The Price of Success

Big business is not an accident—it is a result. It is the fruit of purpose, energy, persistency and ADVERTISING.

You know the story of Rip Van Winkle—the man who went to sleep for 20 years and who, when he awoke, expected to find the world the same as it was when he entered slumberland.

There are men today very much like Rip Van Winkle—the point of view and their practices are those of a generation past. They do not believe in advertising.

To succeed in these modern days one must be in accord with the spirit of today. For a merchant, this means that he must advertise, if he would prosper.

A WORD TO THE PUBLIC

Where are you served best and most pleasingly? The answer is almost sure to be—"Where we are invited and made welcome. At those shops which prize our custom enough to seek it, and who ask for it every week through the medium of advertisements."

Seventeen hundred and seventy London families are now in possession of government permits authorizing them to make home brew.

The apple crop of Middlesex county this year will run only from 50 to 55 per cent. of last year's crop, or about a total of 8,000 barrels, Edgar Bogue, district fruit inspector, states. Most of the good apples in Middlesex are already under contract.

Moonshine liquor was responsible for the appearance in police court at the Moraviantown reserve of eight Indians, all of whom were convicted and fined $15 and costs each. Two white men, Russell Haggitt and J. Parish, were fined $20 and costs each on liquor charges.

While George Annett and family, of the 12th concession of Brooke, were at the Alvinston fair, their fine large barns were totally destroyed by fire, along with some sheds and implements. The fire appears to have started in the hay mow from some unknown cause. Little insurance was carried.

John Duncan, a former resident of Alldborough township, was the means of securing the arrest of five men implicated in the killing of a sheriff at Warsaw, Missouri, for which there was a reward of $1,000. An automatic gear-shift has been patented. The driver has no gears to handle, except when shifting into reverse. As soon as the car is started the shifting is automatic, sliding from first to second and then to third as the speed increases. The gears automatically shift back as the car slows down. The device is considered of inestimable value to drivers in crowded city traffic.

NEW UNIVERSITY OPENED

With brilliant ceremonial the board of governors Thursday afternoon conducted the formal opening of the new home of the University of Western Ontario at London, completing the day's proceedings with a special convocation in the evening in the Winter Gardens at which honorary degrees were conferred upon ten persons distinguished for their interest in and association with higher education.

Sir Arthur Currie, as a Middlesex old boy, officiated at the unveiling of a bronze memorial tablet erected to honor the memory of Middlesex men and women who gave their lives on active service in the World War. The county council, in granting substantial cash assistance to the university building funds, stipulated that the result should be a memorial to her soldiers.

UP TO EYES IN FALL WORK

In other days grain harvesting time was considered as the rush season on Ontario farms, says the weekly report from the Department of Agriculture. Changes in the crop proportions and in methods of storing have altered this, and now the early fall period is conceded to be the busiest in most sections of Ontario. Harvesting, threshing, silo filling, plowing and making general preparations for the winter would bewilder many farmers were they not so busy completing these tasks. For these reasons and because of previous rains, the beautiful weather of the past week was considered a blessing, of which full advantage was taken. Frost is holding off well in the southern parts of the province, thus permitting maturing of late crops. Pastures are reported as being excellent all over Ontario, and consequently live stock are in unusually good condition.

The potato crop is generally good, and while a few sections have reported some rot, some of the heavy producing areas have not complained. The marketing price varies from 45c to $1.10 per bag in different districts.

Owing to a steady invasion and the favorable conditions of this moist season, the corn-borer has made a rapid increase, particularly in Essex and Kent. Entomologists are warning the farmers that they must employ control methods or be prepared to sacrifice this important crop.

High grain prices have had the usual effect. Undoubtedly more wheat, barley and oats are being sold off the farm in Ontario than for several years past, particularly from Bruce, Huron and Grey. Some wheat in the latter county is being sold at $1.40 per bushel, though the general price at country points seems to be 10 to 15 cents below this figure. Considerable hay is also moving, though sales seem to be fairly well confined to Northern Ontario, where clover and timothy is grown as a cash crop. Baled hay is worth $20 per ton at Kenora, several carloads having recently left the district at that price. At Emo, in Rainy River, No. 1 hay is being shipped out at $17.

Although apples do not seem to be up to the quality of last year, prices are higher, and there is a keen demand by buyers operating in the country. Prices vary from $4 to $6 per barrel.

KILLED IN ODD MISHAP

Mrs. William Scott, wife of the caretaker of the Presbyterian church at Parkhill, was almost instantly killed Monday afternoon in the yard of her home, as the result of a most unusual runaway accident.

H. Ross, of West Williams, was delivering a load of wood at the Scott residence and while he was unloading the wood Mrs. Scott went into the yard to remove some blankets from a clothes line. The horses became frightened and attempted to run away. The tongue of the wagon crashed into a woodshed in the yard and overturned it, Mrs. Scott being struck by the falling building. The corner of the shed hit her on the temple and she died within a few minutes.

The deceased was about 65 years of age, and is survived by her husband.

"A Dominion general election next year—about a year from now—is on the political cards, according to common gossip in political circles.

MEETS FORMER GERMAN GUARD

Rev. E. W. McKegney, of Dutton, concludes that the world is after all very small. In July, 1918, he was a prisoner of war at Karlsruhe, and, of course, was guarded very closely by German officers, whom he expected after his release never to meet again. What was his surprise to meet in Rodney the other day one of his guards, a young man who recently arrived from Germany and is now making his home in that village. Recognition was followed by a brief interesting conversation, as the former guard's knowledge of English is very limited. Mr. McKegney states that he had no complaint to make of the treatment he received while at Karlsruhe.

