VICTORY IN SIGHT

After today comes the last week of the campaign. The week closing has been of great advantage to the Liberal party, not only in St. John but throughout the province. This liberal gain in popular estimation has been due very largely to the conduct of the Conservative leaders in St. John in associating themselves with the vile conspiracy against the Minister of Public Works.

The truth about Mayes and his confederates soon came out. It has been told plainly and with damning effect. Witnesses have testified against the contractor, and each of the witnesses has been a citizen of solid worth and position whose word is as good as his bond. Mr. Percy W. Thomson's affidavit, which was made public yesterday, is the final blow to Mayes. It is a complete and exact corroboration of the declarations previously printed. Together they are of unanswerable force. Indeed they suggest the propriety of immediate criminal proceedings.

The Mayes business will increase the Liberal majorities in St. John.

To turn to more pleasant features of the campaign, there is no doubt about the good effect of the solid speeches delivered by Hon. Mr. Pugsley, Mr. Pender and their lieutenants during the last few days. The voters see the difference between these men and their opponents. They know what Dr. Pugsley has done for St. John and what he and Mr. Pender will do in the future. Last evening Hon. Mr. Pugsley had much to say of the Greater St. John which he hopes to assist in building up. In every quarter he and Mr. Pender have had a magnificent reception. Of their victory there can now be no doubt.

From the province generally the news indicates a splendid Liberal victory. The Liberals have carried on an aggressive campaign in every county. The retirement of the first opponent of Mr. Michael in Victoria Madawaska is equivalent to Mr. Michael's election. The Liberals will carry all the North Shore seats easily. There never was any doubt about Westmorland. In York and Charlotte the Conservatives still pretend to be hopeful, but their chances even in these counties appear to be slim. In all the other Liberal victory seems assured.

New Brunswick is going to support Laurier and Progress.

"PREMIER HAZEN ON TRIAL"

Under this caption the Toronto Globe addresses a few pointed remarks to Hon. J. D. Hazen because of his conduct in making common cause with Mayes in an attempt to destroy the character of Hon. Mr. Pugsley. The Toronto Globe, the foremost journal in Canada, says editorially: "When one public man ventures to bring serious charges of wrongdoing against another he must accept full responsibility for what he does, no matter how unpleasant may be the impending consequences. Premier Hazen of New Brunswick has chosen to impeach in the most public manner Dr. Pugsley, the Minister of Public Works at Ottawa; he will now be expected either to substantiate his accusations or admit that he was not justified in publishing them. He cannot plead that there was any difficulty in finding out whether the charges were true or false; Dr. Pugsley was in St. John at the time, and Mr. Hazen could easily have notified him of what he intended to do. Had he taken this course he would not have published the accusations as they were formulated for his use; perhaps he would never have published them at all.

The charges were made at a public meeting on Monday night, and they created a great sensation, not merely in St. John, where Dr. Pugsley is a candidate for re-election, but all over the Dominion. On Tuesday night he put before the public at a similar meeting his defence. So far as it goes it seems to be complete and irrefragable, and it certainly has had the effect of putting Mr. Hazen on his trial. Some of his charges are unquestionably erroneous, and it is only fair at this stage to assume that the others are equally so. Of course there will be further revelations, for which the public can now afford to wait with composure. "This episode at St. John may be regarded as a fitting culmination of the campaign of slander that has been waged so generally and so persistently against the Government. When a self-confessed grafter put in the form of an affidavit a string of accusations against the Minister of Public Works the temptation to make a theatrical use of them proved too strong for Premier Hazen, and he is now faced with the necessity of either convicting Dr. Pugsley of infamous practices in the administration of his department or admitting that he published baseless accusations. For the position in which he finds himself he is entirely to blame. The contest in St. John did not involve his personal or party interests in the Legislative Assembly of New Brunswick. He was under no obligation to interfere, and when he resolved to do so he should have been careful to avoid all appearance of slander. Retribution was not long in overtaking him after his offence against propriety and decency was committed."

