MAPLE HILL.

TIME Subscribers beg to announce to their friends in New York, that the new building has been erected and fitted up for a HOUSE OF COMMONS, and is now open for the reception of members of the Legislature, and others, who may desire to meet on the MANHATTAN ROAD. The place is spacious, airy, and the drive presents a great variety of objects.

THE PRACTICAL & SPACIOUS GROUNDS

at Maple Hill are admirably adapted for OUT-DOOR Sports, and may be secured for PIC-NIC, BALSAS, &c., or any other purpose, by application to the Proprietor.

CHARLES WATKINS,

CARD.

D. E. DUNHAM

ARCHITECT.

Rooms, 1 and 5 Board's Building,

108 PRINCE WILLIAM STREET.

Persons intending to build or remodel their buildings will do well to call at the above address, and the subscriber agrees to give all his information and assistance in the matter.

Much interest is excited at present by catastrophes by walking up the family when the house was on fire and sparing them from incipient cremation.