WEEKLY PUBLISHERS MEET

Western Ontario members of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association, in session at London on Friday, were welcomed by Mayor Wendell and officers of the Chamber of Commerce at a noon luncheon. J. A. MacLaren, of Barrie, chairman of the Ontario division, suggested minimum advertising rates, a study of costs, and other measures to benefit the rural publishers. Other speakers included A. R. Kennedy, editor of the London Advertiser; Lorne Eedy, of Walkerton, president of the Association, and Manager Sayles. Owing to the limited time at their disposal the publishers were unable to accept a pressing invitation to attend the opening ceremonies of the Western University being held that afternoon. Appreciation of the splendid welcome and entertainment accorded the gathering on behalf of the city was unanimously expressed.

RECENT MARRIAGES

A quiet marriage took place at the rectory, Glencoe, on Wednesday of last week, when Miss Hazel Dodge, only daughter of Frank Dodge, of Alvinston, was united in marriage to Robert Dudley, of Inwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dudley, of Brooke.

The marriage was quietly solemnized at the Ridout Street Methodist church, London, on October 15th, of Miss Margaret Christina Munro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Patterson, of Alvinston, and Allen Russell Purcell, son of Dugald Purcell, of Wardsville.

A quiet wedding was solemnized by Rev. D. Robertson at the Kilmartin manse at 3:30 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, October 11th, when Margaret Belle Patterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Patterson, of Walkers, was united in marriage to John Clifford Morrow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Morrow, of London.

TO ADVERTISE TALBOT ROUTE

Organization of an association to advertise the southern or Talbot route of the Provincial Highway from Windsor to Niagara Falls, via St. Thomas, was started at a meeting of municipal representatives in Blenheim Wednesday afternoon. The association plans to spend thousands of dollars next year in acquainting American tourists with the southern route.

Prior to the business of organization, J. N. Currie and A. E. Aldred, of Glencoe, addressed the meeting, asking support in petitioning the Government for the designation of a cross-country Provincial Highway, between Grand Bend and the Southern Highway, connecting with the latter on the Alldborough-Dunwich townline just east of Eagle. This route would open up the north country to the Southern Highway and give access to Lake Huron through a prosperous farming section. Mr. Aldred explained. They considered it the only logical connection that will adequately serve Middlesex and Elgin counties as well as those west. The meeting decided to leave the subject over for discussion at some future meeting.

DAMAGES ACTION DISMISSED

At the Middlesex fall assizes Friday night the case was dismissed in which Miles McDougald, of the Muncy Indian Reserve, sued Dr. W. H. Woods, of Mount Brydges, and Rev. S. R. McVitty, president of Mount Elgin Institute, for $5,000 damages, claiming that the death of his daughter, Betsie McDougald, 16 years old, on November 10, 1923, following an operation for the removal of tonsils and adenoids, was due to negligence on the part of the two defendants named.

Justice Riddell held as fact on the evidence submitted that the two defendants, Dr. Woods and Principal McVitty, had done their straight, honest duty, and accordingly dismissed the case with costs.

GOVERNMENT CONTROL

AS IT IS IN ALBERTA

(By a former G.H.S. girl)

Vegreville, Alberta, Oct. 4. One year ago we voted on the liquor question in Alberta, and Government sale of liquor carried. We have had only about four months' trial of it so far, as the Government did not sell liquor until about May 1st. Already we have seen some dreadful things, enough to let us know they were telling us lies when they told us conditions would be much better if the Government could just sell the liquor and stop the boot-legging.

We now have the beer rooms and Government liquor stores in our towns. Our home is near the little town of Vegreville which has about 1,500 inhabitants, so we shall look at conditions there.

There are two beer rooms in Vegreville and one Government liquor store. The liquor store sells all kinds of liquors while the beer rooms sell beer by the glass. They told us that the first day the Government liquor store opened in Vegreville a carload of liquor was sold.

We were told positively that we would not get the old bars back again, but they have given us a new bar system which is much worse than the old bar in many ways. The old bar was a "stand up to" affair, while the new one they sit down to. The room is furnished with little tables where you and your chums may sit down, order your beer and drink and drink until you get sleepy, then when you wake up drink more, then go home to your waiting loved ones, a helpless idiot.

Women are beginning to attend these places, even those who would like to be considered respectable. As you pass these drinking places you hear the same sounds as in the old bar days, the jingle of glasses, the loud talking and profanity, and you smell the reek of booze. One man living near Vegreville said to his friend, "Come here and look into this barroom. It's the dirtiest hole you ever saw."

Two prominent business men in Vegreville said there had been more drunken men on the streets of Vegreville the other Saturday night than there had been in three years under prohibition. It is now a common occurrence to see drunken men walking the streets. The bailiff here in travelling these country roads says that bootleggers are much freer with their moonshine than they were under prohibition. They are not much afraid of being caught. Many cases of delirium tremens are coming into the Edmonton hospitals since May 1st. Besides the moonshine, they say at the present time there is a stock of $150,000 worth of liquor on hand in Vegreville, and this means children half clothed during the bitter winter just ahead of us.

Men can be seen drinking booze from their bottles as they pass along in their cars.

We are counting on Ontario voting dry, to be the guiding star that shall lead the other provinces back again to the right way. Do not disappoint us.

Be a booster for your home town. If you let people know of the great opportunities your town offers, they will "sit up and take notice," and finally see you are right. There is no town, however small, but has some advantages. Look at the natural advantages of your home town, think how they could be utilized successfully. When towns look good to a stranger you can rest assured that your boosting has been effectual.
