Mr. Thomas Robertson, who has been lying ill with meningitis for some time at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Campbell, is now rapidly improving in health and will shortly be about again.

Mrs. Willis Elder and Master Andrew McManus, of Hampton Village, went to Boston, on Saturday last.

Alderman H. H. Pickett, St. John, went out to St. Martins on Saturday and returned to Hampton on Monday, where he spent a portion of the day, before returning home.

Mrs. John Coughlan and her two daughters, of St. John, who have been guests of Mrs. Barney Brennan, went to the city on Friday, but this week are again enjoying the health-giving breezes of the heights of Hampton Station.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Carvill, Sussex, came up from St. John on Saturday and were welcomed by friends during a stopover.

Mrs. J. Newton Smith, St. John, was here visiting her daughters, on Saturday and spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. George A. Freeze, Riverview.

The Rev. J. C. Robertson, general secretary of the Presbyterian Sunday schools for Canada, has been visiting his brother, W. H. Robertson, and on Friday, accompanied by Miss Mary Robertson went to Titusville to visit friends in his old home. On Sunday he filled preaching engagements at Salina and Titusville, where he was joined by other members of the Hampton branch of the family.

Miss Phoebe Robertson, up to the close of last school term a valued teacher in the Hampton Consolidated School, left by C. P. R. train for Oakland, California, where an important position in the high school awaits her.

Mrs. W. Camp, Lakeside road, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Long, Fairville.

Mr. Walter S. Fowler, of the railway commission staff, of Ottawa, Mrs. Fowler and their infant child, arrived here on Saturday last, on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Fowler.

The Hampton Tennis Club held a friendly tournament on their three courts grounds on Saturday afternoon and evening adjourning from six to seven o'clock to take tea at the home of Mrs. F. A. Young, who with Miss M. A. Stewart acted as hostess.

Miss Flossie Peters and her niece, Miss Ruth Humphrey, are enjoying a week's outing at St. Martins. Master Douglas Humphrey is visiting his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Humphrey, at Onenette.

Miss Dorothy Camp is visiting friends at Moncton.

The Rev. Lindsay Parker and Mrs. Parker, who are spending the summer yachting on the River St. John and its tributaries, drove to Hampton on Saturday afternoon and put up at Heath Hall. In the evening they were guests of honor at an improvised musicale at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. March, on Railway avenue, where a few very pleasant hours were spent with new-found friends.