QUITE REGULAR

Mayes' dredging contract was awarded in open competition, quite in accordance with the proper and customary procedure of the Department of Public Works. Attempts have been made to show that Mayes would not have had the contract except for "influence" exerted on his behalf. Mayes himself has asserted, falsely, that he was the only tenderer. There were two tenderers. Mayes was the lower, and he therefore got the work.

Hon. Mr. Pugsley, in his speech in Victoria ward Friday, made this feature of the case clear. The Minister had received the records of the case from the Department of Public Works, and these constitute a complete refutation of the charges and insinuations against the action of the department in Hon. Mr. Pugsley's time, when Mayes got the contract.

In the first instance, when tenders were first called for, Mayes and a Western firm tendered, but as the work was to be given for dredges of Canadian register only, and as Mayes' tender was much lower than the other, it was decided finally to drop the clause about Canadian registered dredges and call for new bids. When tenders were thus again called for, Mayes and Haney & Miller put in tenders. Mayes' prices were higher for rock but much lower for soft digging, and as the greater part of the work was soft digging Mayes' tender was much the lower, and he secured the job—at 65 cents.

In their desire to make political capital at any cost, several speakers and newspapers have accepted Mayes' own statement of this matter as true. The records of the department show his statement was untrue. The contract was awarded in a regular and proper manner. The only reason Mayes got the job was because his price was the lowest. As for his own statement of these matters, the community has seen that Mayes is condemned as unworthy of belief by Hon. Mr. Pugsley, Hon. C. J. Osman, and Messrs. John E. Moore, George McAvity, Percy W. Thomson, F. W. Holt, and others.

Mayes is utterly discredited. And the Conservative party bosses who embraced his vile assistance have made a blunder they will long remember with shame and regret.

MAKE THE MAJORITIES BIG

The electors of St. John, city and county, have now had an opportunity to compare Hon. William Pugsley and Mr. Pender with Doctors Daniel and MacRae, to hear the opposing candidates speak, and to consider what both parties propose to do for the people and for the country. The Liberal candidates represent a party whose work for Canada as a whole far exceeds that done during any previous period of our history. The Liberal candidates, whose party is certain to triumph next Monday throughout the Dominion, ask for an opportunity to go on with the work of developing this port and this province. Their programme is solid; their ability to carry it out is unquestioned.

Ten days ago the campaign here had developed to issue so important as the progress of the city and the province, and it was clear to all that the Conservative standard bearers could do nothing to contribute to that progress, but that, on the other hand, their success would mean that St. John must lose step at the very turning point of its career. Even ten days ago, therefore, the issue was not in doubt; Liberal victory in the St. John constituencies was confidently expected. And then the Mayes conspiracy was made public. The net result of that conspiracy, now that the facts are known to all, will be to increase the majorities given to Hon. Mr. Pugsley and his colleague, Mr. Pender. On another page this morning The Telegraph prints a summary of the evidence against Mayes. The evidence thus summarized has left no doubt among fair-minded men as to the falsity of the charges made against the Minister of Public Works. In every quarter there is approval of his courage in resisting blackmail and exposing conspiracy.

The community has a duty before it. By emphatic majorities for Messrs. Pugsley and Pender the people should punish the Conservative party leaders who made common cause with Mayes. Premier Hazen lent Mayes the sanction of his support and thus the Conservative party became a party to the charges—although it was known that they were based upon false evidence which could not outlive twenty-four hours of publicity.

Mr. Hazen has not yet repudiated Mayes or apologized for his connection with the matter. The electors of these constituencies will express their condemnation of such tactics next Monday. They will then have an opportunity to serve St. John by electing two supporters of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and to punish the opposition, whose leaders trafficked with Mayes. Be sure the verdict for the Liberal candidates and against their opponents will be a sweeping one. St. John will make the majorities big.

