The sixteen branches of the L. D. A. of N. B. are giving encouraging signs of life usefulness. We would thank them for cordial co-operation and support and bespeak the continuance of the same.

There have not been very many serious encroachments on the Sabbath rest in N. B. during the past year, in the way of industry, the most notable being bridge building at Newcastle and vessel loading and repairing and fitting at Sand Point, St. John. The former was promptly stopped by a warning from the attorney-general at the request of our Newcastle branch; the latter remains to be dealt with in the coming winter. Much unnecessary traffic on the C. P. R. and I. C. R. is carried on, against which we would enter our protest.

Since our last convention the Ontario Supreme Court has given judgment, uphold-

Whereas this convention of the Lord's Day Alliance of New Brunswick has received and considered the resolution sent us by the officers of the Trades and Labor Council of St. John as having been unanimously adopted at a mass meeting of working men held last evening, viz:—
"Resolved that we would call the attention of the reverend gentlemen who have addressed us tonight, and others associated with them in the L. D. A., to the immense amount of work, much of it unnecessary, that has been carried on in past winters, and invite their careful attention to the same in the hope that they will devise means to prevent its continuance, so that the long; shoremen may have the opportunity like others, to enjoy Sunday privileges."

Therefore, resolved that we agree to take whatever steps ... my be necessary toward securing respect or the Christian Sabbath, and for the law of this province, and meantime would express the earnest hope that the shippers will agree without compulsion to respect alike the Sunday law and the rights of their employes; and we would refer this matter to the sub-executive for such further consideration and action as it may deem wise and necessary.

However, the doctor's real pumpose soon became apparent to the people of Albert, and he was a candidate for parliament, was elected and became a joint in the Foster tail. At a later date the doctor was turned down in that constituency, and his summer home is no longer located in Albert, but in Hants county (N. S.), where it is supposed there may soon be a parliamentary vacancy by the elevation of Doctor Russell to the supreme court bench. Perhaps Doctor Weldon's purchase in the county has nothing to do with his political ambitions, and then again, perhaps it has. The incident, however, shows that he has abandoned New Brunswick as a means of gratifying his thirst for public a means of gratifying his thirst for publi-life.—Fredericton Herald.
