and communicated the addition of forty new names to the list of his Local Committee.

From MAHONE BAY the sum of £8 0s. 7d. was received in March last, forming part of the contributions of last year; the Rev. P. Filleul has now forwarded the sum of £10, as part of the contributions of the present season.

From NEW DUBLIN, the Rev. E. E. B. Nicholls, who has been for a few weeks in charge of that parish, in consequence of the illness of the Rev. J. W. Weeks, has handed in the sum, including Mr. Weeks' subscription, of £12.

From NEWPORT the Rev. R. J. Uniacke has forwarded the sum of £10 17s.

From PARRSBOROUGH the Rev. W. H. Cooper, who has succeeded the Rev. R. Arnold in the temporary charge of that Mission, has forwarded the sum of £6 12s.

From PICTOU, where a Committee was formed last year, a first contribution has been handed in of £10 2s. 1d.

From PUGWASH, the Rev. G. Townshend has forwarded a first contribution of £2 6s. 3d.

From RAWDON the Rev. T. Maynard has remitted the sum of £6 7s. 3d., and from DOUGLAS in the same Mission the sum of £6 12s. 3d., and accompanies the remittances with the gratifying expression of his earnest prayer that the mite thus cast into the Lord's Treasury may be owned and blessed by Him.

From SACKVILLE, the Rev. A. Gray has handed in the sum of £11 3s. 9d., manifesting a small but steady increase in the contributions of that Committee.

From SHELburne, the Rev. T. H. White has forwarded the largely increased amount of £20. This amount has also been augmented by the donation of £10 from the Rev. Dr. Rowland, who accompanies the donation with an expression of gratitude to God, that, on the day of the date of his gift, fifty years had elapsed since his entrance upon the ministry of the Church.