THE JUNIOR CONSERVATIVE CANDIDATE

Has anyone yet discovered any solid reason why the city and county should reject the Minister of Public Works in order to make room at Ottawa for Dr. A. W. MacRae?

Baldly stated, the proposal that the electors of the great constituency should exchange Hon. Mr. Pugsley, one of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's conspicuous lieutenants, for Dr. MacRae, is ridiculous. Dr. MacRae's Conservative friends, Mr. Powell among them, knew very well what they were doing to the young gentleman when they fondly placed the party standard in his eager hand and set him in the fore front of the battle. They bade him go in and win, and they grinned as they did it. For well they knew that when the tumult and the shouting had subsided on October 26, Dr. MacRae would give them no more trouble. That there is this feeling toward the Conservative candidate is well known. It springs from many causes. It is no secret. It led Mr. Powell, at the very outset of the active campaigning, to crystallize the undercurrent of sentiment in a single word—"Serpent." There are moments when Mr. Powell is given to jocosity. This was not one of them. He meant what he said, and his reasons for saying it were widely recognized in the Conservative party.

Dr. MacRae is a blatant orator, fond of oblique appeal to prejudice, careless of facts, ready in political matters to distort the truth beyond recognition. His principal stock-in-trade has been abuse of the Minister of Public Works. Now the Minister became a candidate for the Commons here at the solicitation of nearly 3,000 electors, representing all parties, men who were anxious to see Ottawa a representative of ability, force, and prestige, who would be a credit to his constituents and who would be able to secure the speedy and adequate development of the port of St. John. Hon. Mr. Pugsley, a representative of the present representative of the sole control of the roads, is it any wonder, Mr. Hazen, that the members of the present opposition declared so strongly in the legislature against your sham reform in this regard?

Is it any wonder that Mr. McKeown asked if the government insisted that they must appoint a man on each of this highway boards to prevent the municipal council from running away with the money?

Is it surprising that such a defender of the people's rights as Mr. Lowell should be declaring against the Hazen "reform" as follows. (See official report.) "Mr. Lowell said the premier expressed his willingness to give to the County of St. John more control over the highways than they possess at the present time, but instead of doing so the bill was taking away the rights they had enjoyed for thirty years. The premier went to the county to pledge to give the municipalities the sole control of the roads. Instead of doing so he was creating a board of appointed officials who were not wholly appointed by the municipalities. He had always been opposed to any change in the law which should take control of the roads in the County of St. John out of the control of the municipalities, and the Honorable Mr. Maxwell stood on the same platform with him and agreed to the same thing. The additional expense of $800 and there was no occasion for anything of the kind. Mr. Lowell stated that under section 4 it would be possible for the government to appoint 147 paid officials, and under section 80 as many as they choose without restriction of number even to the extent of 500. Mr. Lowell said that nothing would justify raising the taxes from $60,000 to $120,000, and the government had no right whatever to take away the rights of the municipalities to assess their own taxes, and he wished to place himself on record that he was voting against the motion because it was taking away the rights of the people of the County of St. John."

So that the people of the province may see at a glance what your two-price road law means, Mr. Hazen, I shall use from the Fredericton Herald this very correct comparison of cost:—

Highway Act 1904	Hazen Act 1908
Poll tax.....$1.00	Poll tax.....$2.00
Property tax per $100......12	Property tax per $100......20
A man with 800 of property.....1.80	A man with 800 of property.....3.00

Inasmuch, Mr. Premier, as that you are the strongest personality on your side of federal politics in this province it is not unreasonable that you should be taking an active part in this Dominion campaign. But, as you are on record as having appealed to Liberals as well as Conservatives for support in the provincial fight, and also, on election night, as giving thousands of Liberals credit for having supported you to conduct yourself with decency in the present campaign. Are you doing so? Why not tell the people that you have been a sham reformer, a political humbug and a fraud, and that you have used your own hypocrisy to have thought proud to lend yourself to a campaign of slander and misrepresentation?

In another communication I shall endeavor, Mr. Hazen, to examine your record as a friend (?) of the working classes in whom you once again appeal to be so much interested.

I am, my dear Mr. Premier, Yours very truly, MICHAEL McDADE.

NOMINATION DAY

New Brunswick should give the Liberals thirteen seats next Monday—a solid delegation such as Nova Scotia sent to Ottawa in 1904—and it is quite possible. Certainly in all instances the province on nomination day, when the campaign is practically over, must convince the observer that the Conservatives are to meet a veritable Waterloo on October 26.

The Telegraph presents this morning a somewhat extended report of the nomination day proceedings in the several counties, showing with what fine and significant enthusiasm the electors greeted the Liberal candidates. Reports from these counties sent to The Telegraph from day to day tell of effective organization and active and energetic work by fairly in the face, knows this charge was damnable; those who made it bore false witness; that those who have tried to reap political profit through it are accessories after the fact and apologists for blackmailing methods. The electors are likely to be more outspoken than some of the clergymen. The voters know the facts, and they will not hesitate to punish conspiracy at the poll next Monday.

QUESTIONS FOR PREMIER HAZEN

As if Premier Hazen were not in hot water enough because of his connection with the Mayes business, further complications are confronting him in the form of some pointed questions from Mr. Michael McDade. In an open letter addressed to Mr. Hazen yesterday, Mr. McDade, of the hour is wide and whose pen is formidable, indicts the Premier for failure to keep his pledges and for extensive and deliberate deception of the people. Mr. McDade's letter is, in part, as follows:—

Did you not just on the eve of the last provincial elections, promise "the repeal of the present Highway Act and the enactment of a law which, while not diminishing the amount of provincial money given to the roads, SHALL VEST THE MANAGEMENT AND THE APPOINTMENT OF ALL OFFICIALS IN THE COUNTY COUNCILS?"

How have you carried out that promise to the people of the province? By passing an act which does not give one little of power to the county councils—by creating a highway board at great expense to the people—by taking a long step towards undoing the whole cost of the roads and bridges upon the people of the different counties. Is it any wonder, Mr. Hazen, that the members of the present opposition declared so strongly in the legislature against your sham reform in this regard?

Is it any wonder that Mr. McKeown asked if the government insisted that they must appoint a man on each of this highway boards to prevent the municipal council from running away with the money? Is it surprising that such a defender of the people's rights as Mr. Lowell should be declaring against the Hazen "reform" as follows. (See official report.) LAURIER WILL FINISH HIS WORK

News from all over the Dominion concerning the nomination day proceedings fully confirms previous reports indicating a sweeping victory for Sir Wilfrid Laurier. He had a majority of sixty-six in the last House, and nowhere is there any indication that this great margin will be reduced. On the other hand the outlook in Ontario is better than it was in 1904, and the West as a whole will return more Liberals than it did four years ago. In Quebec the break long and loudly predicted by the Conservatives for campaign purposes has not materialized, and close observers say Mr. Borden will not have more than ten supporters from that big province.

The Maritime Provinces will give Sir Wilfrid more supporters than they did four years ago. Indeed, of the thirty-five Maritime seats, the Conservatives cannot count upon half a dozen with safety. In New Brunswick the Liberals will sweep the board practically clear. In Nova Scotia there was only one Conservative constituency up to nomination—Colchester—and the Liberals confidently expect to hold it after next Monday. In Prince Edward Island the common forecast is the friends of progressive government. There seems to be, throughout the province, a settled belief that the Conservative cause is hopeless, and deservedly so, whereas the Liberals have a record of which the whole country is proud and have presented excellent candidates who, when elected, may be relied upon to assist in carrying out the great work of nation-building which Sir Wilfrid and his followers have begun.

New Brunswick will give the government a victory to be remembered. In the old House the Liberals held eight New Brunswick seats and the Conservatives five. As Messrs. Pugsley and Pender are both going to Ottawa and no Liberal seat is seriously threatened, the hopes of New Brunswick Conservatives are confined to York, Charlotte, Kings-Albert, and Queens-Sunbury—four seats. It seems safe now to predict with confidence the defeat of both Mr. Wilmet and Mr. Fowler by Colonel McLean and Dr. McAlister, and in Charlotte and York Mr. Ganong and Mr. Crockett are very near political disaster. Mr. Todd's friends and supporters believe he will be elected by a comfortable margin, and they know what they are talking about. York County has welcomed Mr. Brown with enthusiasm, and if the last reports from that quarter are accurate the small majority Mr. Crockett had in 1904 will be turned against him next Monday.

No one needs to be reminded of the fact that elections are uncertain, but today no good judge of the situation can point to a single New Brunswick constituency and say with truth that the Conservatives are likely to carry it. In scarcely any county have they even a fighting chance.

DR. PUGSLEY WAS READY

In their panic over coming defeat, the Conservative party managers are becoming childish. Monday, by agreement, it was decided to omit the nomination speeches at the Court House. There is no accommodation in that building for a great crowd of electors, and, indeed, for some years past there has been talk of the wisdom of dropping the speech-making feature of nomination day. It was dropped Monday by agreement, and the public will be content.

Some Conservatives who do not know how quickly a foolish falsehood injures those who tell it, started a report Monday that Hon. Mr. Pugsley was responsible for the omission of the speeches—that he had requested his opponents to cut out this feature. As a matter of fact, Mr. A. P. Barnhill telephoned to Dr. Pugsley, saying that Dr. Daniel thought it would be well to have no speeches. Dr. Pugsley, in reply, said he was quite ready to speak, or to refrain from speaking. Either plan would suit him. He would abide by any arrangement that might be agreed to.

The Conservative party is utterly pointless and untrue. Dr. Pugsley had there been any speeches, would have given St. John much good news about the progress of plans and enterprises for the development of the city and the province. The Conservatives were very glad of an opportunity to avoid contrasting their negative policy with what the Minister has done and is doing for his constituency. Besides, they know that the Mayes business would be likely to call for open condemnation by those present at a meeting representing Independents and Liberals as well as partisan Conservatives.

The story that Dr. Pugsley wished to avoid the hustings is almost as senseless as the previous yarn to the effect that he was going to resign. He is going back to Ottawa with a routing majority as Minister of Public Works, and St. John will find in him the most valuable representative it ever had in Parliament.

KEEP THE PREFERENCE

"The British preference has done three things: First of all, it has given, especially to the farmers, a substantial measure of relief from taxation. Next, it has opened the British markets to our productions. You will say the British market was open to us before, and it is true; but there is such a thing as sentiment even in trade. And when the British public saw the attitude of the Canadian people they opened the door wider. There was another thing. It is an inspiration, an example for the whole British Empire, of which we are a part. It has been accepted in New Zealand, by Australia, and even accepted by South Africa. It has been accepted by the Transvaal, which only seven years ago was desolated by the Boers who were then at war with the British army, and there is a preference given today by those very Boers," Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Keep your eye on Charlotte. Vote for a bigger and busier Winter Port. Mayes took Gage as his model. There's a nice pair to draw to. Do you see any signs of a safe Conservative seat in New Brunswick?

Liberals predict a majority of 1,500 for Mr. Emmerson in Westmorland. Charlotte is going to elect Mr. Todd. The Liberals there are putting up a great campaign.

Roll up the majorities for Pugsley and Pender and make St. John the Atlantic outlet for four great railways.

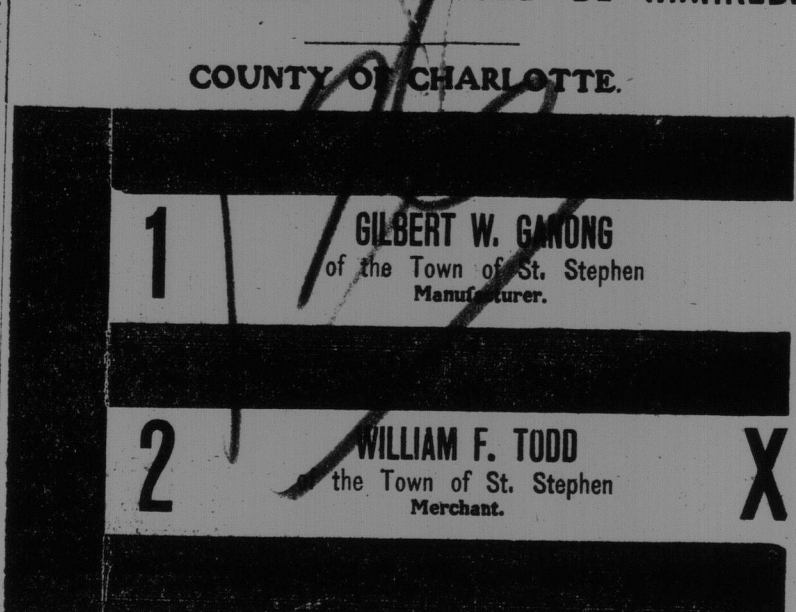

Col. McLean wants to have a firm grip upon Queens-Sunbury. That fine constituency wants a man who will see that its needs are recognized.

Laurier—they can't beat him. While he leads the electors the Conservatives must remain in opposition. They know it, too.

In York Mr. Brown has the enemy worried. The longer the electors contrast Mr. Brown with Mr. Crockett the smaller the Crockett chances grow.

Toronto Saturday Night speaking of Sir Wilfrid Laurier says: "He remains a public figure splendid and alone in the imagination of the people. He cannot be beaten in a young and impressionable two for each side. It is clear enough that the Maritime Provinces will add materially to the big majority Sir Wilfrid will have in the rest of the Dominion.

The short and sharp campaign has been one of simple and direct issues. The Conservatives have presented no constructive programme, have raised no slogan which has caught the public ear, have depended from the first upon slanders against the Liberal leaders who have done so much for Canada.

From the first it has been recognized everywhere that the country would respond strongly, eagerly, to the voice of the great Liberal chieftain asking for an opportunity to finish his work. Nomination day found his forces unbroken, confident, filled with the fighting spirit inspired by good leadership and successful and patriotic administration.

Some of the Conservatives pretend to hope for victory—but they find it difficult to keep up the pretence, so general is the conviction that the government will go back to power with an unparalleled majority.

The people are going to give Laurier a chance to finish his work.

THE BIGGEST POLITICAL DEMONSTRATION

The biggest political demonstration in Ottawa's history was the Laurier meeting last Saturday evening. Ottawa, like Canada generally, is bound that Sir Wilfrid shall have a chance to finish the magnificent work he is doing for Canada.

There is no nonsense about Mr. James Pender. His straightforward appeal to the citizens of St. John is the message of a public-spirited and successful business man, who would do us good service at Ottawa. St. John will elect him by a routing majority.

In order to get Mr. Fowler to consent to a joint debate Mr. Carvell has not only to go to Mr. Fowler's doorstep but allow Mr. Fowler to open and close the meeting. It's a wonder the Kings-Albert orator didn't want to make all three speeches and just have Mr. Carvell listen.

Dr. McAlister shook up Mr. Fowler in debate at Sussex Monday. The Liberals in Kings-Albert are going to beat Mr. McAlister this time. They will give Dr. McAlister a majority in both counties. It's time.

Let it not be forgotten that Mayes, who began to dredge at fifty-five cents, and then got ninety, raised his price to $1.10 when he was asked to do some work at the I. C. R. pier. If he had, he probably would have demanded $1.50 thereafter. Mayes is a philanthropist. And he has a philanthropist for a lawyer.
